Richard A. Falk, Tamás Szentes, 1997 In this new book a group of distinguished scholars from a range of disciplines and geographical backgrounds reflect on the centrality of the recent European experience to the global community today They look at the new Europe that is emerging in the wake of the dramatic geopolitical changes that occurred on the continent at the end of the 1980s The contributors seek to open a variety of perspectives including those of culture and history on today's rapidly changing European scene They examine in detail the process of transition and internal realities confronting post communist governments in Eastern and Central Europe Their provocative essays also look at the role of Europe in the new global economy the new regional alignments that are emerging and other key questions about the continent in the emerging world order In addition to the editors the contributors are Samir Amin Third World Forum Dakar Senegal Carlos Blanco Minister for the Reform of the State of Venezuela Gianni Bonvicini Istituto Affari Internazionali Rome Albert Bressand PROMETHEE Transnational Networks Paris Charles Cooper United Nations University Institute for New Technologies in Maastricht Netherlands Robert Cox York University Toronto Arpad Gócz president of the Hungarian Republic Björn Hettne University of Gothenburg Sweden Lal Jayawardena National Development Council Domokos Kosáry Hungarian Academy of Sciences Vladislav Kotchetkov UNESCO Tibor Palankai Budapest University of Economics George Schopflin University of London and Mihály Simai Hungarian Academy of Sciences Budapest The Contemporary Caribbean Robert B.

Potter, David Barker, Thomas Klak, Denis Conway, 2015-07-17 This text focuses on the contemporary economic social geographical environmental and political realities of the Caribbean region Historical aspects of the Caribbean such as slavery the plantation system and plantocracy are explored in order to explain the contemporary nature of and challenges faced by the Caribbean The book is divided into three parts dealing respectively with the foundations of the Caribbean rural and urban bases of the contemporary Caribbean and global restructuring and the Caribbean industry tourism and politics

