Douglas W. Geyer, 1993 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics Ronald H. Stone, 2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president's followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr's writing on politics and in Barack Obama's use of the theologian's thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich's critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author's critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy

African Governance and Development Issues in a World of Change Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu, Catherine Chiugo Kanu, Kanayo Nwadiakor, 2018-08-16 The present work is part of the outcome of the 2018 International Conference of the Association for the Promotion of African Studies which had the theme African ideologies in a world of change Heraclitus of Ephesus an ancient philosopher and one of the important thinkers in human history said that change is the basic law of nature and the condition of all things All things are in a state of flux You cannot step twice into the same river for just as water in a river is ceaselessly changing so are all things in a state of flux In relation to Africa's historical experience Alik Shahadah observes that Africa is a continent where cultures have smashed through deserts crossed trade routes traveled through immigration borders disregarding her notions of geography and race and names foods cultures religions genetics have jumped between Asia and Africa etc with blatant disregard for our social constructions The Association for the Promotion of African Studies in her 2018 international conference provided a context for African scholars to study African ideologies in a world of change especially as it concerns politics and development in Africa from a variety of points of view This piece which is a collection of academic papers from seventeen scholars focuses on the processes of change and disorganization of the various traditional social and cultural patterns and organizations and then on the possible recrystallization of some traditional elements within the more modern and differentiated societies

Rooted and Grounded in Love Timothy Reinhold Eberhart, 2017-06-05 God's invitation to join in the love feast of Holy Communion resounds at the very heart of the Christian faith and life But how are Christians faithfully to gather together in relational bonds of love in particular through our daily bread and common cup amidst a global market economy sustained by social and ecological violence Drawing on the holiness communitarian and agrarian ecological traditions Rooted and Grounded in Love provides a systematic theological affirmation of holiness as divine wholeness in examining our present industrial agro economy while also promoting a practical vision for how Christians might participate in the emergence of a more ecologically sustaining economically charitable and politically just food system God So Loves the City Charles E. Van Engen, Jude Tiersma, 2009-08-01 From the explosive contexts of Nairobi Mexico City Los Angeles and Madras burst fresh insights on the mission of the church for the city Jude Tiersma and Charles Van Engen worked closely with an international team of experienced urban practitioners to explore the most urgent issues facing those who minister in today's cities From each particular urban setting a team member contributed a story from ministry in the city Each story uniquely illustrates a different challenge of urban ministry in the face of injustice marginalization and urban structures This book brings you these stories then retells them in light of Scripture introducing new hope to each one From these stories emerge new ideas about the nature of cities and how to practice ministry in them The new methodology employed by Van Engen and Tiersma's team leads us in the first steps toward a theology of mission for the city God So Loves the City is a must for pastors seminary students missiologists congregation members and all who are concerned about urban ministry Take Back the Word - A Queer Reading of the Bible Robert E. Goss, Mona West, 2000-11-15 Perhaps the most revolutionary contribution of Take Back the Word is its presentation of resistant practices of reading the Bible that challenge oppressive applications of Scripture to clobber queer folk If lesbians gay men bisexuals transgender non gender conforming and questioning people are to take back the word of Scripture for themselves they must take it back in a new way Essays examine queer strategies for reading queer ethical models from the Hebrew Scriptures and queer good news stories from the Christian Scriptures Rural Congregational Studies Loyle Shannon Jung, Mary A. Agria, 1997 Nearly all pastors sent to rural congregations were nurtured in larger urban congregations and nearly always educated in urbanized seminaries A wide culture gap between leaders and members often emerges among the church leaders in rural congregations This book is designed to address and study the issues that arise when ordained and lay pastors are called or appointed to rural congregations This handbook will orient seminary students and pastors who are doing ministry in rural congregations It focuses on the nature of congregational life in such a setting showing ways to deal with the issues and challenges specific to rural culture The authors tell how to best engage in evangelism and mission in the particular locations in which these congregations find themselves Rural Congregational Studies A Guide for Good Shepherds outlines features of different rural settings that affect life and church life Each chapter contains a section of resources sidebars ideas programs and so forth that tie it to the chapter theme Church Growth Bulletin Vol 2 McGavran Dona, 1977-05 Land Reforms in India Pramoda Kumāra Agravāla, 1993 The book Land Reforms in India Constitutional and Legal Approach is a landmark in the field of land reforms It explores many new and important facts and principles of laws on the subject which are universally applicable The author discovered a mathematical formula to concretize the concept of land reforms and successfully applied it in his statistical study of implementation of land reforms in India with special reference to State of Uttar Pradesh There is an imperative need to implement the land laws in true spirit and with determination      Competition for Resources in a Changing World New Drive for Rural Development Eric Tielkes,2008      Bulletin for Contextual Theology in Southern Africa & Africa ,1997
