one point I was homeless and I gave up on myself I walked away from God many times One day my mother prayed with me and gave me a Bible and told me to read Romans I later became a Minister I couldn't get it right because I couldn't get past my addiction and my own self interests How could this be I am a Minister Who does the man of God go to when he is failing The answer is clearly God I became convinced that my testimony may help some other Ministers who struggle with the same things I did Like me they may be waiting on God and hoping He hears them too One day I accepted that even Preachers can fail I wasn't doing anything constructive with my life at that time I decided to trust God I didn't know if He would do it but I prayed anyway I soon believed that if I asked God for faith and told people the truth God was going to change me Today I am a Minister in good standing in a church in Orange County CA and the CEO of a nonprofit called A Touch of Love Works When you read A Preacher's Confession you discover that in spite of everything that is wrong with me there is a side of me that wants to make the world a better place and I will do my part This is my story To God be the glory The Preacher's

Kent Edwards, 2009-08-01 J Kent Edwards recalls a story that late pastor J Vernon McGee told about seeing children in South Africa playing a game of marbles in the dust with real diamonds The precious stones were being handled with no regard for their true worth Edwards fears the same thing happens today when preachers offer Scriptural truth to listeners without being completely overwhelmed by its greatness themselves in the process Deep Preaching is his call to rethink preaching Edwards helps preachers learn to preach the word in ways that will powerfully change the lives of hearers He contends that sermons need not settle comfortably on the lives of the listeners like dust on a coffee table He encourages preachers to join him in casting off the lines that moor their ministries to the status quo and make every effort to steer their preaching out of the comfortable shallows He urges them to preach deep sermons rather than superficial ones moving beyond the yawn inspiring to the awe inspiring from the trite to the transforming The Nkjv Minister's Bible Burgundy .
