The Politics Of Land In Vanuatu From Colony To Independence:

The Politics of Land in Vanuatu Howard Van Trease, 1987      Melanesian Politics Howard Van Trease, 1995 Vanuatu's politics reflect cultural diversity colonial history and personal differences Chapters cover history the 1991 election politicians electoral constituencies and political issues      Comparative Perspectives on Communal Lands and Individual Ownership Lee Godden, Maureen Tehan, 2010-02-26 A collection of critical debates analyses and evaluations of changing models of property as the vehicle governing access to land and resources      Decolonisation and the Pacific Tracey Banivanua Mar, 2016-04-26 This book charts the previously untold story of decolonisation in the oceanic world of the Pacific Australia and New Zealand presenting it both as an indigenous and an international phenomenon Tracey Banivanua Mar reveals how the inherent limits of decolonisation were laid bare by the historical peculiarities of colonialism in the region and demonstrates the way imperial powers conceived of decolonisation as a new form of imperialism She shows how Indigenous peoples responded to these limits by developing rich intellectual political and cultural networks transcending colonial and national borders with localised traditions of protest and dialogue connected to the global ferment of the twentieth century The individual stories told here shed new light on the forces that shaped twentieth century global history and reconfigure the history of decolonisation presenting it not as an historic event but as a fragile contingent and ongoing process continuing well into the postcolonial era      Political Parties in the Pacific Islands Roland Rich, Luke Hambly, Michael G. Morgan, 2008-04-01 ANU E Press edition of work originally published by Pandanus Books While political parties remain an indispensable institutional framework for representation and governance in a democracy the democracies of many Pacific Islands nations are undermined by the weakness and inefficacy of their local political parties Addressing the implications of the lack of established party systems across the Pacific this collection seeks to illuminate the underlying assumptions and suppositions behind the importance of coherent and effective parties to overall democratic functioning Focusing on the political systems of East Timor Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia Fiji and Samoa the coherent structure of the volume makes it consistently useful as both an articulate analytical text and as a reference tool concerning the political composition history and direction of Pacific states Featuring contributions from scholars who are familiar names to even the most casual of Pacificists Political Parties in the Pacific is the benchmark reference work on the political parties of the Pacific an invaluable resource for students scholars and researchers of the Pacific and international politics Provided by publisher      Government Policies and Ethnic Relations in Asia and the Pacific Michael E. Brown, Sumit Ganguly, 1997-10-20 Efforts to contend with tensions inherent in multiethnic societies case studies of India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia the Philippines China Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea Fiji Vanuatu and the Federated States of Micronesia Ethnic conflict one of the most serious and widespread problems in the world today can undermine efforts to promote political and economic development as well as political economic and social justice It can also lead to violence and open warfare producing horrifying levels of death and destruction Although government policies on ethnic issues often have profound effects on a country the subject has been neglected by most scholars and analysts This volume analyzes different policies governments have pursued in their efforts to contend with the tensions inherent in multiethnic societies The book focuses on Asia and the Pacific the most populous and economically vibrant part of the world The heart of the book is a set of case studies of government policies in sixteen countries India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia the Philippines China Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea Fiji Vanuatu and the Federated States of Micronesia The studies consider a wide range of political economic educational linguistic and cultural policies and how these policies have evolved over time Using a broad comparative perspective to assess the effectiveness of different governmental approaches the authors offer policy recommendations that cut across individual countries and regions

The Twentieth Century Judith Margaret Brown, 1999 This text looks at the growth of vibrant often new national identities movements and new nation states that reshape the political map of the late 20th century world

