Novel-Poetry Emily Allen,Dino Franco Felluga,2024-09-05 Novel Poetry examines the verse novel a hybrid genre that emerged in the middle decades of Britain s nineteenth century to make a larger claim about the nature of genre and formal structures for time action and identity that cross genres The volume uncovers trajectories of literary influence that structure our approach to literature and affect how we shape our lives lives which are often constrained by cause and effect and narrative driven ways of approaching time and possibility Novel Poetry tracks an alternative way of thinking about time and event that was inspired by the French Revolution popularized by Lord Byron and explored by experimental Victorian poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning Robert Browning Arthur Hugh Clough and George Meredith The volume turns to the work of philosophers Alain Badiou Jean Pierre Dupuy and Slavoj %Zi%zek to theorize this alternative mode which it aligns with the futur ant rieur The temporality of the future anterior disrupts both the novel s realist chronologies and the expressivist lyric s cult of the moment thus liberating possibilities for collective action Ranging widely across romantic lyric poetry Victorian novels and nineteenth century and contemporary literary theory Novel Poetry asks what alternative structures and temporalities does a focus on either realistic narrative or the lyric moment occlude Are there ways of thinking about lived experience and personal or collective agency that do not conform to traditional models ways that the verse novel might help us to explore What might be gained today from trying to think about ourselves and our world outside of established frameworks that are now so naturalized as to feel almost inescapable This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 licence

Contemporary Visual Culture and the Sublime Temenuga Trifonova,2017-09-22 In the course of its long and tumultuous history the sublime has alternated between spatial and temporal definitions from its conceptualization in terms of the grandeur and infinity of Nature spatial to its postmodern redefinition as an event temporal from its conceptualization in terms of our failure to cognitively map the decentered global network of capital or the rhizomatic structure of the postmetropolis spatial to its neurophenomenological redefinition in terms of the new temporality of presence produced by network real time temporal This volume explores the place of the sublime in contemporary culture and the aesthetic cultural and political values coded in it It offers a map of the contemporary sublime in terms of the limits cinematic cognitive neurophysiological technological or environmental of representation

The Absent God in the Works of William Wordsworth Eliza Borkowska,2020-11-29 Called by one of its reviewers Wordsworth s biographia literaria this book takes its reader on a fascinating journey into the mind of the poet whose attitude to God and religion points to a major shift in Western culture The monograph probes the philosophical foundations of Wordsworth s religious outlook drawing attention to this First Generation Romantic poet as the author who happened to record in his verse the rise to prominence of some of the intellectual and spiritual challenges and the most troublesome uncertainties that have defined Western man ever since The book constitutes a self contained whole and can be read independently Simultaneously it creates an unusual duet with the companion volume The Presence of God in the Works of William Wordsworth These two works can be regarded as contraries or negatives one offering an ironically positive reading of Wordsworth s religious discourse the other offering a reading which is positively negative

The Environment and Literature of Moral Dilemmas David Aberbach,2021-08-18 Exploring the literature of environmental moral dilemmas from the Hebrew Bible to modern times this book argues the necessity of cross disciplinary approaches to environmental studies as a subject affecting everyone in every aspect of life Moral dilemmas are central in the literary genre of protest against the effects of industry particularly in Romantic literature and Condition of England novels Writers from the time of the Industrial Revolution to the present including William Blake Elizabeth Gaskell Charles Dickens mile Zola Henrik Ibsen Anton Chekhov T S Eliot John Steinbeck George Orwell and J M Coetzee follow the Bible in seeing environmental problems in moral terms as a consequence of human agency The issues raised by these and other writers including damage to the environment and its effects on health and quality of life particularly on the poor economic conflicts of interest water and air pollution deforestation and the environmental effects of war are fundamentally the same today making their works a continual source of interest and insight Sketching a brief literary history on the impact of human behavior on the environment this volume will be of interest to readers researching environmental studies literary studies religious studies and international development as well as a useful resource to scientists and readers of the Arts

