Ernst Bloch Jack Zipes, 2019-08-03 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to and overview of the life and philosophy of Ernst Bloch Bloch has had a strange fate in the English speaking world He wrote his famous three volume opus The Principle of Hope while living in exile in the United States from 1938 to 1940 It was first published however in East Germany in the 1950s after he had returned to Europe and became a professor of philosophy at the University of Leipzig Gradually his other numerous works became better known and widespread in Europe and scholars in the US and UK started to take note of his works Yet he has still remained a somewhat neglected figure in the humanities While this book does not set out to entirely rectify this neglect it does offer readers an introduction to Bloch's works and the opportunity to understand more about the importance of utopian thought Through an exploration of some of Bloch's more controversial communist leanings and relationship to the Soviet Union a study of Bloch's utopian quest and even a comparison with J. R. R. Tolkien this comprehensive study demonstrates just how interesting a figure Ernst Bloch really was and how his philosophy of hope has laid the basis for secular humanism

From 'Aggressive Masculinity' to 'Rape Culture' Liz Jackson, Michael A. Peters, 2018-07-20 From Aggressive Masculinity to Rape Culture is the fifth volume in this series and explores the relationship between gender and sex roles and socialisation and education foregrounding issues of inequity and different forms of oppression in various contexts It tells a rich story of transformation of a field over nearly half a century in relation to the theorisation of gender and sexuality in educational philosophy and theory The transformation of this field is mapped on to broader social trends during the same period enabling a better understanding of the potential role of educational philosophy and theory in developing feminist queer and related veins of scholarship in the future The collection of texts focuses on a wide range of topics including nature versus nurture and the debate over whether gender and sex roles are natural or based upon culture and socialisation gender and sexual binaries and how power is organised and circulates within educational spaces including possibly online spaces with regard to enabling or disrupting sexually oppressive or violently gendered social conditions Other important trends include Internet activism and
