The Politics Of The European Court Of Justice European Dossier Series:

The Politics of the European Court of Justice Richard Kuper, 1998 Examining the major if controversial role of the European Court of Justice in the development of the European Union this text argues that the Court is a highly political body contrary to the legal formalism which sees the Court's decisions as the unfolding of pure legal principles the European Union Catherine Hoskyns, 2018-02-06 The European Union's democratic deficit and ways that might be found to resolve it are hot issues in both academic debate and practical politics Democratizing the European Union offers a fresh approach to this subject by bringing together a diverse range of authors who have been actively involved either in analyzing the activities of the European Union or participating in them The contributors go beyond a primarily institutional approach by highlighting issues having to do with values participation and exclusion Collectively this volume also transcends the limitations of abstract theory Embracing a range of perspectives and including discussions of major contemporary challenges such as enlargement and economic and monetary union this book contains a detailed analysis of the response of New Labour to the democratization debate The contributions include Sue Cohen Social Solidarity in the Delors Period Sverker Gustavsson Reconciling Suprastatism and Accountability A View from Sweden Stefano Fella A Europe of the Peoples New Labour and Democratizing the EU John Lambert and Catherine Hoskyns How Democratic is the European Parliament Valerio Lintner Controlling Monetary Union Mary Kaldor Eastern Enlargement and Democracy Richard Kuper Democratization A Constitutionalizing Process and Catherine Hoskyns Democratizing the EU Evidence and Argument Democratizing the European Union is essential reading for all those with an interest in the EU and broader questions of democracy It is also particularly useful for students of European Studies and practitioners involved in EU policymaking and lobbying

European Union Politics Michelle|Borragan Cini (Nieves Perez-Solorzano),2025 This edited textbook covers a broad range of topics being taught in courses on the European Union The 25 chapters are written by experts from around the world and provide extensive coverage of history theories institutions and actors policies and issues and debates European Union Publishers' Forum ,1998 European Access ,2000 Handbook of Public Administration and Policy in the European Union M. Peter van der Hoek,2005-06-13 The Handbook of Public Administration and Policy in the European Union focuses on the current state of the EU while also demonstrating how its current structure came into being and how it may change in the near future Although most existing literature is either policy oriented or institution oriented this textbook employs a different more comprehensive approach Not only does it analyze selected EU laws and most EU institutions it is also unique in that it brings together EU public administration EU institutions and most importantly EU policies into a comprehensive text Divided into five parts the book provides an overview of theory discourses on European integration followed by an analysis of the development of European organizations Part II explains the nature of the EU highlighting its institutions Part III addresses various dimensions of public administration followed by a review in Part IV of major EU policies including the Common Agricultural Policy The textbook concludes with a history of Economic and Monetary Union and a study of the European Central Bank and the euro

The European Unfair Commercial Practices Directive Willem van Boom, Amandine Garde, 2016-02-11 One of the most important EU consumer protection directives of the past decade the 2005 Unfair Commercial Practices Directive or UCPD is brought under examination in this stimulating volume Bringing together leading experts in the comparative law and consumer law domain the book discusses the impact of the Directive and whether the many possible issues identified at its inception have been borne out in practice Divided into four parts of Implementation Approximation and Harmonization Vulnerability The UCP Directive and Other Regimes and finally Enforcement the volume examines the various policy developments the growing body of case law the decisions of relevant national enforcement authorities as well as the legislative debates which have surrounded the implementation of the UCPD in Member States This book provides a valuable assessment of the impact of a major EU directive almost ten years after its adoption and as such will be of interest to academics legal practitioners and the judiciary working in the areas of European and Consumer law Politics Jeffrey Kopstein, Mark Lichbach, Stephen E. Hanson, 2014-07-21 Twelve in depth case studies of the EU and countries across the globe written by the leading country specialists and combining insights of cutting edge institutional analysis and deep study of national histories explore how the concepts of interests identities and institutions shape the politics of nations and regions The country studies trace the global and historical contexts of political development and examine the diverse pathways that countries have taken in their guest to adapt to the competitive pressures of twenty first century globalization These country studies constitute the overarching framework of the text addressing the larger question why are countries ruled and governed so differently Free of heavy handed jargon Comparative Politics inspires thought provoking debate among introductory students and specialists alike and encourages students to engage in real comparative