The Politics of Rapid Urbanization Michael N. Danielson, Ruşen Keleş, 1985 Turkey between Democracy and Authoritarianism Yeşim Arat, Şevket Pamuk, 2019-09-05 An accessible introduction to the processes which shape politics and economics in contemporary Turkey Turkey, Islam, Nationalism, and Modernity Carter V. Findley, 2010-09-21 Book Description Publication Date August 30 2011 Turkey Islam Nationalism and Modernity reveals the historical dynamics propelling two centuries of Ottoman and Turkish history As mounting threats to imperial survival necessitated dynamic responses ethnolinguistic and religious identities inspired alternative strategies for engaging with modernity A radical secularizing current of change competed with a conservative Islamically committed current Crises sharpened the differentiation of the two streams forcing choices between them The radical current began with the formation of reformist governmental elites and expanded with the advent of print capitalism symbolized by the privately owned Ottoman language newspapers The radicals engineered the 1908 Young Turk revolution ruled empire and republic until 1950 made secularism a lasting belief system and still retain powerful positions The conservative current gained impetus from three history making Islamic renewal movements those of Mevlana Halid Said Nursi and Fethullah Gulen Powerful under the empire Islamic conservatives did not regain control of government until the 1980s By then they too had their own influential media Findley's reassessment of political economic social and cultural history reveals the dialectical interaction between radical and conservative currents of change which alternately clashed and converged to shape late Ottoman and republican Turkish history Environmental Challenges in the Mediterranean 2000-2050 Antonio Marquina, 2012-12-06 This book collects most of the contributions prepared for the NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW on Environmental Challenges in the Mediterranean 2000 2050 The ARW took place in Madrid from 2 to 5 of October 2002 Scholars and researchers from North and South of the Mediterranean and other countries from NATO gathered in Madrid for discussing several important factors that could affect Mediterranean security in the next 50 years In this regard the first chapter presents the different debates regarding environmental security that took place in the last decade This chapter is an introductory chapter and takes into account the possible audience in the Southern Mediterranean and the wishes of some contributors For this reason the chapter deals in extenso with the question of human security and the different approaches The ARW dealt with issues that may affect the supply of fundamental goods for human living To this end the complex question of climate change its impact in the Mediterranean the predicted increase in temperatures and predictions about rainfall are analysed As part of this approach a chapter about solar variability and climate change is also added The Cambridge History of Turkey Kate Fleet, Suraiya Faruqi, Reşat Kasaba, 2006 Publisher Description Contemporary Urban Landscapes of the Middle East Mohammad Gharipour, 2016-03-17 The Middle East is well known for its historic gardens that have developed over more than two millenniums The role of urban landscape projects in Middle Eastern cities has grown in prominence with a gradual shift in emphasis from gardens for the private sphere to an increasingly public function The contemporary landscape projects either designed as public plazas or public parks have played a significant role in transferring the modern Middle Eastern cities to a new era and also in transforming to a newly shaped social culture in which the public has a voice This book considers what ties these projects to their historical context and what regional and local elements and concepts have been used in their design

The Interplay between Urban Development, Vulnerability, and Risk Management Ebru A. Gencer,2013-06-19 Natural disasters are increasingly affecting the world taking lives unexpectedly and leaving many others injured and homeless Moreover disasters disrupt local national and even global economies instantly changing the direction of development In the first half of 2011 alone 108 natural disasters occurred killing over 23 thousand people affecting nearly 44 million others and causing more than 253 billion US dollars of economic damages CRED 2011 1 Large urban settlements have become increasingly vulnerable to the impacts of natural disasters The concentration of substandard infrastructure and housing material assets and inherent socio economic inequalities increase vulnerability to disasters in large urban areas especially in developing countries The size number functions and geographical distribution of large and megacities create a special concern for disaster risk Good urban management practices can be a powerful catalyst for reducing losses from natural disasters while simultaneously helping to develop a sustainable environment Yet the existing situation indicates that sustainable planning and risk management measures are not taken into consideration or may not be put into practice for a variety of financial political and social reasons This book argues that on one hand socio economic disparities resulting from unsustainable urban development can increase vulnerability to natural hazards and on the other hand when paired with natural hazards this increased vulnerability can negatively affect urban areas resulting in further inequality This book will showcase this argument with theoretical reviews and quantitative analyses on the interplay between sustainable development and disaster vulnerability as well as an in depth case study of the role of urban planning and risk management practices in creating the socio economic and spatial vulnerabilities and predicted earthquake risk in the megacity of Istanbul

