Social Texts and Context Jonathan Potter, Peter Stringer, Margaret Wetherell, 2023-08-11 First published in 1984 Social Texts and Context illustrates the ways in which familiar psychological concepts femininity the environment groups the self are constructed in discourse

Novels by Thomas Hardy Barbara Cartland Doris Lessing C P Snow Charles Dickens and Robert Musil are examined and the theoretical approaches of Roland Barthes Rom Harre Jonathan Culler Henri Tajfel Irving Janis and Paul Willis are discussed Development in literary theory such as semiology and deconstruction and in theories of social action such as ethogenics and discourse analysis make it difficult to treat literary and psychological texts as a neutral medium of communication Instead texts should be seen in terms of their fundamental constructive role in the organization of social life As the authors demonstrate contemporary life in both its personal and professional spheres is hedged around by discourse conversations newspaper articles novels scientific reports This book will be of interest to students of literature and psychology

Social Inequality in the World of the Text Saul M. Olyan, 2011-09-14 This volume consists of fifteen of the author's essays including two that have never been published before The essays date to the last decade and a half and all reflect in some manner the author's ongoing interest in literary operations of classification and their social implications particularly the production of distinctions which create social inequality in the world of the text and have the potential to generate hierarchical social relationships in contexts where biblical texts might have had an impact on real people In these essays the author explores themes such as gender sexuality purity and pollution sanctification death and afterlife foreignness and disability with particular attention to the roles distinctions such as honored shamed feminine masculine mourning rejoicing unclean clean alien native play in creating and perpetuating social differences in texts Rites of status change such as circumcision shaving purification burial or disinterment sanctification and profanation of holiness are a focus of interest in a number of these essays reflecting the author's ongoing interest in the textual representation of ritual Most of the essays examine texts in their historical setting but several also engage the early history of the interpretation of biblical texts including the phenomenon of inner biblical exegesis The essays are divided into five sections Rites and Social Status Gender and Sexuality Disability Holiness Purity the Alien Death Burial Afterlife and their Metaphorical Uses The author introduces each of the sections contextualizing each essay in his larger scholarly project reflecting on its development and reception and in some cases responding to his critics

Writing the Social Text Richard Brown, 2017-07-05 During the past decade it has become commonplace to interpret social and cultural reality the very groundwork of the social sciences as linguistic constructions Not only is society viewed as a text but scientific texts themselves are seen as rhetorical constructions This collection of scholarly essays begins with an overview of this emerging field and covers the specific stylistic practices by which social scientists create objective or true representations of society The volume closes with a consideration of the more telling challenges to the rhetorics of the social sciences and how these might be encompassed or overcome

Rethinking Class and Social Difference Barry Eidlin, Michael A. McCarthy, 2020-09-30 This volume draws together scholars rethinking social scientific and theoretical approaches to a wide range of forms of social difference and inequality These include race nationalism sexuality professional classes domestic employment digital communication and uneven economic development

Authorship Analysis in Chinese Social Media Texts Shaomin Zhang,2024-03-27

This Element explores the sentiment and keyword features in both authorship profiling and authorship attribution in social media texts in the Chinese cultural context The key findings can be summarised as follows firstly sentiment scores and keyword features are distinctive in delineating authors gender and age Specifically female and younger authors tend to be less optimistic and use more personal pronouns and graduations than male and older authors respectively Secondly these distinctive profiling features are also distinctive and significant in authorship attribution Thirdly our mindset shaped by our inherent hormonal influences and external social experiences plays a critical role in authorship Theoretically the findings expand authorship features into underexplored domains and substantiate the theory of mindset Practically the findings offer some broad quantitative benchmarks for authorship profiling cases in the Chinese cultural context and perhaps other contexts where authorship profiling analyses have been used This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core
