The Power Of A City At Prayer:

Spiritual Leadership in the Global City Mac Pier, 2008 Spiritual Leadership in the Global City is a contemporary study of the extraordinary spiritual leaders God has called out to be a sphere of influence in the global city of New York Recognized voice and spiritual leader Mac Pier has compiled the stories of these leaders and the churches that are collaborating at historic levels to transform lives in the city and the city itself City Reaching: Jack Dennison, 2000-02-15 This book assists Christians in fulfilling the Great Commission by presenting a plan that will enable them to share the gospel in the cities of America and the world Dennison s strategy for city reaching is both spiritual and practical in leading the Church to a higher level of missionary service The Power of a City at Prayer Mac Pier, Katie Sweeting, 2002-01-01 Months before September 11 2001 many Greater New York churches were uniting together in one of the largest urban prayer movements in the world So when disaster struck on that late summer Tuesday morning the churches and people were already in place to comfort heal and pray for miracles Mac Pier and Katie Sweeting coordinators for Concerts of Prayer Greater New York write about their experiences in The Power of a City at Prayer They explain how to build an urban prayer ministry and they share powerful examples of how such prayer movements have dramatically influenced neighborhoods communities and cities around the world including New York City before and after September 11 2001 Building a People of Power Robert C. Linthicum, 2015-09-15 Jesus never intended the church to become an institution he intended it to be a people of power transforming the world Power is the capacity ability and the willingness to act Most people and systems use power to dominate and control but others have used it relationally to liberate transform and even save Built around a biblical exploration of shalom Building a People of Power explains how local churches can use power to transform their communities and their cities Detailed power strategies are presented enabling churches to build productive relationships to address the primary issues of people they serve and to develop strong leaders faithful organizations and redeemed neighborhoods that live out shalom Reconciling Places Paul A. Hoffman, 2020-08-12 Jesus said Blessed are the peacemakers but in our increasingly polarized communities and nation where can a person of faith begin In Reconciling Places pastor and scholar Paul Hoffman introduces laypeople and ministry leaders to a theology of reconciliation that equips Christians to act as reconcilers and bridge builders wherever they are and whatever issues divide their communities A Theology as Big as the City Raymond J Bakke, 2025-07-29 As we look at the world class cities around our planet we face five new urban realities a crack cocaine epidemic assault weapons massive numbers of homeless children HIV AIDS and in the U S what Time magazine has called the browning of America The needs of the urban population are greater than ever As our cities swell with immigrants I m reminded that Jesus was born in a borrowed barn in Asia and became an African refugee in Egypt so the Christmas story is about an international migrant Furthermore a whole village full of baby boys died for Jesus before he had the opportunity to die for them on the cross Surely this Jesus understands the pain of children who die for the sins of adults

Catholic Spirituality and Prayer in the Secular City Robert A. Burns, 2008-09-05 In the United States against the background of secularization the religious atmospheres have changed radically in the past 40 years In 1965 President Lyndon Johnson signed the Immigration and Naturalization Act which opened America's doors to immigrants from all over the world As a result approximately one million immigrants legally enter the United States each year and bring with them religions traditions such as Islam Buddhism and Hinduism Catholic Spirituality and Prayer in the Secular City presents the role of religion and spirituality in a rapidly changing religious scenario Author Robert A Burns explores ways Catholics have been called upon to develop their spiritual lives in the most religious pluralistic society that has ever existed Burns acknowledges the struggle that many people face when seeking a deeper spirituality and do not now where or how to begin and seeks to guide readers through the confusion and back to the meaning of spirituality This book leads readers through the various approaches taken to achieving a deeper spiritual life by presenting and discussing the religious philosophies of spiritual leaders throughout history Ultimately Catholic Spirituality and Prayer in the Secular City provides readers with the ability to see themselves in a proper context by offering a new avenue for deeper spirituality

Revival in the City Eric R. Crouse, 2005-09-23 From the 1880s to the outset of World War I the best known American evangelists held hundreds of revival meetings in cities across Canada Over a million and a half Canadians gathered in churches roller rinks halls theatres factories and even saloons to hear the likes of D L Moody Sam Jones Sam Small Reuben Torrey and J Wilbur Chapman preach a particular brand of American revivalism While at first these meetings were as successful in Canada as they were in the US by the second decade of the twentieth century the support of Canadian Protestant leaders for revivalism had diminished The American evangelists inspired their largely working class listeners by talk of personal salvation but Eric Crouse argues in an increasingly secular climate this inspiration

did not lead them to become church members The Canadian church leadership thus came to see the revival experience as costly and ineffective
