Stoler,Jim Redden,Lee Ann Jackson,2009-12-03 This book explores the complex relationship between international trade and poverty reduction through a combination of research papers and contemporary case studies Written mainly by developing country authors in consultation with local businesses and communities the case studies contribute to our understanding of the ways in which low income communities are dealing with trade as a practical challenge especially in the Asia Pacific region where approximately two thirds of the world s poor live While making it clear that there is no one size fits all formula the research and stories highlight a number of necessary preconditions such as political commitment and cooperation at all levels if trade is to successfully reduce poverty Openness to trade serious commitment to domestic reform trade related capacity building a robust and responsible private sector and access to the markets of developed countries are all identified as powerful tools for building trade related sustainable development African Art and Agency in the Workshop Sidney Littlefield Kasfir,Till Förster,2013-04-01 Compelling case studies demonstrate how African workshops have long mediated collective expression and individual imagination Allen F Roberts University of California Los Angeles The role of the workshop in the creation of African art is the subject of this revelatory book In the group setting of the workshop innovation and imitation collide artists share ideas and techniques and creative expression flourishes African Art and Agency in the Workshop examines the variety of workshops from those which are politically driven or tourist oriented to those based on historical patronage or allied to current artistic trends Fifteen lively essays explore the impact of the workshop on the production of artists such as Zimbabwean stone sculptors master potters from Cameroon wood carvers from Nigeria and others from across the continent Contributions by Nicolas Argenti Jessica Gershultz Norma Wolff Christine Scherer Silvia Forni Elizabeth Morton Alexander Bortolot Brenda Schmahmann Chika Okeke Agulu Karen E Milbourne and Namubiru Rose Kirumira A closer examination of the workshop provides important insights into art histories and cultural politics We may think we know what we mean when we use the term workshop but in fact the organization of groups of artists takes on vastly different forms and encourages the production of diverse styles of art within larger social structures and power dynamics Victoria Rovine University of Florida Taken as a whole the case studies provide a wide window into the very diverse structural and functional characteristics of workshops They also clearly describe how African workshops have served both contemporary political and cultural needs and have responded to patronage whether it be traditional or stimulated by tourism African Studies Review The 3 Dimensions of Digitalised Archaeology Marco Hostettler, Anja Buhlke, Clara Drummer, Lea Emmenegger, Johannes Reich, Corinne Stäheli, 2024-03-11 This open access book aims to provide an overview of state of the art approaches to 3D documentation from a practical perspective and formulate the most important areas for future developments Bringing together a wide range of case studies examples of best practice approaches workflows and first attempts to establish sustainable solutions to pressing problems this book offers readers current practical advice on how to approach 3D archaeology and cultural heritage Divided into five parts this book begins with an overview of 3D archaeology in its present state It goes on to give insights into the development of the technology and recent cutting edge applications The next section identifies current challenges in 3D archaeology and then presents approaches and solutions for data management of a large number of 3D objects and ways to ensure sustainable solutions for the archiving of the produced data This book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of archaeology heritage management and digital humanities in general Agricultural Services Development

Francfort, Dennis D. Dauble, 1994 Transitions Environments Translations Joan W. Scott, Cora Kaplan, Debra Keates, 2013-10-18 The essays in Transitions Environments Translations explore the varied meanings of feminism in different political cultural and historical contexts They respond to the claim that feminism is Western in origin and universalist in theory and to the assumption that feminist goals are self evident and the same in all contexts Rather than assume that there is a blueprint by which to measure the strength or success of feminism in different parts of the world these essays consider feminism to be a site of local national and international conflict They ask What is at stake in various political efforts by women in different parts of the world What meanings have women given to their efforts What has been their relationship to feminism as a concept and as an international movement What happens when feminist ideas are translated from one
