

Social Philosophy on Public Decision-Making

Topic: Philosophy | Words: 1306 | Pages: 4

Introduction

Moral philosophy is predicated on the notion of fulfilling individuals' rights and freedoms without interfering with others. In our societies, governments protect and promote civility, ensuring a certain individual or group does not impede others' rights to pursue their happiness. It is important to discern the relevance of this ideology using Mill and Hobbesian theories. These philosophers indicated ways that society should function and how people should behave to maximize happiness and obey the law. The following is an illustration of the tenets of both individuals and the proper philosophy to adopt to remain fair and impartial.

The just way to resolve the issue of placing a statue at the park should be dealt with by the City Council. They agreed for the small religious group to erect one and opened the discussion about other groups placing theirs. While the first group discerns its erection to celebrate its doctrines, the others are equally justified to place their statues. However, this would lead to clutter, impeding the park's function and limiting the freedoms of individuals who do not follow any of these religions. In this way, it would be prudent to ban all statutes as each group would be dealt with equally. The initial small religion's permission would result in clutter at the park as others would undeniably feel their rights were denied if they were limited from putting up statues. Furthermore, it is unfair to allow only well-established religions or those with large followings to erect statues while denying their smaller
