Symbolic Power, Politics, and Intellectuals David L. Swartz, 2022-12-22 Power is the central organizing principle of all social life from culture and education to stratification and taste And there is no more prominent name in the analysis of power than that of noted sociologist Pierre Bourdieu Throughout his career Bourdieu challenged the commonly held view that symbolic power the power to dominate is solely symbolic He emphasized that symbolic power helps create and maintain social hierarchies which form the very bedrock of political life By the time of his death in 2002 Bourdieu had become a leading public intellectual and his argument about the more subtle and influential ways that cultural resources and symbolic categories prevail in power arrangements and practices had gained broad recognition In Symbolic Power Politics and Intellectuals David L Swartz delves deeply into Bourdieu's work to show how central but often overlooked power and politics are to an understanding of sociology Arguing that power and politics stand at the core of Bourdieu s sociology Swartz illuminates Bourdieu s political project for the social sciences as well as Bourdieu s own political activism explaining how sociology is not just science but also a crucial form of political engagement Democracy in Transition Kyriakos N. Demetriou,2012-12-22 The papers in this collection written by a cross regional group of experts provide insights into the causes of declining levels of citizen participation and other distinct forms of civic activism in Europe and explore a range of factors contributing to apathy and eventually disengagement from vital political processes and institutions At the same time this volume examines informal or unconventional types of civic engagement and political participation corresponding to the rapid advances in culture technology and social networking The volume is divided into three interrelated parts Part I consists of critical essays in the form of theoretical approaches to analysing weakening political participation and citizen estrangement Part II is dedicated to an exploration of the role and deployment of technologically advanced media such as the internet as determinants of changing patterns of political participationist behaviour Finally Part III presents findings of empirical research on the issue of political participation Combining theoretical and empirical perspectives the book contributes towards a better understanding of the disquieting trend of voter apathy and disenchantment with politics in the context of the ongoing process of European integration and offers a variety of analytical tools for decoding both the emergence of alternative conceptualizations of citizenship and other forms of meaningful civic and political engagement
