The Positively True Adventures Of The Alleged Texas Cheerleadermurdering Mom:

The Positively True Adventures of the Alleged Texas Cheerleader-murdering Mom Jane Anderson, 1992 New York Magazine, 1993-04-12 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Real Emotional Logic: Film and Television Docudrama As Persuasive Practice Steven N. Lipkin, 2002

Docufictions Gary D. Rhodes, John Parris Springer, 2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane M A S H This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon Topics include the docudrama in early cinema the industrial film as faux documentary the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here F Is for Phony Alexandra Juhasz, Jesse Lerner, 2006 Why Docudrama? Alan Rosenthal, 1999 Defining and examining the rationale of docudrama the nine essayists in the first part discuss the history and development of docudrama on TV and in film they also consider the place of truth in docudrama the main critiques of the form and the audience s susceptibilities and expectations In investigating the actual filmmaking process the eight essays in the second part focus on how docudrama as a commodity is created in the United States and England Part essay part case study and part interview this section also explores how Hollywood and the commercial networks as well as producers and writers work and think The final part presents an in depth critique of a number of controversial docudramas that have helped form and shape public opinion including Battleship Potemkin Roots Reds JFK Mississippi Burning Schindler s List and In the Name of the Father TV (The Book) Alan Sepinwall, Matt Zoller Seitz, 2024-09-24 Is The Wire better than Breaking Bad Is Cheers better than Seinfeld What s the best high school show ever made Why did Moonlighting really fall apart Was the Arrested Development Netflix season brilliant or terrible For twenty years since they shared a TV column at Tony Soprano s hometown newspaper critics Alan Sepinwall and Matt Zoller Seitz have been debating these questions and many more but it all ultimately boils down to this What s the greatest TV show ever That debate reaches an epic conclusion in TV THE BOOK Sepinwall and Seitz have identified and ranked the 100 greatest scripted shows in American TV history Using a complex obsessively all encompassing scoring system they ve created a Pantheon of top TV shows each accompanied by essays delving into what made these shows great From vintage classics like The Twilight Zone and I Love Lucy to modern masterpieces like Mad Men and Friday Night Lights from huge hits like All in the Family and ER to short lived favorites like Firefly and Freaks and Geeks TV THE BOOK will bring the triumphs of the small screen together in one amazing compendium Sepinwall and Seitz s argument has ended Now it s time for yours to begin No other way to tell it Derek Paget,2013-01-18 This second edition of No other Way To Tell It defines the form analyses its codes and conventions and reviews contrasting histories in America and British practice taking into account new developments since the first edition These include television s radically new ecology with factual formats a growth area Docudrama in film has also burgeoned recently partly because the industries themselves have grown closer and partly because of continued interest in the lives of the famous and of those in the news International co production now exploits many different screening opportunities and possibilities with the result that docudrama and become a cinematic as well as televisual staple Docudrama is not only popular with audiences it also causes constant flurries of commentary and controversy Concerns about borders and boundaries a questioning of documentary s claim to represent the real doubts about the popular audience s ability to cope with new approaches to the ideas of witness testimony and confession authenticity and truth all fuel the debate This new edition situates docudrama and its ongoing debates within a newly vibrant and still highly contentious field of practice This book will interest readers academic and general with an interest in fact based drama in film theatre and television Television at the Movies Jon Nelson Wagner,Tracy Biga MacLean,2008-05-19 The overview of television criticism which this book provides comes appropriately at a moment of change Television is becoming dramatically different as a result of new and developing technologies such as cable HDTV satellite transmission and broadband distributions By concentrating on the still dominant notion of television what the authors call Classical Network Television they argue that it is as important to understand this model as it is to understand Classical Hollywood Cinema The co authors have a unique approach to the study of television viewing its history and reception not only through important articles about the medium but also through analyzing how Hollywood auteur cinema has commented on television over the decades in films such as Tootsie Network The Last Picture Show A Face in the Crowd Rollerball The King of Comedy and others Not only does this reflect the pervasive use of cinema theory to discuss television it also helps to emphasize the importance of clarifying the distinctions between the criticisms of the two media Television at the Movies argues that the study of television is a crucial aspect of understanding our recent and contemporary culture and it provides an illuminating point of entry for students and researchers in the field They Made the Movies James Bawden,Ron Miller,2023-10-10 For decades James Bawden and Ron Miller have established themselves as maestros of provocative interviews giving fans unmatched insights into the lives of
