Voices from the Past Vahe Habeshian, 2014-04-16 In the late 19th century the Armenian nation was ruled by two great empires the Ottoman and the Russian The sultans ruled over the bulk of the Armenians historical homeland while the tsars controlled Armenian lands in the Transcaucasus Often when those empires clashed they did so on territories that the Armenians had called their own for three millennia On the verge of the modern era both empires were in decline and desperate to repel the revolutionary socialist and liberal democratic ideas emanating from Europe and to suppress the national liberation movements of the peoples under their rule The Armenian Revolutionary Federation ARF was founded in those days of sociopolitical ferment in 1890 in Tbilisi Georgia The principal aim of the new organization was the liberation of Armenians under Ottoman rule but its goals soon evolved to include freedom for Armenians under Russian rule as well The biographies and writings of ARF affiliated statesmen intellectuals military commanders revolutionaries and rank and file fighters included in this book reflect the arch of Armenian history from the 1890s to the 1940s They contain not merely points of view but larger ideas ideologies worldviews and hard won life lessons that energized and guided the lives of individual party members the collective outlook of ARF as well as the movement the party engendered That said this compilation is merely a small sampling of the thousands of personalities and their works that could have been included Nevertheless it contains invaluable insights that would benefit those who would involve themselves in the affairs of Armenia and the Diaspora today for the past has much to teach those seeking to build the future

Armenian Organization Z.S. Andrew Demirdjian Ph.D.,2010-10-16 Demirdjian was reprinted and with a much bigger run The book published in 2010 by Xlibris is a blueprint for the future of the Armenian nation The slim volume 185 pages should be pored over by every Armenian committed to a bright future for Armenians The book makes a persuasive case on how to connect the fragmented Armenian Diaspora Dr Demirdjian believes the creation of a pan Armenian organization would be the first concrete step to unite Armenians and subsequently proceed with their campaign for compensation and restitution from Turkey A meta Armenian organization can be a permanent entity looking after the national interests of all Armenians He argues that its time to establish a worldwide meta organization to unite Armenians with the primary goal of campaigning for the return of Western Armenia and Cilicia to Armenian rule To reach that goal Armenians need critical mass The contention that large number are the common denominators of any organized political effort at achieving results has been a truism in the past present and the future is beyond refutation he says It would take an enemy of the Armenians to disagree with the assertion But before demanding land and property Armenian organizations have to coalesce and to rally around a single strategy Dr Demirdjian suggests the coining of a word Araratism which would serve as the name of the ideology of all Armenians working together to regain at least parts of Western Armenia and for enhancing conditions for the Republic of Armenia and Artsakh While we talk about being a nation of 8 million we collectively punch way below our weight because of fragmentation and our rejection of compromise he says A pan Armenian organization would give us the critical mass so that we would be taken seriously in international fora The success of Genocide centennial commemorations demonstrated that when we work together we can make our voices heard above the international media din Its safe to assume that he Pope wouldnt have been familiar with the Armenian Genocide had his Armenian acquaintances in Buenos Aires not familiarized him with the great calamity inflicted upon our nation by Turkey While Dr Demirdjian makes the case for the necessity of a pan Armenian organization the nitty gritty of setting up such an organization is provided by Harut Sassounian the publisher of California Courier In the books last chapter Proposal to Create a Framework for Uniting the Diaspora Armenians Sassounian provides a toolbox for the construct There are a number of organizations which are trying to represent the Western Armenians the National Congress of Western Armenians the National Council of Western Armenians Government in Exile of Western Armenians Most Diaspora Armenians know little or nothing about them primarily because the Diaspora media often controlled by the political parties are reluctant to cover the activities of rivals let alone promote them Its this divisiveness which Dr Demirdjian rightly condemns in his timely book Will our leaders continue to dismiss the concept of a pan Armenian organization or will they unshackle themselves from the business as usual dead end model Will they continue to behave like our divisive and destructive nakharars or embrace the bracing idea When will they realize that the Diaspora could vanish in a few generations if the Diaspora establishment doesnt get its act together History of the Armenians Ghazar P'arpec'i,2021-03 A History of Religious Ideas Volume 1 Mircea Eliade,2014-02-14 Everyone who cares about the
