Social Services Departments And Race A Discussion Paper Discussion Paper:

Social Services Departments and Race Naomi Connelly,1985 Discourse on Inequality in France and Britain

John Edwards,Jean-Paul Révauger,2018-10-03 Published in 1998 this volume consists of 16 edited papers presented at an Anglo French conference on inequality in France in March 1997 The purpose of this book is to bring together ideas and perceptions of inequality in the two countries across several areas including multi ethnicity education social work housing and health presented by experts in these fields and in cultural studies The purpose is not comparative in the traditional sense but rather to analyze the different meanings and conceptions that apply to inequality in France and Britain and to demonstrate how these differences affect policies as well as what is considered to be legitimate grounds for policy intervention This approach to social policy in Europe pays attention to the cultural meanings of concepts like inequality and demonstrates that comparative social policy can only be properly productive when it acknowledges that key words like poverty inequality citizenship social rights and insertion exclusion carry with them quite different ideological moral and social meanings in two countries such as Britain and France

Citizen Involvement Peter Beresford,Suzy Croft,2016-02-02 This book offers the first introduction and practical guide to increasing people's say and involvement in their lives neighbourhood and services It draws on a major study of initiatives to involve and empower people It explores a wide range of schemes across a variety of policies and services including housing health care education community development social work and social services It also examines the underlying principles politics and philosophy of participation It offers guidelines for participatory policy and practice and a checklist for evaluating and auditing citizen involvement

Racism and Equal Opportunity Policies in the 1980s Richard Jenkins,John Solomos,1989 This edition first published in 1989 looks at the problems of racism and equal opportunity in employment and government policies towards them in Britain It brings together a group of specialist contributors and covers the major areas of debate including the law policies towards unemployment job training and the labour market the role of the public and private sectors the role of trade unions the gap between policies and pronouncements on equal opportunity and their implementation and the related issue of sectarian discrimination in Northern Ireland It looks at the future prospects for equal opportunities and provides conclusions for policy In particular it aims to address important topics such as the assumptions underlying policies and whether they realistically reflect reality the actual effect of legislation and the relationship between power disparities in society as a whole and racial inequality

Race and Change in Social Services Departments Naomi Connelly,1989 Primarily on the basis of research during 1985 and 1986 evaluates the work of four social services departments which had been tackling race equality issues for some years