The Caribbean Novel since 1945 Michael Niblett, 2012-02-16 The Caribbean Novel since 1945 offers a comparative analysis of fiction from across the pan Caribbean exploring the relationship between literary form cultural practice and the nation state Engaging with the historical and political impact of capitalist imperialism decolonization class struggle ethnic conflict and gender relations it considers the ways in which Caribbean authors have sought to rethink and re narrate the traumatic past and often problematic postcolonial present of the region's peoples It pays particular attention to the role cultural practices such as stick fighting and Carnival as well as religious rituals and beliefs like Vodou and Myal have played in efforts to reshape the novel form In so doing it provides an original perspective on the importance of these practices with their emphasis on bodily movement to the development of new philosophies of history Beginning in the post WWII period when optimism surrounding the possibility of social and political change was at a peak The Caribbean Novel since 1945 interrogates the trajectories of various national projects through to the present It explores how the textual histories of common motifs in Caribbean writing have functioned to encode the fluctuating fortunes of different political dispensations The scope of the analysis is varied and comprehensive covering both critically acclaimed and lesser known authors from the Anglophone Francophone and Hispanophone traditions These include Jacques Roumain Sam Selvon Marie Chauvet Luis Rafael S nchez Earl Lovelace Patrick Chamoiseau Erna Brodber Wilson Harris Shani Mootoo Oonya Kempadoo Ernest Moutoussamy and Pedro Juan Guti rrez Mixing detailed analysis of key texts with wider surveys of significant trends this book emphasizes the continuing significance of representations of the nation state to literary articulations of resistance to the imperialist logic of global capital Development in Suspense Norman Girvan, George L. Confounding Island Orlando Patterson, 2019-11-12 Orlando Patterson returns to Jamaica his birthplace to reckon with its history and culture Locals claim to be some of the world s happiest people and their successes in music and athletics are legendary Yet the country remains violent and poor In Jamaica the dilemmas of globalization and postcolonial politics are thrown into stark relief Geographies of Development Robert Potter, Tony Binns, Jennifer Elliott, Etienne Nel, David Smith, 2019-03-07 Now in its fourth edition Geographies of Development An Introduction to Development Studies remains a core balanced and comprehensive introductory textbook for students of Development Studies Development Geography and related fields This clear and concise text encourages critical engagement by integrating theory alongside practice and related key topics throughout It demonstrates informatively that ideas concerning development have been many and varied and highly contested varying from time to time and from place to place Clearly written and accessible for students who have no prior knowledge of development the book provides the basics in terms of a geographical approach to development what situation is where when and why Over 200 maps charts tables textboxes and pictures break up the text and offer alternative ways of showing the information The text is further enhanced by a range of pedagogical features chapter outlines case studies key thinkers critical reflections key points and summaries discussion topics and further reading Geographies of Development continues to be an invaluable introductory text not only for geography students but also anyone in area studies international studies and development studies Comparative Education Carlos Alberto Torres, Robert F. Arno, Lauren Ila Misiaszek, 2022-08-10 Now in its fifth edition Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local has established itself as the state of the art comprehensive as well as sophisticated framework for taking into account the dynamic interactions of local national regional and transnational factors shaping education systems around the world Our theoretical and methodological strategy for this volume has proven effective as a standard textbook for introducing the field of comparative education from various theoretical and methodological perspectives Beyond Coloniality Aaron Kamugisha,2019-02-01 Against the lethargy and despair of the contemporary Anglophone Caribbean experience Aaron Kamugisha gives a powerful argument for advancing Caribbean radical thought as an answer to the conundrums of the present Beyond Coloniality is an extended meditation on Caribbean thought and freedom at the beginning of the 21st century and a profound rejection of the postindependence social and political organization of the Anglophone Caribbean and its contentment with neocolonial arrangements of power Kamugisha provides a dazzling reading of two towering figures of the Caribbean intellectual tradition C L R James and Sylvia Wynter and their quest for human freedom beyond coloniality Ultimately he urges the Caribbean to recall and reconsider the radicalism of its most distinguished 20th century thinkers in order to imagine a future beyond neocolonialism Neoextractivism and Capitalist Development Dennis C. Canterbury,2018-05-15 The large scale extraction of natural resources for sale in capitalist markets is not a new phenomenon but in recent years global demand for resources has increased leading to greater attention to the role of resource extraction in the development of the exporting countries The term neoextractivism was coined to refer to the complex of state private sector policies intended to utilize the income from natural resources sales for development objectives and for improving the lives of a country s citizens However this book argues that neoextractivism is merely another conduit for capitalist development reinforcing the position of elites with few benefits for working people With particular reference to the role of neoextractivism within Latin America and the Caribbean using Guyana as a case study the book aims to provide readers with the tools they need to critically analyze neoextractivism as a development model identifying alternative paths for improving the human condition This book will be of interest to academics and students in the fields of international development political economy sociology and globalization as well as to policymakers and political activists engaged in social movements in the natural resources sector Globalization, Negotiation, and the Failure of Transformation in South Africa Michael H. Allen,2006-07-21 The book explains the social forces forms of consciousness and structural constraints that undermined Apartheid preserved national unity and yet later constrained democratic sovereignty as the imperatives of global markets clashed with the prior aspirations of the democratic revolution Guyana: from Slavery to the Present Ramesh Gampat,2015-04-15 It is common knowledge that slavery and indenture were characterized by long hours of physical labor restriction of movement and other basic human freedoms and severe punishment for violations of draconian labor laws Less well known is the fact that nutrition was very deficient and a range of infectious diseases maimed debilitated and killed on a large scale In trying to narrow the knowledge gap with respect to Guyana Ramesh Gampat shows that extremely poor sanitary conditions hygiene and nutrition hastened infections and created a vicious cycle The British protected its own soldiers officials and colonists by establishing a medical enclave that lasted until Emancipation in 1838 Former slaves were quarantined to neglected and decaying villages and Indians to plantations Concern with health conditions appeared only during periods of epidemics and even then it was essentially for the protection of Europeans Colonial medicine opened the way for stereotyping labeling racialization of disease neutralization of potential leaders in the struggle for justice and crystallization of the view that Europeans were superior to Blacks and Indians Shorter stature and life expectancy are good indications that slaves and indentured immigrants fared considerably less well than Europeans Several infectious diseases sickened and fell Blacks and Indians including malaria and undefined fevers pneumonia and bronchitis diarrhea and enteritis tuberculosis pneumonia and hookworm The conquest of malaria in the early 1950s initiated the epidemiological transition from communicable to chronic diseases and today NCDs account for some three quarters of all deaths in Guyana Malaria has reemerged fueled by a gold boom that consumes huge amount of mercury The potentially adverse public health consequences of the trio have been neglected

