Improving Your Prayer Life through a Study of the Psalter Randall C. Bailey, 2021-10-04 How should we pray Do we believe God answers our prayers Is it acceptable to complain to God Should we bargain with him to receive the response we desire Why do we praise God Does our praise make him any more God John Calvin argued basically that the purpose of prayer is to realign the petitioner's feelings and beliefs with God's Many today seem to have adopted this idea One says Why pray at all God knows everything so my prayers cannot change his mind I must pray to discover God's will for my life I must realign my will with God's will for my life In contrast the psalmists assumed a reciprocal process They believed they could bring pressures on God to answer their requests They would bargain with God and promise him certain things if he would only grant their petitions Indeed this was part of the process They would obligate themselves to praise God if he would grant their desires Such bargaining was the foundation of their prayers Comparisons of Calvin's views with the psalmists allows the reader to investigate the nature of his or her prayer life and make improvements where necessary

Profile of a Religious Man Edwin Zackrison, 2020-11-11 This book is a journey

book Sitting down at a computer and producing the story has been a grand trek I have learned that there is a principle in nature that some things need to mellow calm down and soak in The refusal of winemakers to take a wine before its time is a notion I am coming to understand It works with writers as well Like a fetus signaling its mother that it is time to head for the hospital a literary work stays in the mind until its time In my education I have read of the battles of great Church leaders who were eventually thrown out of their churches In my denominational education I was largely led to see them as heretics rebels eccentrics revolutionaries apostates and as generally representing a lower form of spirituality Church education often asked me to surrender my biases in favor of accepting a new set of assumptions my denominational ones We were to be critical of everything except our organization I submit that there is danger in that This book will cover incidents from the first forty years of my life as a religious addict You may find something here that you can identify with

On Earth as in Heaven Arthur Paul Boers,2008-02-01 Do we touch God and meet Jesus in a church or a soup kitchen In a monastery or on skid row In a Bible camp or a housing project In heaven or on earth Such distinctions are false says Arthur Paul Boers We can t experience God in heaven without loving the needy on earth Nor can we truly love the needy on earth if not empowered by God in heaven
