Chapter 1 The Pope's Letter

The Lord's Day — as Sunday was called from Apostolic Times." Thus commences Pope John Paul II's Apostolic Letter, Dies Domini, issued July 7, 1998. The Pope provides a reference in order to document his initial assertion. His reference is Revelation 1:10. This Scriptural passage states:

I [John] was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

It will be seen that this verse of Scripture, while mentioning the Lord's Day, does not in any particular indicate which day of the week is the Lord's Day. One may read the context of the Biblical passage, and he will find no elucidation of the term. Since the term, "the Lord's Day" occurs nowhere else in Scripture, it will not assist us to seek another reference containing the term "Lord's Day" in order to enable us to discover the Biblical meaning of the term.

Yet the only safe ground for a sincere student of the Bible is to permit the Bible to interpret itself. God in His goodness has not left this matter in doubt. In clear, unequivocal terms He has revealed to us which day is the Lord's Day. The New Testament specifies the day which is the Lord's Day in two passages of Scripture:

For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day (Matthew 12:8).

And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath (Luke 6:5).
