Social Gospel Of Jesus The Kingdom Of God In Mediterranean Perspective:

The Social Gospel of Jesus Bruce J. Malina, 2001 Scholars are agreed that the central metaphor in Jesus proclamation was the kingdom of God But what did that phrase mean in the first century Palestinian world of Jesus Since it is a political metaphor what did Jesus envision as the political import of his message Since this is tied to the political economy how was that structured in Jesus day How is the violence of Jesus Mediterranean world addressed in the kingdom And how does self denial fit into Jesus agenda Malina tackles these questions in a very accessible way providing a social scientific analysis meaning that he brings to bear explicit models and a comparative approach toward an exciting interpretation of what Jesus was up to and how his first century audience would have heard him The Kingdom of God Christopher W. Morgan, Robert A. Peterson, 2012-11-30 The kingdom of God is a very large biblical category indeed Accordingly a comprehensive understanding of the kingdom would illuminate many aspects of theology With this in mind Bruce Waltke Robert Yarbrough Gerald Bray Clinton Arnold Gregg Allison Stephen Nichols and Anthony Bradley have collaborated to articulate a full view of the kingdom of God across multiple disciplines One of the most important books on the kingdom since G E Ladd this volume offers a robust theology and is corroborated by the very series in which it stands Fourth in the noted Theology in Community series The Kingdom of God establishes the significance of the kingdom from the perspectives of biblical theology systematic theology history pastoral application missiology and cultural analysis Part of the Theology in Community series

Social-Science Commentary on the Synoptic Gospels Bruce J. Malina, Richard L. Rohrbaugh, The authors build on their earlier social scientific works and enhance the highly successful commentary model they developed in their social scientific commentaries This volume is a thoroughly revised edition of this popular commentary They include an introduction that lays the foundation for their interpretation followed by an examination of each unit in the Synoptics employing methodologies of cultural anthropology macro sociology and social psychology Acts: An Exegetical Commentary : Volume 1 Craig S. Keener, 2012-09-01 Highly respected New Testament scholar Craig Keener is known for his meticulous and comprehensive research This commentary on Acts his magnum opus may be the largest and most thoroughly documented Acts commentary available Useful not only for the study of Acts but also early Christianity this work sets Acts in its first century context In this volume the first of four Keener introduces the book of Acts particularly historical questions related to it and provides detailed exegesis of its opening chapters He utilizes an unparalleled range of ancient sources and offers a wealth of fresh insights This magisterial commentary will be a valuable resource for New Testament professors and students pastors Acts scholars and libraries Coping with Violence in the New Testament Pieter de Villiers, Jan Willem van Henten, 2012-01-20 Violence is present in the very heart of religion and its sacred traditions also of Christianity and the Bible The problem however is not only that violence is ingrained in the mere existence of religions with their sacred traditions It is equally problematic to realise that the icy grip of violence on the sacred has gone unnoticed and unchallenged for a very long time

The present publication aims to contribute to the recent scholarly debate about the interconnections between violence and monotheistic religions by analysing the role of violence in the New Testament as well as by offering some hermeneutical perspectives on violence as it is articulated in the earliest Christian writings Contributors include Andries G van Aarde Paul Decock Pieter G R de Villiers Ernest van Eck Jan Willem van Henten Rob van Houwelingen Kobus Kok Tobias Nicklas Jeremy Punt Jan G van der Watt and Wim Weren Jesus Is Lord, Caesar Is Not Scot McKnight, Joseph B. Modica, 2013-03-28

This volume brings together respected biblical scholars to evaluate the turn toward empire criticism in recent New Testament scholarship While praising the movement for its deconstruction of Roman statecraft and ideology the contributors also provide a salient critique of the anti imperialist rhetoric pervading much of the current literature Acts: An Exegetical Commentary : Volume 2 Craig S. Keener, 2013-10-15 Highly respected New Testament scholar Craig Keener is known for his meticulous and comprehensive research This commentary on Acts his magnum opus may be the largest and most thoroughly documented Acts commentary available Useful not only for the study of Acts but also early Christianity this work sets Acts in its first century context In this volume the second of four Keener continues his detailed exegesis of Acts utilizing an unparalleled range of ancient sources and offering a wealth of fresh insights This magisterial commentary will be an invaluable resource for New Testament professors and students pastors Acts scholars and libraries Prophetic Evangelicals Bruce Ellis Benson, Malinda Elizabeth Berry, Peter Goodwin Heltzel, 2012-02-03 In this inaugural Prophetic Christianity volume fifteen contributors share their visions for a biblically centered culturally engaged and historically infused evangelicalism Interacting with a wide variety of influential thinkers they articulate several approaches to creating a socially responsible gospel centric and ecumenical evangelical identity Contributors Raymond C Aldred Vincent Bacote Bruce Ellis Benson Malinda Elizabeth Berry Chris Boesel John R Franke David Gushee Peter Goodwin Heltzel Pamela Lightsey Cherith Fee Nordling Ruth Padilla DeBorst Gabriel Salguero Helene Slessarev Jamir Christian T Collins Winn Telford Work

Theology and the Crisis of Engagement Jeff Nowers, Néstor Medina, 2013-10-11 What does theology have to do with sociology Do the social sciences in general provide helpful assistance to theologians Does theology have anything to contribute to social theory This compendium of essays attempts to address such questions In so doing it confronts assumptions about how academic disciplines are best articulated whether within their own airtight frames or in dialogue with one another The essays in the first half of the book accomplish this from historical and methodological perspectives while the remaining essays present case studies or constructive proposals for how theology might engage the social sciences in productive ways For those particularly interested in the ongoing development of theologies of liberation this book will be timely The essays reflecting a definite international flavor are written in honor of Lee Cormie a long standing advocate of what he calls the new voices in theology that have irrupted in the wake of Vatican II Cormie has spent over three decades teaching theologies of liberation at the Toronto School of Theology on the campus of the University of Toronto This book continues the many conversations that his teaching has provoked A Moral Creed for All Christians Daniel C. Maguire, Widely heralded for his bold and prophetic ethical thought Maguire urges that Christianity's real relevance for the renewal of American public life lies not in the myopic morality of the Christian Right nor in any particular program of the Left but in the enduring relevance of Jesus and biblical Christianity His new work builds on his earlier volume The Moral Core of Judaism and Christianity with the benefit of a new generation of social studies of the New Testament and a keen appreciation for the radically changed situation Christians confront today Daniel C Maguire is Professor of Ethics at Marquette University a past president of the Society of Christian Ethics and president of the Religious Consultation on Population Reproductive Health and Ethics A frequent lecturer and media commentator Maguire is author of many influential works in ethics such as Death by Choice 1974 The Moral Choice 1975 The Moral Revolution 1986 Sacred Energies Fortress Press 2000 and Sacred Choices Fortress Press 2001
