Social Psychology Identities And Relationships:

Social Psychology Kopano Ratele, Norman Duncan, 2003 Using current socio political thought and research this book examines topics such as violence social and political transition race and racism and sexualities Theoretical and empirical research are related to topical problems highlighting the complex relations of individuals to their societies and to one another The histories and complexities of problems and their interconnectedness are examined and possible solutions are suggested Special attention is paid to class sexuality gender and race making psychology in general and social psychology in particular relevant and exciting Social Psychology, 2017 Social Psychology - Identities and Relationships K.

Ratele, N. Duncan, 2004-05-01 Community Psychology Anthony Naidoo, Jace Pillay, Brett Bowman, 2007 Book CD Community Psychology contains a rich diversity of insights and critical debates on the key theoretical analytic teaching learning and action approaches in community psychology The book offers an incisive examination of a range of contextual factors that influence the practice of community psychology in South Africa Social Psychology Stainton Rogers, Wendy, 2011-06-01 This is an introductory social psychology textbook that acknowledges two very different approaches being taken to social psychology experimental and critical These conflicting approaches are brought together in a single coherent text Handbook of International Feminisms Alexandra Rutherford, Rose Capdevila, Vindhya Undurti, Ingrid

Palmory, 2011-08-23 The goal of Handbook of International Perspectives on Feminism is to present the histories status and contours of feminist research and practice in their respective regional and or national contexts The editors have invited researchers who are doing this work to present their perspectives on women culture and rights with the objective to illuminate the diverse forms that feminist psychological work takes around the world and connect these forms with the unique positions and concerns of women in these regions What does feminist psychology look like in Japan In South Africa In Sri Lanka In Canada In Brazil How did it come to look this way How do psychologists in these countries or regions each with unique political economic and cultural histories engage in feminist work in the societies in which they live How do they employ the tools of psychology broadly defined to do this work and what tensions and challenges have they faced

Inter-group Relations Kopano Ratele, 2006 Following the undoing of the racist apartheid government this study critically examines the social and psychological issues that continue to trouble South Africans Topical concerns include language barriers homelessness stereotyping and racism HIV AIDS social influence and dominance as well as different ways of understanding intergroup conflict and cooperation The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research John H. Hitchcock, Anthony J. Onwuegbuzie, 2022-05-10 This groundbreaking edited book The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research presents an array of different integration ideas with contributions from scholars across the globe This handbook represents the first major volume that comprehensively discusses this topic of integration Perhaps the most fundamental and longstanding question in mixed methods research is

How does one best integrate disparate forms of information to produce the best form of inquiry Each of the 34 seminal chapters in this handbook accelerates the discussion of integration across a broad range of disciplines including education arts based analyses and work in the Global South as well as special topics such as psychometrics and media research Many of the chapters present new topics that have never been written about before and all chapters offer cutting edge approaches to integration They also offer different perspectives of integration leading the introductory chapter to offer a new and comprehensive definition for integration as follows referring to the optimal mixing combining blending amalgamating incorporating joining linking merging consolidating or unifying of research approaches methodologies philosophies methods techniques concepts language modes disciplines fields and or teams within a single study The concluding chapter offers a meta framework that accounts for this definition and is designed to help scholars think more about integration in a way that represents a continuous dynamic iterative interactive synergistic and holistic meaning making process This handbook will be an essential reference work for all scholars and practitioners using or seeking to use mixed methods in their research

Blackwashing Homophobia Melanie Judge, 2017-08-22 As lesbian gay bisexual transgender and intersex identities increasingly secure legal recognition across the globe these formal equality gains are contradicted by the continued presence of violence Such violence emerges as a political pressure point for contestations of identity and power within wider systems of global and local inequality Discourses of homophobia related violence constitute subjectivities that enact violence and that are rendered vulnerable to it as well as shaping political possibilities to act against violence Blackwashing Homophobia critiques prevailing discourses through which violence and its queer targets are normatively understood exploring the knowledge regimes in which multiple forms of othering are both reproduced and or resisted This book draws on primary research on lesbian subjectivity and violence in South Africa examining the intersections of sexual gender race and class identities and the contemporary politics of violence in a postcolonial context What are the contending ways of knowing queers and the violence they face How are the causes characters consequence of and cures for violence constructed through such knowledges and what are their power effects The book explores these questions and their implications for how violence as an instrument of power might be countered Blackwashing Homophobia is a timely intervention for theorising the discourse of homophobia related violence and what it reveals and conceals enables and hinders in relation to queer identities and political imaginaries in times of violence The book s interdisciplinary approach to the topic will appeal to social and political scientists philosophers and psychology professionals as well as to advanced psychology undergraduates and postgraduates alike

Self, Community and Psychology Norman Duncan, 2004 A reader for students at the University of South Africa studying community psychology It addresses ideologies of race gender and sexuality that together create particular South African post colonial realities which legitimise oppression and cultural dispossession
