Intellectuals and the Communist Idea Ladislav Cabada, Zdenek Benedikt, 2010-09-14 Intellectuals and the Communist Idea describes how the Communist ideology penetrated into Czech culture and politics from the dawn of the twentieth century into the late 1930s just before the outbreak of WW II in Europe Based mainly upon the research of contemporary primary sources the analysis examines the complex issue of personal reasons and individual motivations appealing slogans and ideological and power peripheries connected with the formation of the relationship between the newly founded Communist Party in Czechoslovakia and the left wing artists and intellectuals declaring themselves Marxists The work follows two main paths the first is marked by the melting of the pre war meaning WWI libertarian communism and radical left wing stream in Czech politics into the Czechoslovak Communist Party established in 1921 and becoming a strong and relevant political subject soon after its foundation The second path follows the left wing art front involvement in the Communist Party and its activities within This concise insight into the world of Czech Communist intellectuals uncovers the ideological bigotry and intolerance of the Communist class defined ideology together with pointing out the unprincipled pragmatics of the ideological flops committed by the members of the interwar Communist movement under Lenin's and later Stalin's ward. The book illustrates clearly how the initial enthusiasm of the Czech Communist intellectuals eventually changed either into disillusionment resulting in their disaffiliation with Communism or into permanent fear and obedient loyalty which later became the base for establishing the Communist system in post WW II Czechoslovakia. The Austrian Dimension in German Intellectual History David S. Luft, 2021-05-20 Tracing Austrian intellectual life from Maria Theresa to Hitler's annexation of Austria and Czechoslovakia, this innovative book offers a precise and engaging account of Austrian intellectual history since the Enlightenment. Here David S. Luft begins by locating his narrative in the region known as Cisleithania, Austria, the area to the west of the Leitha River that was the basis for the modern Austrian state after 1740. Chapter 2 provides a history of the German-speaking intellectual life of these central lands of the Habsburg Monarchy, Austria and Bohemia, from the Enlightenment to annexation by Nazi Germany. Chapters 3 to 5 identify the most important philosophers, writers, and social thinkers who contributed to Austrian intellectual life in the period between 1740 and 1938. 1939 and address the intellectual significance of their work. Elegantly written and meticulously researched, Luft's book brings out the contributions of major figures such as Wittgenstein, Hofmannsthal, Musil, Kafka, Rilke, and Freud, but also draws attention to less well-known figures such as Bolzano, Brentano, Grillparzer, Stifter, Broch, and Hayek. Research Handbook on the Sociology of Knowledge Fran Collyer, 2025-07-15 This timely Handbook celebrates and contributes to the recent revitalisation of the sociology of knowledge. Beyond Government Craufurd D. Goodwin, 2019-03-07 Beyond Government examines how vigorous and truly pluralistic policy debate has evolved in both mature and emerging democracies and then suggests how it may be encouraged from within and sustained by outside assistance. The contributors argue that a strong democracy thrives on a rich population of organizations and individuals that respond to the issues of the moment, the concerns of groups within society that wish to be heard, and the styles of interaction that seem most appropriate at any given time. The volume has five parts. In the first three, U.S.-based authors present models of public debate from the American experience. In the second part, four authors, two from Latin America and two from Eastern Europe, chronicle and analyze the public debate that accompanied their countries' transitions to democracy. The third section includes chapters on specific areas of policy research; the fourth shifts attention to the institutions that foster debate; and the fifth assesses contributions to public debate from abroad by foundations and the corporate sector A concluding section looks ahead to challenges and opportunities Transitions and Non-Transitions from Communism Steven Saxonberg, 2013-02-14 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall many scholars have sought to explain the collapse of communism Yet more than two decades on communist regimes continue to rule in a diverse set of countries including China Cuba North Korea and Vietnam In a unique study of fourteen countries Steven Saxonberg explores the reasons for the survival of some communist regimes while others fell He also shows why the process of collapse differed among communist led regimes in Europe Africa and Latin America Based on the analysis of the different processes of collapse that has already taken place and taking into account the special characteristics of the remaining communist regimes Transitions and Non-Transitions from Communism discusses the future prospects for the survival of the regimes in China Cuba North Korea and Vietnam Sociology in Hungary Victor Karády, Péter Tibor Nagy, 2019-07-29 This book is the first English language study of the social intellectual and institutional history of sociology and the social sciences in Hungary Starting with the emergence of the discipline in the early 20th century Karády and Nagy chart its development throughout various transformations of Hungarian society from the liberal Dual Monarchy through the respective Christian and Stalinist regimes and culminating in the modern scholarly field today Drawing on large scale prosopographical materials the authors use empirically based socio historical analysis to measure the impact of successive and radical regime changes on the country's intellectual life This will be an important and original point of reference for scholars and students of historical sociology and Eastern European intellectual history Extension of MFN Status to Rumania, Hungary, and the People's Republic of China United States.
