The Prints Of Emil Ganso:

The Prints of Emil Ganso Donald E. Smith, Emil Ganso, 1997 The Prints of Emil Ganso fills the serious need for documentation of the prints of a remarkable artist who made a major contribution to printmaking in America Ganso left no records and was haphazard in titling his prints giving edition sizes and signing his work He used the same titles over and over and often gave an image more than one title in several cases as many as four different titles As a consequence the compiling of information on Ganso s prints resembled the production of a mosaic Information was gathered from the inscriptions on Ganso s prints in public and private collections accession cards and records in museums files of clippings in libraries gallery sales lists museum exhibition lists articles in old art journals books on printmaking and the artist s correspondence Except for a few that cannot be located each print is reproduced in this catalog Details are given on titles media years dimensions and edition sizes as well as other relevant information A biographic sketch traces Ganso s life from a village in Germany to a faculty post at a leading American university BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Paintings by Emil Ganso Emil Ganso, 1929 The Graphic Art of Emil Ganso Emil Ganso, Joann Moser, 1979 Minnesota Prints and Printmakers, 1900-1945 Robert Crump, 2009 A definitive survey of Minnesota s vibrant printmaking scene in the first half of the twentieth century that features almost two hundred artists Emil Ganso, 193? Exhibition of Paintings by Emil Ganso, 1895-1941 Washington Irving Gallery, 1960

Paintings by Emil Ganso Weyhe Gallery, 1944 Emil Ganso Kenan Center (Lockport, N.Y.), 1969 Exhibition featuring German born artist Emil Ganso s lithographs etchings aquatints woodcuts stencil watercolors drawings oil and poster from the Charles Rand Penney collection Emil Ganso , Prints and Printmakers of New York State, 1825-1940 David Tatham, 1986-08-01 For well over a century New York has been a microcosm of the art and craft of American printmaking Until 1825 printmaking in America was almost entirely an artisan s craft Then with the arrival of lithography the realization arose that printmaking could also be a fine art The essays published in this collection contribute to the body of scholarship by identifying important but hitherto insufficiently studied aspects of the graphic arts and treating them authoritatively Their subjects concern prints in New York State whose great metropolitan city was after 1825 the acknowledged center of nearly everything important in the graphic arts in the U S The history of American prints from 1825 on is enormously rich yet until the 1970s it was the least studied and understood aspect of the history of art in North America It is a history more deeply rooted in popular culture and more closely tied for a long time to the world of commerce than the other arts The usually small scale sometimes ephemeral and often highly subtle or highly unsubtle nature of prints makes it easy to overlook them The collection of essays included here were originally presented at the Twelfth Annual North American Print Conference held in 1981 in Syracuse New York Locally organized these conferences have been held during the last decade throughout the U S and Canada to further the study of the history of the pictorial graphic arts in North America Contributors include several leading historians of the graphic arts of nineteenth century America Their chapters bring to life and flesh out figures who were previously little more than names establish facts that correct long held erroneous assumptions introduce many prints of exceptional interest that have remained out of the public view for generations and provide a rich new context for many familiar images American Printmakers of the Twentieth Century Donald E. Smith, 2004 Paintings by Emil Ganso Emil Ganso, Whitney Studio Galleries, 1929 The Prints of Adolf Dehn Joycelyn Pang Lumsdaine, Thomas O'Sullivan, 1987 This catalog raisonné reproduces 665 black and white and 12 color prints Minnesota born Adolf Dehn 1895 1968 was twice awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship and his prints are in the collections of major museums in America North American Prints, 1913-1947 David Tatham, 2006-06-23 In this collection of essays eight contemporary scholars examine the rich diversity in the subject style and geography of printmaking from 1913 1947 a singular period of artistic creation Also three distinguished printmakers who were active during the 1930s and 1940s share their recollections of those decades offering rare firsthand accounts of the political social and cultural elements that influenced the artists and their work David Tatham has chosen two watershed events the Armory Show of 1913 and the important Brooklyn Museum exhibition of 1947 as the temporal bookends for this collection Recognizing this era as wholly distinct from what had gone before and what was to come after it in graphic arts the volume's contributors illuminate the period's spirited and vital debate about style content and the role of prints in society Offering fresh assessments and newly understood historical contexts the essays bring well deserved attention to artists whose work has often been neglected while it reexamines the works of well known artists This volume represents an important contribution to the study of printmaking by illustrating the way in which historical and contemporary graphic arts occupy a vital and central presence in the culture of our times Emil Ganso (1895-1941), 1976 The Print-collector's Quarterly, 1921 Vanity Fair, 1926 WPA Artwork in Non-federal Repositories, 1996 An inventory of works of art produced under the Works Progress Administration 1933 1943 located in non Federal depositories initiated by the Fine Arts Program of GSA Arts Digest, 1929 Art Digest, 1926 Includes section The great calendar of American exhibitions
