The Pre Occupation Of Postcolonial Studies:

The Pre-occupation of Postcolonial Studies Fawzia Afzal-Khan, Kalpana Seshadri-Crooks, 2000 The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies contains essays by both leading figures and younger scholars engaged in the field of postcolonial studies In this state of the field reader editors Fawzia Afzal Khan and Kalpana Seshadri Crooks have created a dynamic forum for contributors from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary vantage points to question both the limits and the limitations of postcolonial thought Since it burst on the academic scene as the hot new disciplinary field during the final decade of the twentieth century postcolonial studies has faced criticism from those who question its troubling trajectories its sometimes suspect epistemological and pedagogical methods and its relatively narrow focus With diverse essays that emerge from such disciplines as South Asian Latin American Arab and Jewish studies this volume responds to skeptics and adherers alike addressing not only the broad theoretical issues at stake within the field but also the position of the field itself within the academy as well as its relationship to modern postmodern and Marxist discourses Contributors offer critiques on ahistorical and universalizing tendencies in postcolonial work and confront the need for scholars to attend to issues of class ideology and the effects of neocolonial practices Seeking to broaden the field's traditionally literary spectrum of methodologies these essayists take up large thematic issues to examine specific sites of colonial activities with all of their historical political and cultural significance Closing the volume is an insightful interview with Homi Bhabha in which he discusses postcolonial studies in the context of contemporary cultural politics and theory The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies not only offers an overview of the discipline but also pushes and pulls at the edges of postcolonial studies offering a comprehensive view of the field's diversity of thought and envisioning clear pathways for its future Contributors Fawzia Afzal Khan Ali Behdad Homi Bhabha Daniel Boyarin Neil Larsen Saree Makdisi Joseph Massad Walter D. Postcolonial Theory and the Arab-Israel Conflict Philip Carl Salzman,Donna Robinson Divine,2021-04-26

Postcolonial theory is one of the main frameworks for thinking about the world and acting to change the world Arising in academia and reshaping humanities and social sciences disciplines postcolonial theory argues that our ideas about foreigners the other particularly our negative ideas about them are determined not by a true will to understand but rather by our desire to conquer dominate and exploit them According to postcolonial theory the cause of poverty tyranny and misery in the world and of failed societies around the world is Euro American imperialism and colonialism Previously published as a special issue of Israel Affairs this work examines and challenges postcolonial theory In scholarly research based papers the specialist authors examine various facets of postcolonial theory and application First the theoretical assumption and formulations of postcolonial theory are scrutinized and found dubious Second the deleterious impact on academic disciplines of postcolonial theory is demonstrated Third the distorted postcolonial view of history its obsession with current events to the exclusion of the historical basis of events is exposed and corrected Fourth an examination of Middle Eastern culture challenges the assumption that these societies have been shaped entirely and victimized by Western intrusion Finally exploring the Arab Israel conflict the one sided case of postcolonial Arabism is explored and found to be faulty

Scaling the Balkans Maria N. Todorova, 2018-09-11 Scaling the Balkans puts in conversation several fields that have been traditionally treated as discrete Balkan studies Ottoman studies East European studies and Habsburg and Russian studies By looking at the complex interrelationship between countries and regions demonstrating how different perspectives and different methodological approaches inflect interpretations and conclusions it insists on the heuristic value of scales The volume is a collection of published and unpublished essays dealing with issues of modernism backwardness historical legacy balkanism post colonialism and orientalism nationalism identity and alterity society and nation building historical demography and social structure socialism and communism in memory and historiography

