Peterson,2012-09-24 This book shows how cosmopolitan Christian converts and east African patriots struggled to define political community in the mid twentieth century Derek Peterson traces the history of the East African Revival an evangelical movement that challenged patriots effort to root people in place as inheritors of a cultural heritage      Cotton Goods in British East Africa, Uganda, Zanzibar, and German East Africa Ralph Milton Odell,1914      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991      The American Philatelist ,2000 Beginning with 1894 consists mainly of the Proceedings etc of the American philatelic association      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1993      A Short History of Zanzibar Afro-Shirazi Party. Executive Department,1974      India's Stamp Journal ,1957      History of Air Cargo and Airmail from the 18th Century Camille Allaz,2005-03 It was first published in French by the Institut du Transport Aerien in 1998 and received very favourable reviews Through the publication of the English language edition this remarkable work is now accessible to many more readers around the world In addition the author has expanded the book with new sections and he has extensively updated it to bring the story of air cargo into the twenty first century concluding with a look into the future The author Camille Allaz served as Senior Vice President Cargo at Air France for 10 years which gave him an insider s close up view of his subject a privilege not enjoyed by many historians There is no aspect of mail or cargo transport by air that has not been thoroughly researched and documented by Allaz from the first brief transport of animals by balloon in France in 1783 to the vast global networks of the integrated express carriers in the 21st century As a true scholar he fits his narrative into the larger framework of political military economic and aviation history This book should stand for years as the definitive work on the history of air cargo and airmail and will be of immense value to the academic community to the air cargo industry the postal services and to the general public      Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998      The History of the Church Missionary Society Eugene Stock,1916      The Statesman's Year-Book S. Colonial Office,1948      East Africa (British) Frank Holderness Gale,1908      Books in Print ,1991      The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing Terrence L. Craig,2017-03-27 The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing provides an overview of Kenyan literature by white writers in the half century before Independence in 1964 Such literature has been over shadowed by that of black writers to the point of critical ostracism It deserves attention for its own sake as the expression of a community that hoped for permanence but suffered both disappointment and dispossession It deserves attention for its articulation of an increasingly desperate colonial and Imperial situation at a time when both were being attacked and abandoned in Africa as in other colonies elsewhere and when a counter discourse was being constructed by writers in Britain as well as in Africa Kenya was likely the best known twentieth century colony for it attracted publicity for its iconic safaris and its Happy Valley scandals Yet behind such scenes were settlers who had taken over lands from the native peoples and who were trying to make a future for themselves based on the labour willing or forced of those people This situation can be seen as a microcosm of one colonial exercise and can illuminate the historical tensions of such times The bibliography is an attempt to collect the literary resources of white Kenya in this historically significant period