analysis In this new edition all twelve country studies have been rewritten and the first two theory chapters have been updated to reflect the latest research in the field Legislative Codecision in the European Union Anne Rasmussen, 2017-07-05 This volume takes stock of twenty years of practising and studying codecision in the European Union EU and examines the procedure s long term implications for the EU s institutions politics and policies The introduction of co legislation between the Council of Ministers and the European Parliament in 1993 raised the prospect of increased parliamentary involvement in EU decision making and promised a new era of more transparent inclusive and accountable policy making This collection draws together contributions from diverse theoretical and methodological perspectives in order to analyse the extent to which codecision has delivered the expected gains and to review the unexpected effects that have followed from its introduction such as the growing informalisation of EU decision making Using a combination of in depth qualitative case studies wider quantitative analyses practitioners insights and a review of the procedure's democratic legitimacy the contributions offer a holistic assessment of the effect of co decision on the political system of the EU This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy Family Reunification in the EU Chiara Berneri, 2017-05-18 This monograph examines the intricate legislative and jurisprudential scenario of family reunification between EU citizens and third country nationals that has developed in the European Union over the last 50 years Focusing on family residence rights granted to third country national family members of EU citizens it examines one of the largest sectors affected with over two hundred thousand permits granted each year In addition to its practical significance the field has been the object of a lively debate which has vet to be systematically analysed Using a historical approach it illustrates the development of the legislation and of the case law on the issue considering the factors that influenced the choices of the EU Legislator and of the Court over the years It also suggests what future path the Court could take when deciding on cases in the field in order to reinforce the protection of families This important research ensures full understanding of the EU legislation and of the Court's jurisprudence and allows for its correct application by Member States Transnational Activism in the UN and the EU Jutta Joachim, Birgit Locher, 2008-11-04 Comparing non governmental organizations NGOs in the United Nations and the European Union across a range of different issue areas this volume examines how the choice of venue and institution affects the strategies of NGOs Despite significant differences with respect to their scope membership as well as their institutional rules the authors find that the UN and the EU have surprisingly similar effects on civil society organizations and regulate access in such a way that it significantly constrains the agency of NGOs Highlights include A comprehensive outline of the volume s main research questions situated within the existing literature on the topic Eight case studies of NGO involvement in the UN and the EU across a range of different areas including human rights the environment socio economic and security issues A theoretically grounded summary of case study findings challenging the findings of previous studies regarding the power of NGOs A discussion of the finding s implications for the broader literature as well as for studies relating to the EU and the UN in particular Transnational Activism in the UN and the EU will be of interest to students and scholars of International Relations European Studies and Global Politics Jutta Joachim is Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of Hannover Germany Birgit Locher is a Research Fellow at the Institute of Political Science at the University of T bingen Germany

The European Union as an Area of Freedom, Security and Justice Maria Fletcher, Ester Herlin-Karnell, Claudio Matera, 2016-11-25 This book presents a collection of essays on key topics and new perspectives on the EU s Area of Freedom Security and Justice AFSJ and has a Foreword by the President of the Court of Justice of the European Union Prof Dr Koen Lenaerts Europe s area of freedom security and justice is of increasing importance in contemporary EU law and legislation It is worthy of special research attention because of its high stakes content particularly from an individual and a state perspective and because its development to date has tangentially thrown up some of the most important and contentious constitutional questions in EU law As the AFSI becomes more and more intertwined with mainstream EU law this edited collection provides a timely analysis of the merger between the two Showcasing a selection of work from key thinkers in this field the book is organised around the major AFSI themes of crime security border control civil law cooperation and important meta issues of governance and constitutional law It also analyses the major constitutional and governance challenges such as variable geometry institutional dynamics and interface with rights around data protection secrecy spying In the concluding section of the book the editors consider the extent to which the different facets of the AFSI can be construed in a coherent and systematic manner within the EU legal system as well as identifying potential future research agendas The European Union as an Area of Freedom Security and Justice will be of great interest to students and scholars of European law and politics The EU's Decision Traps Gerda Falkner, 2011-05-12 Fritz W Scharpf's