Contextualizing Theology in the South Pacific Randall G. Prior, 2019-07-10 This book engages with a widespread contemporary dilemma how do we do theology in a context where the cultures of the people are oral and not literate The nations of the South Pacific from their missionary beginnings inherited an approach to theology that was dominated by Western cultural categories The global movement of contextualization began to impact upon Pacific churches in the 1960s and challenged this inherited approach Significant changes have resulted but the dilemma has remained The dominant approach is still one that is defined by and better suited to literate cultures The consequence is that theology remains an alien enterprise distant from the life of the local churches and distant from the hearts and minds of the indigenous people In facing the dilemma this book exposes the fundamental differences between primary oral cultures and primary literate cultures and identifies the key factors that lie at the heart of the theological problem By addressing each of these in turn the author then paves the way ahead He offers a methodology for theology that is rooted within the oral cultural context of the South Pacific and potentially in any context where oral cultures are the norm The consequences for theology and for theological education are profound

The Pacific Basin since 1945 Roger C. Thompson, 2014-09-25 The nations of the Pacific Basin in East and Southeast Asia Australasia the Pacific islands and the Americas make up the world's largest economic zone and its most culturally diverse region In recent years its Asian Tiger Economies have suffered economic collapse and unfinished business from the Cold War has produced continuing conflict and instability The new edition of this pioneering book traces the postwar inter relationships of all the rim and island nations It gives a unique impression of the make up of the region and the tensions within it The book integrates a wide range of information from books and articles from published and unpublished sources including recently opened Russian and American archives and from the first hand experiences of participants including those of the author in Pacific Basin affairs Vigorously written and strongly argued no other account brings together all the threads of the development of international relations in this complex and fascinating region

Managing Modernity in the Western Pacific Martha Macintyre, 2014-06-01 Fast money schemes in Papua New Guinea collectivities in rural Solomon Islands gambling in the Cook Islands and the Vanuatu tax haven all feature in the interface between Pacific and global economies Since the 1970s Melanesian countries and their peoples have been beguiled by the prospect of economic development that would enable them to participate in a world market economic system Access to global markets would provide the means to improve their standard of living allowing them to take their places as independent nations in a modern world Managing Modernity in the Western Pacific takes a broad sweep through contemporary topics in Melanesian anthropology and ethnography With nuanced and rigorous scholarship it views contemporary debate on modernity in Melanesia within the context of the global economy and cultural capitalism In particular contributors assess local ideas about wealth success speculation and development and their connections to participation in institutions and activities generated by them This innovative and accessible collection offers a new intersection between Western Pacific anthropology and global studies

Technology and Governance Beyond the State Nicole Stremlau, Clara Voyvodic Casabó, 2024-09-30 This book explores how information and communications technologies are adapted governed and reinterpreted in areas where the state has limited reach The governance and regulation of new technologies from social media to AI has never seemed more urgent Efforts to harness the potential benefits to encourage innovation and novel applications yet restrain the known and unknown harmful aspects of these technologies have posed unprecedented challenges This book brings together an eclectic collection of cases from around the world from the favelas in Brazil to the border regions of Ethiopia and Somalia and to markets in Thailand to tease out the broader arguments and logics about how diverse enabling environments for technology and innovation may evolve and the wide range of public authorities that may be involved in providing governance and security for such innovation beyond the state The term the rule of non law refers to the breadth and array of rules norms and systems that enable novel technological assemblages and uses By looking at technologies and the rule of non law in areas that are often seen as marginal or at the peripheries from a profit and business perspective this book reflects new insights back to more Western dominated mainstream debates about law technology and innovation This book will be of great interest to students of Socio Legal Studies Science and Technology Studies Critical Security Studies and International Relations