Islamic Political Identity in Turkey M. Hakan Yavuz,2003-08-28 In November of 2002 the Justice and Development Party swept to victory in the Turkish parliamentary elections Because of the party s Islamic roots its electoral triumph has sparked a host of questions both in Turkey and in the West Does the party harbor a secret Islamist agenda Will the new government seek to overturn nearly a century of secularization stemming from Kemal Atatürk s early twentieth century reforms Most fundamentally is Islam compatible with democracy In this penetrating work M Hakan Yavuz seeks to answer these questions and to provide a comprehensive analysis of Islamic political identity in Turkey He begins in the early twentieth century when Kemal Atatürk led Turkey through a process of rapid secularization and crushed Islamic opposition to his authoritarian rule Yavuz argues that since Atatürk's death in 1938 however Turkey has been gradually moving away from his militant secularism and experiencing a quiet Muslim reformation Islamic political identity is not homogeneous says Yavuz but can be modern and progressive as well as conservative and potentially authoritarian While the West has traditionally seen Kemalism as an engine for reform against reactionary political Islam in fact the Kemalist establishment has traditionally used the Islamic threat as an excuse to avoid democratization and thus hold on to power Yavuz offers an account of the soft coup of 1997 in which the Kemalist military bureaucratic establishment overthrew the democratically elected coalition government which was led by the pro Islamic Refah party He argues that the soft coup plunged Turkey into a renewed legitimacy crisis which can only be resolved by the liberalization of the political system The book ends with a discussion of the most recent election and its implications for Turkey and the Muslim world Yavuz argues that Islamic social movements can be important agents for promoting a democratic and pluralistic society and that the Turkish example holds long term promise for the rest of the Muslim world Based on extensive fieldwork and interviews this work offers a sophisticated new understanding of the role of political Islam in one of the world's most strategically important countries Turkey Yonah Alexander, Edgar H.

Brenner, Serhat Tutuncuoglu Krause, 2008-04-21 How do democratic societies maintain the balance between civil rights and security while continuing the fight on global terrorism This work raises this issue and presents one country Turkey and its struggle to implement laws to combat terrorism and comply with the European Union's civil rights standards A collection of materials that reflects the legal responses in combating terrorism is an essential volume in any academic and professional collection as it provides a case specific reference point in the fields of EU politics law and international relations Turkey contains translations contextual notes and explanations from the editors of over 112 Turkish and EU documents ranging from martial law PKK terror Turkey EU relations human rights and Turkish reforms This resource book enables the reader to gauge Turkey's prospects for success in establishing an effective government that at the same time protects the rights of the individual This book will prove a valuable source for students and researchers of international politics international relations and security studies

Globalisation is often considered as not only generating jobs but also having a negative effect on those at the bottom of the labour supply chain Here Saniye Dedeoglu shows us exactly how globalisation has affected women engaged in insecure invisible and low unpaid garment work Through a close ethnographic study of women workers in Istanbul s garment industry she reveals how industries have adapted their labour demands to make use of local female labour supplies and highlights the strategies and responses that have evolved in response to contemporary changes in global industrial production in Turkey Dedeoglu shows how production for global markets has seeped into local labour markets contributing to a culture of work which is informal and whose participants are often invisible Women Workers in Turkey throws up the critical question of what it means to be a woman in today s globalised society and is an important contribution to the various perspectives on the social and economic consequences of globalization to the least privileged in industrial societies Environmentalism in

EU Influence Beyond Conditionality Mario Zucconi,2019-09-03 This book presents an in depth analysis of the role played by the EU accession process in Turkey s democratic evolution and in the empowerment of the Justice and Development Party AKP in the early 2000s Often moving against the grain of consolidated analytical positions the author finds that the accession process can have a critical impact on the political evolution and institutional setting of an aspiring member state that goes well beyond the simple Europeanization process or EU accession conditionality In the case of Turkey that process created the essential conditions and environment for the country s political modernization by helping the emergence of a periphery including Kurds conservative Muslims and non Muslims that secularism had pushed into a marginal secondary status in Turkish society Turkey s gradual evolution in an authoritarian direction following the stalling of the EU accession process offers further proof of the decisive role that the EU accession can play in a country s democratic advancement The book additionally indicates how Turkey s EU driven democratic evolution for a number of years had important implications in terms of regional and global order

Rural Development in Eurasia and the Middle East Kurt Engelmann,Vjieran Pavlaković,2001 The ties that bind Central Asia to the Middle East have increased dramatically in recent years as political emancipation from Soviet rule has spurred the restoration of material culture shared by Turkic and Iranian peoples Political institutions and farming practices however are still based on the Soviet model with centralised large scale agricultural production serving Russian rather than local needs The contributors to this volume examine land reform and agricultural development in Russia Central Asia North Africa and the Middle East Their studies bring into question the evolutionary view of agricultural development from small scale subsistence to large scale commercialised agricultural systems and emphasise the need to understand the specific political historical and geographic contexts of rural development and land reform This volume is a must for regional specialists