The Postcolonial Enlightenment Daniel Carey, Lynn Festa, 2009-02-26 Over the last thirty years postcolonial critiques of European imperial practices have transformed our understanding of colonial ideology resistance and cultural contact The Enlightenment has played a complex but often unacknowledged role in this discussion alternately reviled and venerated as the harbinger of colonial dominion and avatar of liberation as target and shield as shadow and light This volume brings together two arenas eighteenth century studies and postcolonial theory in order to interrogate the role and reputation of Enlightenment in the context of early European colonial ambitions and postcolonial interrogations of Western imperial aspirations With essays by leading scholars in the field Postcolonial Enlightenment address issues central not only to literature and philosophy but also to natural history religion law and the emerging sciences of man The contributors situate a range of writers from Hobbes and Herder Behn and Burke to Defoe and Diderot in relation both to eighteenth century colonial practices and to key concepts within current postcolonial theory concerning race globalization human rights sovereignty and national and personal identity By enlarging the temporal and geographic framework through which we read the essays in this volume open up alternate genealogies for categories events and ideas central to the emergence of global modernity

Home-work Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2004-06-22 Canadian literature and specifically the teaching of Canadian literature has emerged from a colonial duty to a nationalist enterprise and into the current territory of postcolonialism From practical discussions related to specific texts to more theoretical discussions about pedagogical practice regarding issues of nationalism and identity Home Work constitutes a major investigation and reassessment of the influence of postcolonial theory on Canadian literary pedagogy from some of the top scholars in the field

Postcolonial Spaces A. Teverson, S. Upstone, 2011-10-03 With essays from a range of geographies and bringing together influential scholars across a range of disciplines this book focuses on the role of space in the study of the politics of contemporary postcolonial experience engaging with the spectrum of postcolonial spatialities which play a significant role in defining global postcolonial culture

Spatial Politics in the Postcolonial Novel Sara Upstone, 2009 In her innovative study of spatial locations in postcolonial texts Sara Upstone adopts a transnational approach focusing on the major texts of Wilson Harris Toni Morrison and Salman Rushdie with reference to other postcolonial authors Challenging the privileging of the nation Upstone shows that spatial locales such as the journey city home and body enable personal or communal statements of resistance against colonial prejudice and its neo colonial legacies

Postcolonial Haunting and Victimization Michael F. O'Riley, 2007 Postcolonial Haunting and Victimization Assia Djebar's New Novels treats one of the central problems within the current geo political conflict between Islam and the West how the memory of imperialism fuels fundamentalist claims to territory and creates a paradigm of victimization through which martyrdom and terrorism prevail Through an examination of the most recent works by the award winning Algerian author Assia Djebar this book considers how the culture of victimization prevails in postcolonial thought and practice not only in the West but in formerly colonized territories as well It examines the work of important postcolonial critics such as Achille Mbembe and others in dialogue with the works of Djebar one of the most popular international postcolonial authors treating these questions from within the contemporary framework Both in theory and in practice this book reveals how pervasive haunting and victimization are in the wake of September 11th and provides an alternative way of responding to them It demonstrates how Djebar's reticence to explore the details of colonialism marks an important shift in postcolonial literature and criticism and an important attempt to address the dynamics of victimization Postcolonial Haunting and Victimization will be a great resource to all those interested in the question of Islam and the West as well as to a wide array of readers in the fields of literary and postcolonial studies

Bourdieu and Postcolonial Studies Raphael Dalleo, 2016 The collected essays demonstrate the ways postcolonial studies has adapted Bourdieu's sociology of literature to examine the institutions that structure the creation dissemination and reception of world literature the foundational values of postcolonialism as a field and its sometimes ambivalent relationship to the popular and the ways concepts like habitus cultural capital consecration and anamnesis can be deployed in reading postcolonial texts

The Postcolonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2024-07-11 The most comprehensive collection of postcolonial writing theory and criticism this third edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to include 125 extracts from key works in the field Leading as well as lesser known figures in the fields of writing theory and criticism contribute to this inspiring body of work that includes sections on nationalism

hybridity diaspora and globalisation As in the first two editions this new edition of The Postcolonial Studies Reader ranges as widely as possible to reflect the remarkable diversity of work in the discipline and the vibrancy of anti imperialist and decolonising writing both within and without the metropolitan centres This volume includes new work in the field over the decade and a half since the second edition was published Covering more debates topics and critics than any comparable book in its field The Postcolonial Studies Reader provides the ideal starting point for students and issues a potent challenge to the ways in which we think and write about literature and culture