Resisting Paradise Angelique V. Nixon, 2015-09-25 Winner of the Caribbean Studies Association's 2016 Barbara T Christian Award for Best Book in the Humanities Tourists flock to the Caribbean for its beaches and spread more than just blankets and dollars Indeed tourism has overly affected the culture there Resisting Paradise explores the import of both tourism and diaspora in shaping Caribbean identity It examines Caribbean writers and others who confront the region's overdependence on the tourist industry and the many ways that tourism continues the legacy of colonialism Angelique V Nixon interrogates the relationship between culture and sex within the production of paradise and investigates the ways in which Caribbean writers artists and activists respond to and powerfully resist this production Forms of resistance include critiquing exploitation challenging dominant historical narratives exposing tourism's influence on cultural and sexual identity in the Caribbean and its diaspora and offering alternative models of tourism and travel Resisting Paradise places emphasis on the Caribbean people and its diasporic subjects as travelers and as cultural workers contributing to alternate and defiant understandings of tourism in the region Through a unique multidisciplinary approach to comparative literary analysis interviews and participant observation Nixon analyzes the ways Caribbean cultural producers are taking control of representation While focused mainly on the Anglophone Caribbean the study covers a range of territories including Antigua the Bahamas Grenada Haiti Jamaica as well as Trinidad and Tobago to deliver a potent critique

European Bloc Imperialism Dennis Canterbury, 2010-07-07 The reinvigorated debate on imperialism in the last two decades focuses on the means by which Euro American capital is currently spread around the globe and the different ways it pillages the wealth of the developing countries The Economic Partnership Agreements being foisted on the African Caribbean and Pacific countries by the European Union however has been under the radar of the debate on imperialism This book draws on the experiences of the Caribbean Forum EU EPA to fill that void by bringing into focus the economic partnership agreement as a conduit of European imperialism Critical Global Studies vol 1

Neoliberal Democratization and New Authoritarianism Dennis C. Canterbury, 2019-06-04 Originally published in 2005 Domestic and foreign economic and political policies in the rich capitalist nations in the North and in the poor countries in the South are geared towards globalization and democratization Indeed the dominant view held by countries in the North is that globalization leads to democracy and vice versa and that in turn economic development will result from that process Thus many scarce resources are allocated to bring about globalization and democracy Exploring the dynamics of change that allow for the persistence of authoritarian states in the Third World this illuminating book highlights certain aspects of democratization that have not been investigated fully Anyone interested in development politics and political sociology will draw a plethora of important theoretical insights into globalization authoritarianism and transition democratization from this original study Politics of Identity in Small Plural Societies S. Wilson,2012-01-30 In small plural societies cultural differences can be exaggerated exploited and intensified during political contests The survival of these societies as democracies or even at all hangs in the balance Gender, Ethnicity and Place Linda Peake,D. Alissa Trotz,2002-09-11 This book is concerned with the nature of the relationship between gender ethnicity and poverty in the context of the external and internal dynamics of households in Guyana Using detailed data collected from male and female respondents in three separate locations two urban and one rural and across two major ethnic groups Afro Guyanese and Indo Guyanese the authors discuss the links between gender and race exploring development issues from a feminist perspective Encyclopedia of Social History Peter N. Stearns,1993-12-21 A reference surveying the major concerns findings and terms of social history The coverage includes major categories within social history family demographic transition multiculturalism industrialization nationalism major aspects of life for which social history has provided a crucial per
