Social Work And The European Community:

Social Work and Europe Lynne Berry, Crescy Cannan, Karen Lyons, 1992-10-14 This book presents information and ideas about the role and organisation of social workers in selected EC countries particularly but not exclusively France and Germany Comparisons are made of national policies and practice in relation to specific client groups and new concerns requiring common responses are identified This discussion is put in the context of an emerging social agenda of the European Community The authors argue that EC social policies in relation to citizenship participation and marginalisation are consistent with the aims and concerns of social workers and relevant to its future development at national and European level Social Work Training in the European Community Liliane Coccozza, Commission of the European Communities, 1989

Dementia Susan Hunter, 1997-01-01 As a focus for academic and professional study dementia has moved rapidly from the margin to the mainstream during the last decade Understanding of this distressing condition its aetiology and recognition has become much more widespread and sophisticated Building on such clinical knowledge this book challenges the reader to think ethically and in a person centred way about the implications of dementia at a personal planning and service provision level to consider consumer perspectives not only those of carers but also the much neglected views of individuals with dementia to explore less well documented areas such as dementia and Down s Syndrome depression and early onset dementia In conclusion the book illuminates selected topical developments in service provision such as community care advocacy and aspects of the built and social care environment European Social Policy and Social Work Hans van Ewijk, 2009-09-10 European Social Policy and Social Work explores shifts in international social policies and how they affect national trends and thus the context for social work practice The book discusses international and national social work strategies and practice and investigates the responsibilities for social welfare held by the state the market and civil society Hans van Ewijk then elaborates a new concept of citizenship based social work which supports and encourages self responsibility social responsibility and the implementation of social rights The main themes covered are international social policy and social work from welfare to workfare citizenship essentials of citizenship based social work community policy and community work social work and alternative areas of activity such as youth care and social care Integrating different roots and social professions in an overarching new concept this book particularly looks at European Union countries Hans van Ewijk examines debates regarding social work as an internationally recognised profession and science This book is suitable for social work students academics and professionals with an interest in social policy and international social work

European Social Work - A Compendium Fabian Kessl, Walter Lorenz, Hans-Uwe Otto, Sue White, 2019-11-25 The publication takes account of the fundamental developments transforming social work in Europe at the beginning of the 21st century A European standard of social work has already emerged but models for future European social work are absent Therefore the compendium gives an overview of the current transformation process for the first time discusses the visible and invisible changes and maps out where social work is positioned in the emerging post welfare states Building Social Work Politics in Europe Katrin Toens,Günter Rieger,2025-09-26 The profession of social work and its representative bodies are in numerous ways involved in European politics At the same time social work practice is affected by EU regulations coordination funding and jurisdiction in relevant policy fields This book provides a systematic and practice based reflection on the issues of how current political activities in the EU and beyond are social work driven affect social work and give reason for an even deeper involvement of organized social work in European politics Based on a structured dialogue among professors students of social work social workers social NGOs and policymakers this text tackles European policy issues from various perspectives Starting with theoretical reflections the authors discuss the political mandate of social work and how it applies to the EU polity sui generis as well as to the pan European institutional settings of the Council of Europe This is followed by analyses of different European social work policies homeless policy European Social Fund ESF basic income policy prostitution policy and their impact on social services and its clients The next part shifts the focus to actors and institutions The authors asked policy staff of social NGOs human rights organizations churches and social service providers to give their perspectives on how they lobby current EU policy initiatives and regulations regarding social problems Finally authors discuss the state of the art in selected European countries and the question of how social work politics in Europe could be strengthened The volume concludes with concrete examples of participation and career opportunities in European social policy for students and graduates of social work Building Social Work Politics in Europe Research Approaches Practices and Perspectives is a useful and timely text for students of social work at all levels BA MA third cycle schools of social work universities of applied sciences with social work study programs practitioners and executive management of organized social work and social service provision internationally and in Europe in particular Perspectives on

European Social Work Walter Lorenz,2006-06-22 The book offers explanations and clarifications for the bewildering variety of titles and job profiles in the social professions in Europe It presents them both as a product of specific national welfare arrangements and as a sign of a special kind of professional autonomy that so far helped to correct national welfare trends Now this autonomy is once more called for in the light of the complete re structuring of all European welfare states and a European model of social work could deliver impulses for real alternatives to growing exclusion and inequality
