The Preacher As Jacob A New Paradigm For Preaching:

The Preacher as Jacob Kenneth L. Gible, 1985 The "I" of the Sermon Richard L. Thulin, 2004-11-22 The issues are clear If one preaches Christ how does one avoid preaching oneself How do you avoid the fall into Narcissus pond What allows one's humility to show How much does one dare reveal about oneself Thulin handles these questions with sensitivity and skill using his own and others sermons for examples and critique He carefully and incisively describes four types of personal story available to preachers the features and functions of each and the degree of the preacher's self disclosure allowed by each Most of his book deals with the personal story as self portrayal that type being the most comprehensive form of first person narrative An appendix includes three sermons one each by Edmund Steimle Martin Luther King Jr and John Vannorsdall often used to disclose the intent of Thulin's I in this book Preaching from Camelot to Covenant William K. McElvaney, 1989 Elenchus of Biblica, 1988 The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice Teaching the Reformation Amy Nelson Burnett, 2006-10-12 Though the Reformation was sparked by the actions of Martin Luther it was not a decisive break from the Church in Rome but rather a gradual process of religious and social change As the men responsible for religious instruction and moral oversight at the village level parish pastors played a key role in the implementation of the Reformation and the gradual development of a Protestant religious culture but their ministry has seldom been examined in the light of how they were prepared for the pastorate Teaching the Reformation examines the four generations of Reformed pastors who served the church of Basel in the century after the Reformation focusing on the evolution of pastoral training and Reformed theology the theory and practice of preaching and the performance of pastoral care in both urban and rural parishes It looks at how these pastors were educated and what they learned examining not only the study of theology but also the general education in languages rhetoric and dialectic that future pastors received at the city's Latin school and in the arts faculty of the university It points to significant changes over time in the content of that education which in turn separated Basels pastors into distinct generations The study also looks more specifically at preaching in Basel demonstrating how the evolution of dialectic and rhetoric instruction and particularly the spread of Ramism led to changes in both exegetical method and homiletics These developments combined with the gradual elaboration of Reformed theology resulted in a distinctive style of Reformed Orthodox preaching in Basel The development of pastoral education also had a direct impact on how Basels clergy carried out their other duties catechization administering the sacraments counseling the dying and consoling the bereaved and overseeing the moral conduct of their parishioners The growing professionalization of the clergy the result of more intensive education and more stringent supervision contributed to the gradual implantation of a Reformed religious culture in Basel

The Post-Reformation John Spurr, 2014-06-11 The 17th century was a dynamic period characterized by huge political and social changes including the Civil War the execution of Charles I the Commonwealth and the Restoration The Britain of 1714 was recognizably more modern than it was in 1603 At the heart of these changes was religion and the search for an acceptable religious settlement which stimulated the Pilgrim Fathers to leave to settle America the Popish plot and the Glorious Revolution in which James II was kicked off the throne This book looks at both the private aspects of human beliefs and practices and also institutional religion investigating the growing competition between rival versions of Christianity and the growing expectation that individuals should be allowed to worship as they saw fit

Preaching Christology in the Roman Near East Philip Michael Forness, 2018-10-18 Preaching formed one of the primary regular avenues of communication between ecclesiastical elites and a wide range of society Clergy used homilies to spread knowledge of complex theological debates prevalent in late antique Christian discourse Some sermons even offer glimpses into the locations in which communities gathered to hear orators preach Although homilies survive in greater number than most other types of literature most do not specify the setting of their initial delivery dating and authorship Preaching Christology in the Roman Near East addresses how we can best contextualize sermons devoid of such information The first chapter develops a methodology for approaching homilies that draws on a broader understanding of audience as both the physical audience and the readership of sermons The remaining chapters offer a case study on the renowned Syriac preacher Jacob of Serugh c 451-521 whose metrical homilies form one of the largest sermon collections in any language from late antiquity His letters connect him to a previously little known Christological debate over the language of the miracles and sufferings of Christ through his correspondence with a monastery a Roman military officer and a Christian community in South Arabia He uses this language in homilies on the Council of Chalcedon on Christian doctrine and on biblical exegesis An analysis of these sermons demonstrates that he communicated miaphysite Christology to both elite reading communities as well as ordinary audiences Philip Michael Forness provides a new methodology for working with late antique sermons and discloses the range of society that received complex theological teachings through preaching

A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards JR., 2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church's ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 contains Edwards's magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching's development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time Origen Chrysostom Augustine Bernard Aquinas Luther Calvin Wesley Edwards Rauschenbusch Barth all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew Volume 2 available separately as 9781501833786 contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history Ecumenical in scope fair minded in presentation appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop deliver and listen to a sermon A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years says Ann K Riggs who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission Author Edwards former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary is co-moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches we all participate in this field says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65 Winter 2004 2005 published by the National Council of Churches

The Cumulative Book Index, 1986 A world list of books in the English language

Once Upon a Wonder Kenneth L. Gible, 1992 English Puritanism John Spurr, 1998-08-26 The Puritans of seventeenth century England have been blamed for everything from the English civil war to the rise of capitalism But who were the Puritans of Stuart England Were they apostles of liberty who fled from persecution to the New World Or were they intolerant fanatics intent on bringing godliness to Stuart England This study provides a clear narrative of the rise and fall of the Puritans across the troubled seventeenth century Their story is placed in context by analytical chapters which describe what the Puritans believed and how they organised their religious and social life Quoting many contemporary sources including diaries plays and sermons this is a vivid and comprehensible account drawing on the most recent scholarship Readers will find this book an indispensable guide not only to the religious history of seventeenth century England but also to its political and social history