renowned model of the joint decision trap suggestes that the requirements of nearly unanimous decisions in the EU s Council of Ministers combined with conflicting preferences among member governments will systematically limit the problem solving effectiveness of European policies However certain conditions have significantly changed in the 25 years since the theory was first posited In particular the unanimity rule has been replaced by qualified majority voting in most issue areas and successive rounds of enlargement have augmented the diversity of member state interests and preferences This volume examines the continued relevance of the model It presents a comparative study on the differential politics in EU policies Looking at the political dynamics in an array of EU activities it analyses breakthroughs as well as stalemates and asks why leaps occur in some areas whilst blockages characterise others The dynamics that allow the EU to escape various forms of decision trap are analysed in depth including those suggested by rationalist theorists supranational hierarchical steering treaty base games and arena shifting and those suggested by constructivist approaches socialisation The volume concludes that when the EU is confronted with a high degree of problem pressure in a given issue area these mechanisms will often not be available because most remain outside politicians immediate grasp Economics and Power in EU Chemicals Policy and Regulation Laura Maxim, 2023-03-02 In this timely and insightful book Laura Maxim evaluates the use of socio economic analysis SEA in the regulation of potentially carcinogenic mutagenic and toxic chemicals Retracing the history of the use of cost benefit analysis in chemical risk policies this book presents contemporary discourse on the political success of SEA Genetically Modified and non-Genetically Modified Food Supply Chains Yves Bertheau, 2012-09-10 In the European Union nations and other countries including Japan Australia and Malaysia it is a legal requirement that food products containing genetically modified organism GMO materials are labelled as such in order that customers may make informed purchasing decisions For manufacturers and consumers to be confident about these assertions systems must be in place along the entire food chain which support the co existence of GM and non GM materials whilst maintaining a strict segregation between the two This book is an output of a European Union funded project entitled Co Extra GM and non GM food and feed supply chains their Co Existence and Traceability The objective of this four year project is to provide practical tools and methods for implementing co existence that will enable the co existence of genetically modified GM and non GM crops enable the segregation and tracing of genetically modified organism GMO materials and derived products along the food and feed chains anticipate the future expansion of the use of GMOs The project is designed to foster a robustly science based debate amongst all of the stakeholders involved in the food and feed chains and the tools will be assessed not only from a technical point of view but with regard to the economic and legal aspects It also surveys the GMO related legal regimes and practices that exist in and beyond the EU This book examines the practical tools and methods available to implement the co existence and traceability of GM and non GM food materials along the entire food and feed chains as demanded by consumers and by legislation in force in the EU and elsewhere GM and Non GM Supply Foods is a source of valuable information for food manufacturers food research institutions and regulatory bodies internationally State, Religion and Muslims Melek Saral, Şerif Onur Bahcecik, 2020-03-02 State Religion and Muslims Between Discrimination and Protection at the Legislative Executive and Judicial Levels brings together academics from different disciplines and offers an in depth analysis of discrimination in specific areas of life which affects Muslims in Western countries The volume undertakes a comprehensive examination of the discriminatory practices across 12 countries while situating them in their institutional frameworks Exploring critical aspects of discrimination against Muslims in areas such as education employment exercise of religion state relations with religious communities as well as hate crime and hate speech the volume shows the prevalence of individual structural and institutional discrimination against Muslims living in Western countries Contributors are Amina Easat Daas Andrea Pin Beesan Sarrouh Camille Vallier Dieter Schiendlauer Eva Brems Ineke van der Valk Ksenija abec Maja Pucelj Mario Peucker Mosa Sayed Nesa Zimmermann Niels Valdemar Vinding and Safa ben Saad Lobbying the European Union David Coen, Jeremy Richardson, 2009-06-04 Seeking to understand the role of interest groups in the policy process from agenda setting to implementation in the EU this book contains details of processes of institutional and actor learning professionalisation of lobbying and the possible emergence of a distinct EU public policy style Democracy and Lobbying in the European Union Karolina Karr, 2007 Can interest groups and lobbyists arguably undemocratic institutions operate in democratic systems without hindering the people's interests Karolina Karr's Democracy and Lobbying in the European Union explores the role and potential impact of interest groups on democracy both in theory and practice in the context of a changing continent This timely volume explores how the power of interest groups has developed due to the growing distance between elected representatives and the European people and forecasts what this development might mean for the vitality of government