Adventure Capitalism Raymond Craib, 2022-07-05 Imagine a capitalist paradise An island utopia governed solely by the rules of the market and inspired by the fictions of Ayn Rand and Robinson Crusoe Sound far fetched It may not be The past half century is littered with the remains of such experiments in what Raymond Craib calls libertarian exit Often dismissed as little more than the dreams of crazy rich Caucasians exit strategies have been tried out from the southwest Pacific to the Caribbean from the North Sea to the high seas often with dire consequences for local inhabitants Based on research in archives in the US the UK and Vanuatu as well as in FBI files acquired through the Freedom of Information Act Craib explores in careful detail the ideology and practice of libertarian exit and its place in the histories of contemporary capitalism decolonization empire and oceans and islands Adventure Capitalism is a global history that intersects with an array of figures Fidel Castro and the Koch brothers American segregationists and Melanesian socialists Honolulu based real estate speculators and British Special Branch spies soldiers of fortune and English lords Orange County engineers and Tongan navigators CIA operatives and CBS news executives and a new breed of techno utopians and an old guard of Honduran coup leaders This is not only a history of our time but given the new iterations of privatized exit seasteads free private cities and space colonization it is also a history of our future

Narratives of Nation in the South Pacific Nicholas Thomas, 2005-06-27 It is striking that in many Pacific nations national narratives are subordinate to other fundamental historical imaginings such as those concerning local political dynasties and conversion to Christianity While leaders in Pacific states have frequently sought to legitimate new nations through local tradition and custom these constructions of identity frequently mask divisions arising from gender hierarchy and other social relationships These studies from Papua New Guinea Vanuatu Samoa and the Cook Islands add much to our knowledge of historical imaginings and contemporary culture in the Pacific but raise wider questions concerning the current transformation of national identities

Social Justice and Legal Education Chris Ashford, Paul McKeown, 2019-01-15 Recent years have seen social justice emerge as a powerful driver for work both in law schools and the legal services sector However questions remain about how that term is understood and given meaning within the legal academy and beyond This edited collection explores the meanings that have emerged and might subsequently be developed together with a practical exploration of projects that have sought to bring the social justice agenda to life in law schools and in communities around the world Over the course of eighteen chapters this volume engages with a range of social justice and legal education themes including clinical legal education innocence projects access to justice cause lawyering LGBTQ identities and sustainability in law schools In addition it also explores themes of ethics and values in contemporary legal education in Africa Australia North America and the UK

My Land, My Life Siobhan McDonnell, 2023-10-31 Throughout Oceania land is central to identity because it is understood to be spiritually nourishing and sustaining Land is the mother Land and the kinship it nurtures is the basis for sustaining livelihoods and ways of life Therefore Indigenous dispossession from the land has deep and far reaching consequences My Land My Life Dispossession at the Frontier of Desire explores the land rush that took place in Vanuatu from 2001 to 2014 which resulted in over ten percent of all customary land being leased In this book Siobhan McDonnell offers new insights into the drivers of capitalist land transformations Using multi scalar and multi sited ethnography she describes not simply a linear march toward commodification of the landscape by foreign interests but a complex web replete with the local powerful Indigenous men involved in manipulating power and property McDonnell meticulously describes land leasing processes and maps the relationships between investors middlemen and local men She shows how property is a tool with which foreigners reassert capitalism and neocolonial control over Indigenous landscapes The legal identity of landowner contains foundational contradictions between the rights established in Vanuatu's kastom system and those afforded by property as individualized rights over land Property has also created sites for the production of masculine authority and enabled men to manipulate claims to land and entrench their personal power This book explores how transactions of customary land have created new domains of agency and frontiers of desire foreign desire to possess land and local desire to lease land for cash It concludes with a discussion of Vanuatu's constitutional and land reform package drafted by the author which took effect in 2014 and delivered a more empathetic approach to Indigenous land rights and ended the land rush Informed by decades of study legal work and community engagement My Land My Life demonstrates an engaged anthropological practice based on reciprocity that responds directly to what Indigenous people have asked for This book is certain to appeal to a wide range of scholars as well as policy makers

