Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian Society Association for Canadian Studies, 1990 Far more than a bibliographic account of the major works in Canadian Studies Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian Society provides a broad examination of the state of this growing field of study Each chapter stresses the importance of the interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches which have come to characterize Canadian Studies Also in an unprecedented collaborative effort almost all the chapters are jointly authored by anglophone and francophone scholars The works on Quebec and the francophone community respect the distinct nature of this facet of Canada As stated in the introduction this work is a primer in the field and a guide to further pursuits Its users will welcome it as a friendly introduction to an exciting country

Periodicals of Queen Victoria's Empire Rosemary VanArsdel, Jerry Don Vann, Rosemary T. VanArsdel, 1996-01-01 Contemporary research in periodical literature has demonstrated conclusively that the nineteenth century in Britain was the age of the periodical It also has shown that in Victorian society the circulation of periodicals and newspapers was both larger and more influential than that of books The six essays in this volume investigate the extent to which this was equally true of Britain's colonies during the period up to

1900 In chapters devoted to periodical publishing in Australia Canada India New Zealand Southern Africa and the outposts of the Empire Ceylon Cyprus Hong Kong Malaya and Singapore Malta and the West Indies the contributors also consider the function and importance of periodicals in colonial life They identify and describe all locally produced publications that appeared at weekly or longer intervals and that contained for example local news poetry fiction criticism commentary on the arts news from home shipping information and commodities reports Each chapter presents an evaluation of the quantity and quality of guides available to periodical literature in each region from basic bibliographies of periodicals directories and finding aids to microfilm records and databases on the Internet Periodicals of Queen Victoria's Empire is an initial step towards understanding and analyzing what its editors regard as the unseen power of the periodical press in the British Empire of the nineteenth century

Public Poetics Bart Vautour, Erin Wunker, Travis V. Mason, Christl Verduyn, 2015-06-08 Public Poetics is a collection of essays and poems that address some of the most pressing issues of the discipline in the twenty first century The collection brings together fifteen original essays addressing public poetry and poetics from the situated space of Canada while simultaneously troubling the notion of the nation as a stable term It asks hard questions about who and what count as publics in Canada Critical essays stand alongside poetry as visual and editorial reminders of the cross pollination required in thinking through both poetry and poetics Public Poetics is divided into three thematic sections The first contains essays surveying poetics in the present moment through the lens of the public private divide systematic racism in Canada the counterpublic feminist poetics and Canadian innovations on postmodern poetics The second section contains author specific studies of public poets The final section contains essays that use innovative renderings of poetics as a means of articulating alternative communities and practices Each section is paired with a collection of original poetry by ten contemporary Canadian poets This collection attends to the changing landscape of critical discourse around poetry and poetics in Canada and will be of use to teachers and students of poetry and poetics

Propaganda and Censorship During Canada's Great War Jeff Keshen, 1996-07 They expected the brave and Christian conquering heroes manufactured by the opinion makers rather than the combat scarred weary and often embittered men who disembarked back in the Dominion It took another decade of less filtered information ten years of pain and dislocation for returned veterans before the Great War imagined by Canadian noncombatants began to resemble the war really experienced by Canadians overseas

The Immigrant Labor Press in North America, 1840s-1970s: An Annotated Bibliography Christiane Harzig, 1987-12-02 Continuing the work of the first two volumes the third and final volume of Dirk Hoerder's landmark bibliography covers labor migrants from Southern and Western Europe As with each of the previous volumes the aim has been to provide a comprehensive record of the non English language periodical literature produced by European ethnic groups in North America The focus throughout is on the labor and radical press to enable the researcher to compare and contrast the experiences of various ethnic groups as part of the North American working class

Literary / Liberal Entanglements

Corrinne Harol, Mark Simpson, 2017-09-18 In Literary Liberal Entanglements Corrinne Harol and Mark Simpson bring together ten essays by scholars from a wide range of fields in English studies in order to interrogate the complex entangled relationship between the history of literature and the history of liberalism. The volume has three goals: to investigate important episodes in the entanglement of literary history and liberalism; to analyze the impact of this entanglement on the secular and democratic projects of modernity; and thereby to reassess the dynamics of our neoliberal present. The volume is organized into a series of paired essays, with each pair investigating a concept central to both literature and liberalism: acting, socializing, discriminating, recounting, and culturing. Collectively, the essays demonstrate the vivid capacity of literary study writ large to reckon with, imagine, and materialize durative accounts of history and politics. Literary Liberal Entanglements models a method of literary history for the twenty-first century.

Nonviolent Action Ronald M. McCarthy, Gene Sharp, Brad Bennett, 2013-07-04 This comprehensive guide to research sources and theories about nonviolent action as a technique of struggle in social and political conflicts discusses the methods and techniques used by groups in various encounters. Although violence and its causes have received a great deal of attention, nonviolent action has not received its due as an international phenomenon with a long history. An introduction that explains the theories and research used in the study provides a practical guide to this essential bibliography of English language sources. The first part of the book covers case study materials divided by region and subdivided by country. Within each country, materials are arranged chronologically and topically. The second major part examines the methods and theory of nonviolent action, principled nonviolence, and several closely related areas in social science such as conflict analysis and social movements. The book is indexed by author and subject.
