The Rule of Benedict David Gibson, 2006-09-19 There was no neutral response to the announcement that the enforcer Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger had been elected Benedict XVI the next pope of the Roman Catholic Church Conservatives saw it as the final triumph of their agenda Liberals were aghast Everyone else wondered what to expect Award winning religion journalist David Gibson explores the war of ideas that will be a defining feature of this new papacy Gibson persuasively argues that by tackling the modern world head on Benedict XVI is gambling that he can make traditional orthodox Catholicism the savior of contemporary society But if the elderly Benedict fails in his battle with modernity will Catholicism wind up as a smaller but purer church the new kind of fortress Catholicism that some conservatives want Such fears haunt millions of American Catholics pressing for change Gibson points to the early warning signs of a papacy hyperfocused on right belief and shows how the key decisions of this surprising papacy will profoundly impact the future of Catholicism

Pope Benedict XVI and the Politics of Modernity Marc D. Guerra, 2017-07-05 In Benedict XVI and the Politics of Modernity distinguished scholars from North America and Europe examine Pope Benedict XVI's searching reflections on the challenges and prospects facing modern Western society For more than five decades Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI has made the subject of the continued health and vitality of Western civilization a focal point of his reflections From his early 1968 Introduction to Christianity to his later 2005 Values in a Time of Upheaval the Pope has argued that the preservation of the social political scientific and spiritual way of life that characterizes modern Western societies hinges upon our rediscovery of the unique roots and distinctive nature of Western civilization Focusing on Pope Benedict XVI's nuanced account as to why the modern West cannot currently afford to forget or neglect its premodern Hellenic and Christian roots

this book will interest religious and nonreligious people who are concerned about the future of democracy and religion in contemporary Western societies This book was based on a special issue of Perpectives on Political Science Pope Benedict XVI's Legal Thought Marta Cartabia,2015 The Making of the Pope Andrew M. Greeley,2005 After twenty six years under the leadership of the charismatic socially conservative John Paul II the future of a Church which is increasingly at odds with a secular modern world hung in the balance as cardinals from all over the globe gathered to vote for the new pontiff On Tuesday 19th April 2005 after three rounds of voting the conclave finally elected Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger seen as the most traditionalist candidate to become Pope Benedict XVI the 256th head of the Catholic Church Father Andrew M Greeley is uniquely placed to give a fascinating insight into the politics coalitions and rumour swapping that lead up to the election of the new Pope as well as its long term implications for the Catholic Church He is a priest with inside access to the Vatican and also a seasoned journalist and sociologist who has been a leading voice in the catholic community for decades

Pope Benedict's Legal Thought Marta Cartabia,Andrea Simoncini,2015-12-01 A Reply to Pope Benedict XVI and More Edward N. Haas,2008-12-01 In his encyclical Spe Salvi Pope Benedict condones Dostoevsky s protest against the idea of God allowing universal salvation It s one thing to preach universal salvation and another to rail against God s allowing it The latter is the same complaint hurled at their Master by the workers in Matthew 20 11 12 How rightly He denounced them as resenting His generosity and attacking His right to do as He pleased with His belongings There shall be no universal salvation But why It s not because God will not allow it rather it s because God will not force it Why have to force it Sinners hate God with so great a passion they d rather be in hell eternally cursing God than be in Heaven worshipping God forever Why so great a hatred The extent to which God s divine standards contradict and belittle theirs is so infuriating their irrationally proud egos explode more violently than a hydrogen bomb can For them the idea of worshipping what insults them that grievously is far more tormenting than the tortures of hell How hell delights them with its guarantee their hatred shall never diminish one iota Sinners then would go to heaven only if forced to go There is no coercion severity retribution etc in The Divine Nature Why then the Atonement It s not a case of Incarnate God offering enough human pain to allow The Divine Nature to get even with us for some offense to divinity rather it s a case of Incarnate God offering pain so worthy it gives God s divine standards just cause to let our natural coercive pain loving retaliatory love get even in merit with God s supernatural kind Why would Incarnate God need to do that This book s answer is an eye opener