A Handbook for Catholic Preaching
Edward Foley, 2016 While admitting particular parameters and priorities for Roman Catholic preachers this volume was intentionally envisioned as a handbook for catholic preaching in the broadest and most universal sense of that term Cosponsored by the Catholic Academy of Liturgy the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions it covers the role of the Scriptures in preaching the challenges of preaching in a digital age sermonizing in an interfaith context and the need for a liberative and prophetic word that cuts across denominations and even faith traditions Intended to aid those who teach or direct the preaching arts the design and writing style of this book are particularly calibrated to graduate students in ministerial studies Every article is a self contained overview of a particular historical period genre of preaching homiletic theory or contemporary issue This more encyclopedic approach devoid of footnotes yet supported by pertinent bibliography and an extensive index provides a sufficiently rich yet thoroughly accessible gateway to major facets of the preaching arts at this stage of the twenty first century General Editor Edward Foley Associate Editors Catherine Vincie Richard N Fragomeni Contributors Herbert Anderson John F Baldovin Alden Lee Bass Dianne Bergant Stephen Bevans Robert Bireley John Carr Anthony Collamati Michael E Connors Guerric DeBona Frank DeSiano William T Ditewig Con Foley Edward Foley Richard N Fragomeni Ann M Garrido Gregory Heille Lucy Lind Hogan Patrick R Lagges David J Lose Barbara K Lundblad Ricky Manalo Robert F Morneau Carolyn Muessig vanThanh Nguyen Mary Margaret Pazdan Patricia Parachini Jorge Presmanes Craig Alan Satterlee Catherine Vincie Richard Vosko James A Wallace Margaret Moers Wenig Alex Zenthoef

Jewish Preaching, 1200-1800
Marc Saperstein, 1989-01-01 This anthology of largely unknown medieval and early modern Jewish sermons provides an introduction to a neglected area of Jewish creativity one that gives insights into the central intellectual issues spiritual movements and communal centers during six critical centuries of Jewish experience The sermons presented here in their entirety have been translated annotated and introduced by Marc Saperstein who also provides a discussion of the historical background of the sermons their context and their relationship to Hebrew literature A scholarly masterpiece and an intellectual tour de force that must be read by anybody with a serious interest in Jewish studies or the art of preaching Howard Adelman Shofar This splendid and interesting collection a description true of all the Yale Judaica is richly documented Thomas L Shaffer Christian Legal Society Quarterly A work of profound scholarship it is also a pleasure to read Choice Jewish Preaching offers the reader an exceptional overview of many different and fascinating aspects of Jewish history culture and theology Yaakov Ort Wellsprings Marc Saperstein's careful and detailed translations and annotations and his cogent introductory essay are examples of scholarship at its highest level and should serve to secure the place of this body of literature in the field of Jewish studies Present Tense Joel H Caviour Literary Award 1990 A groundbreaking work of exquisite scholarship that truly points the way for others to follow David E Fass American Rabbi Winner of the 1990 National Jewish Book Award in the category of Jewish Thought given by the Jewish Book Council The New International Encyclopædia Daniel Coit Gilman, Harry Thurston Peck, Frank Moore Colby, 1903 Dancing with Metaphors in the Pulpit Rodney Wallace Kennedy, 2024-07-30 Dancing with Metaphors in the Pulpit is a prequel to the writing and delivery of the sermon The work of invention which includes the gathering of material is the primary focus of the book The hard work of preaching takes place in the thinking reading and writing The cross disciplinary study provided here covers lessons learned by preachers and by novelists poets philosophers and rhetoricians Singing and Suffering with the Servant David M. Stark, 2022-10-10 The Old Testament is transformed from problem to ally when preachers attend to power at work in ancient and modern contexts by mirroring Second Isaiah's proclamation listening to contemporary servant Israel and learning from African American preaching in context of domination This book analyses the impact of domination on Old Testament proclamation and thus leads to several unique contributions Firstly it reads Second Isaiah as a homiletic model for proclaiming older pre-exilic texts in response to exilic domination Secondly it treats the Old Testament as a rich resource for confronting racism and anti-Semitism though teaching and it introduces contemporary Christian Jewish dialogue in Germany as a model for the Church Lastly it highlights preaching traditions within the African American Church as instructive for formulating an effective Old Testament preaching strategy Jacob & Esau Malachi Haim Hacohen, 2019-01-10 Jacob and Esau is a profound new account of two millennia of Jewish European history that for the first time integrates the cosmopolitan narrative of the Jewish diaspora with that of traditional Jews and Jewish culture Malachi Haim Hacohen uses the biblical story of the rival twins Jacob and Esau and its subsequent retelling by Christians and Jews throughout the ages as a lens through which to illuminate changing Jewish Christian relations and the opening and closing of opportunities for Jewish life in Europe Jacob and Esau tells a new history of a people accustomed for over two and a half millennia to forming relationships real and imagined with successive empires but eagerly adapting in modernity to the nation state and experimenting with both assimilation and Jewish nationalism In rewriting this history via Jacob and Esau the book charts two divergent but intersecting Jewish histories that together represent the plurality of Jewish European cultures Preaching in Judaism and Christianity Alexander Deeg, Walter Homolka, Heinz-Günther Schöttler, 2008 Main description It is a widespread idea that the roots of the Christian sermon can be found in the Jewish Derasha But the story of the interrelation of the two homiletical traditions Jewish and Christian from New Testament times to the present day is still untold This book offers the papers of the first international conference

Bamberg Germany 6th to 8th March 2007 which brought together Jewish and Christian scholars to discuss Jewish and Christian homiletics in their historical development and relationship and to sketch out common homiletical projects