Kastom, property and ideology Siobhan McDonnell, Matthew Allen, Colin Filer, 2017-03-22 The relationship between customary land tenure and modern forms of landed property has been a major political issue in the Spearhead states of Melanesia since the late colonial period and is even more pressing today as the region is subject to its own version of what is described in the international literature as a new land rush or land grab in developing countries This volume aims to test the application of one particular theoretical framework to the Melanesian version of this phenomenon which is the framework put forward by Derek Hall Philip Hirsch and Tania Murray Li in their 2011 book Powers of Exclusion Land Dilemmas in Southeast Asia Since that framework emerged from studies of the agrarian transition in Southeast Asia the key question addressed in this volume is whether land transformations in Melanesia are proceeding in a similar direction or whether they take a somewhat different form because of the particular nature of Melanesian political economies or social institutions The contributors to this volume all deal with this question from the point of view of their own direct engagement with different aspects of the land policy process in particular countries Aside from discussion of the agrarian transition in Melanesia particular attention is also paid to the growing problem of land access in urban areas and the gendered nature of landed property relations in this region

Gender, Violence and Criminal Justice in the Colonial Pacific Kate Stevens, 2022-12-29 Centering on cases of sexual violence this open access book illuminates the contested introduction of British and French colonial criminal justice in the Pacific Islands during the late 19th and early 20th centuries focusing on Fiji New Caledonia and Vanuatu New Hebrides It foregrounds the experiences of Indigenous Islanders and indentured laborers in the colonial court system a space in which marginalized voices entered the historical record Rape and sexual assault trials reveal how hierarchies of race gender and status all shaped the practice of colonial law in the courtroom and the gendered experiences of colonialism Trials provided a space where men and women narrated their own story and at times challenged the operation of colonial law Through these cases Gender Violence and Criminal Justice in the Colonial Pacific highlights the extent to which colonial bureaucracies engaged with and affected private lives as well as the varied ways in which individuals and communities responded to such intrusions and themselves reshaped legal practices and institutions in the Pacific With bureaucratic institutions unable to deal with the complex realities of colonial lives Stevens reveals how the courtroom often became a theatrical space in which authority was performed deliberately obscuring the more complex and violent practices that were central to both colonialism and colonial law making Exploring the intersections of legal pluralism and local pragmatism across British and French colonialization in the Pacific this book shows how island communities and early colonial administrators adopted diverse and flexible approaches towards criminal justice pursuing alternative forms of justice ranging from unofficial courts to punitive violence in order to deal with cases of sexual assault The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4 0 licence on bloomsburycollections com Open access was funded by University of Waikato New Zealand

Pacific Nations and Territories Reilly Ridgell,1995 Provides a background in Pacific geography culture and history plus an overview of the different Pacific island groups

Indigenous Pathways Into Social Research Donna M Mertens,Fiona Cram,Bagele Chilisa,2016-06-03 The life stories included here present the journeys of over 30 indigenous researchers from six continents and many disciplines including the challenges and oppression they have faced their strategies for overcoming them and how their work has produced more meaningful research and a more just society

Climate Change and Displacement Jane McAdam,2010-09-06 Environmental migration is not new Nevertheless the events and processes accompanying global climate change threaten to increase human movement both within states and across international borders The Inter governmental Panel on Climate Change has predicted an increased frequency and severity of climate events such as storms cyclones and hurricanes as well as longer term sea level rise and desertification which will impact upon people s ability to survive in certain parts of the world This book brings together a variety of disciplinary perspectives on the phenomenon of climate induced displacement With chapters by leading scholars in their field it collects in one place a rigorous holistic analysis of the phenomenon which can better inform academic understanding and policy development alike Governments have not been prepared to take a leading role in developing responses to the issue in large part due to the absence of strong theoretical frameworks from which sound policy can be constructed The specialist expertise of the authors in this book means that each chapter identifies key issues that need to be considered in shaping domestic regional and international responses including the complex causes of movement the conceptualisation of migration responses to climate change the terminology that should be used to describe those who move and attitudes to migration that may affect decisions to stay or leave The book will help to facilitate the creation of principled research based responses and establish climate induced displacement as an important aspect of both the climate change and global migration debates