The Mysteries of Paris and London Richard Maxwell, 1992 In this ambitious and exciting work Richard Maxwell uses nineteenth century urban fiction particularly the novels of Victor Hugo and Charles Dickens to define a genre the novel of urban mysteries His title comes from the mystery mania that captured both sides of the channel with the runaway success of Eugene Sue's Les mystères de Paris and G W M Reynolds' Mysteries of London Richard Maxwell argues that within these extravagant but fact obsessed narratives the archaic form of allegory became a means for understanding modern cities The city dwellers drive to interpret linked the great metropolises with the discourses of literature and art the primary vehicles of allegory Dominant among allegorical figures were labyrinths panoramas crowds and paperwork and it was thought that to understand a figure was to understand the city with which it was linked Novelists such as Hugo and Dickens had a special flair for using such figures to clarify the nature of the city Maxwell draws from an array of disciplines ideas and contexts His approach to the nature and evolution of the mysteries genre includes examinations of allegorical theory journalistic practice the conventions of scientific inquiry popular psychiatry illustration and modernized wonder tales such as Victorian adaptations of the Arabian Nights In The Mysteries of Paris and London Maxwell employs a sweeping vision of the nineteenth century and a formidable grasp of both popular culture and high culture to decode the popular mysteries of the era and to reveal man's evolving consciousness of the city His style is elegant and lucid It is a book for anyone curious about the fortunes of the novel in the nineteenth century the cultural history of that period particularly in France and England the relations between art and literature or the power of the written word to produce and present social knowledge

Why We Don't Talk To Each Other Anymore John Locke, 1999-08-31 The cyber age is robbing people of the most important aspect of communication face to face encounters and heart to heart conversations Now a professor of human communication sciences shows where community has disappeared to and why it matters

The Garden Retreat in Asia and Europe Yue

Zhuang,Alasdair Forbes,Michael Charlesworth,2025-01-23 The Garden Retreat in Asia and Europe explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency In the current times of war pandemic climate change and global anxiety the value of the garden as a sanctuary a space where we can find refuge in a natural environment has taken on new and poignant meanings and has attracted increasing academic interest

Multidisciplinary and multicultural in scope this book explores the meaning of gardens and designed landscapes as places of retreat and refuge in times of need or emergency Examining perspectives from scholars including art historians architects philosophers landscape architects and garden practitioners it reassess the restorative impact of the garden whether understood from an individual cultural or environmental point of view Ranging widely across Asia and Europe its chapters examine ideas narratives and practices from the 4th century Chinese poet Tao Yuanming to the 12th century Iranian polymath Omar Khayyam through to the late 20th century British artist and film maker Derek Jarman Drawing upon traditional Asian philosophies like Buddhism Daoism and Sufism and combining these with more recent western philosophies the aim is to question how the unique virtues of gardens and designed landscapes can help to poise educate and possibly transform attitudes and behaviours in a time of personal environmental or cultural crisis At once poetic scholarly and rigorous this book provides insightful reading for students and researchers in landscape architecture garden history architectural history art history and cultural history

The Sibling Society Robert Bly,1997-05-27 Where have all the grownups gone In answering that question with the same freewheeling erudition and intuitive brilliance that made Iron John a national bestseller poet storyteller and translator Robert Bly tells us that we live in a sibling society in which adults have regressed into adolescence and adolescents refuse to grow up

With Poetry and Philosophy David Miller,2008-12-18

Taking its point of initiation from the long standing dialogue between poetry and philosophy concerning their respective claims to contrasting orders of insight this book tackles issues relating to the differing conditions of knowledge and insights relating to language and thought imparted by modern poets and philosophers from Kant and Wordsworth to Adorno and Hardy The book draws on recent debates in literary theory and philosophy in order to outline a new dialogic approach for conducting comparative criticism and literary history The poets and the philosophers appear under configurations of reading that produce considerations that are unexpected yet strangely fitting

Translation and the Classic Alexandra

Lianeri,Vanda Zajko,2008-08-21 Contemporary translation studies have explored translation not as a means of recovering a source text but as a process of interpretation and production of literary meaning and value Translation and the Classic uses this idea to discuss the relationship between translation and the classic text It proposes a framework in which the classic figures less as an autonomous entity than as the result of the interplay between source text and translation practice and examines the consequences of this hypothesis for questioning established definitions of the classic how does translation mediate the social political and national uses of the classics in the contemporary global context of changing canons and traditions The volume contains a total of eighteen original essays plus an introduction written by scholars working in classics and classical reception translation studies literary theory comparative literature theatre and performance studies history and philosophy and makes a potent contribution to pressing debates in all of these areas

Forms of Feeling Robert F.

Hobson,2013-08-21 First published in 1985 This book is aimed at readers who wish to learn how to engage in psychotherapy for beginners for experienced practitioners for disciplined research workers as for the author the word psychotherapy has a very broad meaning The author describes this as an autobiography the development of ideas attitudes and meanings which have arisen and been transformed through joy sorrow chaos and relative tranquillity in a journey of forty years through the world of academic psychiatry of analytical psychotherapy of scientific research and of life in a therapeutic community To a large extent this book is an expression of individual experience
