The Present Situation A Christian Prepares For The Apocalypse:

The Present Situation Rick Strauss, 2003-07-01 The author restates the ancient texts in clear modern language to reveal how Jesus love protects you during the Apocalypse The Present Situation , The Christ of the Apocalypse: Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation Msgr. A. Robert Nusca, 2018-06-30 That the Apocalypse of John is a Revelation of Jesus Christ Rev 1 1 is a fact too often overlooked by interpreters of this last book of the Bible As Msgr A Robert Nusca s The Christ of the Apocalypse Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation proposes beyond predictions of earthquakes and falling stars St John articulates from start to finish a multifaceted and compelling portrait of Jesus Christ Nusca offers an exegetical reading of selected verses of the Book of Revelation incorporating rich spiritual and pastoral reflections The Christ of the Apocalypse above all affirms that St John s God and Christ centered symbolic universe offers our contemporary world a spiritual place to stand amid the shifting sands of postmodernity As Cardinal Thomas Collins Archbishop of Toronto writes in his Foreword Now as in the first century Christians face martyrdom and those who are not called to die for Christ are called to live for Christ in a world which in many ways rejects the Gospel More than ever we need the apocalyptic vision to have our own vision of reality clarified and to be strengthened in our evangelical witness

Apocalyptic Ecology in the Graphic Novel Clint Jones,2020-03-16 As awareness of climate change grows so do the number of cultural depictions of environmental disaster Graphic novels have reliably produced dramatizations of such disasters Many use themes of dystopian hopefulness or the enjoyment readers experience from seeing society prevail in times of apocalypse This book argues that these generally inspirational narratives contribute to a societal apathy for real life environmental degradation By examining the narratives and art of the environmental apocalypse in contemporary graphic novels the author stands against dystopian hope arguing that the ways in which we experience depictions of apocalypse shape how we respond to real crises From Darkness To Light Igal Halfin,2000-07-15 In conjunction with Studies of the Harriman InstituteIn this interdisciplinary and controversial work Igal Halfin looks at Marxist theory in a new light attempting to break down the divisions between history philosophy and literary theory His approach is methodological combining intellectual and social history to argue that if we are to take the Bolshevik revolutionary experiment seriously we have to examine carefully the ideological presupposition of both communist ideological texts and the archival documents that social historians believe truly reflect lived experience in order to see what effects these texts had on reality Igal Halfin aims to turn Marxism class and consciousness from subjects of analysis to its objects From Darkness to Light begins by examining the Marxist philosophy of history as understood by the Russian revolutionary movement Halfin argues that the Soviet government took its cues to how it could bring about a classless society from a peculiar blending of eschatological thinking and modern techniques of power Halfin then offers a case study of the Bolshevik attempt in the 1920s to create the Communist New Man by amalgamating the characteristics of the intellectual and the worker in order to eradicate the petit bourgeois traits attributed by the regime to the pre revolutionary individualistic and decadent student Halfin s conclusions raise important questions about Marxist theory as it relates to class historical progress and communism itself His approach suggests that proletarianization should be understood not as a change in the social composition of the student body but as the introduction of the language of class into the universities Through the examination of the process of the literary construction of class identity Halfin concludes that the student class affiliation in the Soviet Union of the 1920s was not simply a matter of social origins but of students ability using a set of ritualized procedures to defend their claims to a working class identity Halfin s conclusions raise important questions about Marxist theory as it relates to class historical progress and communism itself The Christological Assimilation of the Apocalypse Paul O'Callaghan,2004 Biblical apocalyptic texts that make imminent predictions of the end of the world as we know it have fascinated Christians from the earliest times Understandably over the centuries such texts have been interpreted in a variety of different even opposing ways This is particularly so in twentieth century biblical exegesis Many authors would hold that apocalyptic texts far from truly predicting the end of time final resurrection universal judgement and perpetual separation of just and wicked are to be seen as merely existential or performative expressions of the sinner's radical dependence on a Sovereign Divinity Any kind of literal interpretation of apocalyptic predictions therefore would seem to involve insoluble problems of a scientific ethical and social kind that modern society cannot envisage In this extensive biblical study Prof O Callaghan considers in detail not only the eschatology present in apocalyptic works in general and the complex debate on New Testament eschatology that flourished throughout the last century He has also shown that the powerful apocalyptic message present in the New Testament is essentially an application and direct consequence of Jesus Christ's saving work among humans Principally on the basis of a narrative analysis of Matthew's Christology apocalyptic motifs abound in the first gospel he shows that New Testament apocalyptic as it stands while radical challenging and theologically stimulating is neither irrational nor ethically untenable And this for the simple reason that the Judge who will come at the end of time to save the just and condemn sinners is one and the same Jesus of Nazareth who has already offered the gift of salvation to the whole of humankind A

Apocalyptic Good News R. Dean Drayton, 2019-07-12 Remarkable studies in the New Testament have recovered the fact that the gospel the good news of Jesus Christ was apocalyptic good news God's redemptive action within history Today for more and more people the sheer scope of an evolutionary universe renders life on Earth as utterly insignificant religion as nothing more than superstition And now in the Anthropocene we on the pale blue dot live in an apocalyptic age in which cataclysmic issue after cataclysmic issue threaten the future of the planet The faith of the early church was in an apocalyptic cosmic Christ unleashing within history God's good news of a new creation Set within the world as we now know it this gives meaning to the cosmos and life wherever it is found around any star Screened from view for over a millennium during mission to non apocalyptic cultures now is the time for a new paradigm for church the apocalyptic church for an apocalyptic age to replace the denominational church What a difference this makes to faith worship and the role of the church in an apocalyptic future
