The President And Foreign Affairs Evaluation Performance And Power:

The President and Foreign Affairs Ryan J. Barilleaux, 1985 This book provides a new way to evaluate presidential performance by identifying the current standards and examining them in the light of historical experience The author describes and discusses the conventional wisdom synthesized from the standards of the general public commentators and scholars on evaluating presidential performance and examines its efficacy through six case studies of presidential performance in foreign affairs Finally in looking at the lessons of the case studies he shows how they reveal significant flaws in presidential evaluation and foreign policy making and suggests changes     Presidential Doctrines Robert P. Watson, Charles Gleek, Michael Grillo, 2003 The first presidential doctrine was announced by President James Monroe on 2 December 1823 during his seventh annual message to Congress An international version of this phenomenon would be Winston Churchill's Iron Curtain speech Such was also the case when President George W Bush addressed the nation in the immediate aftermath of the 9 11 terrorist attacks This book examines American national security policies in the 20th century the century in which America rose to superpower or hyperpower status The same policies will probably determine how long she holds such a powerful position     Limits of Soviet Power Edward A. Kolodziej, Roger E. Kanet, 2015-12-25 An evaluation of Soviet efforts to penetrate the major regions in the southern hemisphere concluding that success has been modest and continues to be costly It is suggested that a world society could emerge based on socio economic and political competition rather than conflict and arms races     The Presidency and Public Policy Making George C. Edwards, Steven A. Shull, 1985-12-15 The premise behind this book is that policy making provides a useful perspective for studying the presidency perhaps the most important and least understood policy making institution in the United States The eleven essays focus on diverse aspects of presidential policy making providing insights on the presidency and its relationship to other policy making actors and institutions Major topics addressed include the environment of presidential policy making and the constraints it places on the chief executive relationships with those outside the executive branch that are central to presidential policy making attempts to lead the public and Congress presidential decision making and administration or implementation of policies in the executive branch a topic that has received limited attention in the literature on the presidency     State, 1987     The Conduct of American Foreign Policy Debated Herbert M. Levine, Jean Edward Smith, 1990
New Books National Defense University. Library, 1985     Renewal Colbert Rhodes, 2017-07-11 Offering a deep look into the moral uncertainty in the contemporary social sciences and American society this book explores an in depth solution This solution as articulated by Pitirim A Sorokin in the 20th century is the theory of Integralism a perspective dating back to Plato Aristotle and Aquinas Sorokin initially applied Integralism by locating and analyzing three dominant super socio cultural systems over 2500 years of Graeco Roman and Western history Each super system was unified by a central philosophical principle based either on materialism the senses or the rational or the supersensory super rational A super system declines when it reaches the limits of its potential to achieve its true reality and value to be replaced by another super system Sorokin described a trendless rotation of the three super socio cultural systems The current dominant super socio cultural system in the West is a materialist version emphasizing science and technology with little thought given to supersensory super rational reality Sorokin asserted contemporary materialist culture was in a state of collapse due to the breakup of its moral values As a consequence he saw a struggle for power occurring between egoistic individuals and groups often resulting in revolutions wars and inter human strife In response to the one sided materialist view of reality the goal of Integralism is to unify all three forms of reality into an integral culture that harmoniously balances materialist and supersensory super rational orientations A solution to the contemporary moral confusion Sorokin argued can be found in the application of supra conscious intuition that would enable a human to know what is eternal in the ordinary and reach the transcendent an experience not accessible to the senses or the rational intellect alone The supra conscious is the source for reaching the supreme moral value creative unselfish altruism which can be shared by all cultures to produce peace and harmony in the world     The American Presidency James W. International Law Society,1986     The Political Use of Military Force in US Foreign Policy James David Meernik,2018-01-18 From the Quasi War with France and the opening of Japan to the numerous interventions of the 1990s these events have been situated at the heart of US foreign policy There are four different explanations as to why the US throughout its history has used military force just short of war Some scholars have suggested that nations use military force on behalf of security objectives Others have maintained that economic self interest has motivated many military interventions Recently many researchers have explored the extent to which the US has used force to promote democracy and human rights and still more scholars have argued that presidents use limited force for domestic political purposes Assessing the utility of each of these explanations throughout US history Meernik employs both historical narrative and statistical techniques to provide a comprehensive account of these important foreign policy events This engaging highly informative volume is particularly suited to scholars and students in the fields of international relations foreign policy military affairs and history     Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs United States.
