The Presence Of The Past In A Spanish Village Santa Maria Del Monte:

The Presence of the Past in a Spanish Village Ruth Behar, 2014-07-14 This study of a northern Spanish community shows how the residents of Santa Maria del Monte have acted together at critical times to ensure the survival of their traditional forms of social organization The survival of these forms has allowed the villagers in turn to weather demographic political and economic crises over the centuries Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Santa María Del Monte Ruth Behar, 1986 The description for this book Santa Maria del Monte The Presence of the Past in a Spanish Village will be forthcoming International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Anthropological Conversations Caroline B. Brettell, 2014-10-23 Cultural anthropologists can be an intellectually adventurous crowd open even eager to building bridges across disciplines in the name of understanding human behavior and the human experience more broadly In this first of its kind book Caroline Brettell explores the cross disciplinary conversations that have engaged cultural anthropologists both past and present Brettell highlights a handful of conversations between the discipline of anthropology on the one hand and history geography literature biology psychology and demography on the other She also pinpoints how these exchanges address three enduring issues of anthropological concern the temporal and the spatial dimensions of human experience the scientific and the humanistic dimensions of the anthropological enterprise and the individual and the group population as units of analysis in research Anthropological Conversations offers detailed accounts of particular ethnographic methodologies and findings and the theoretical trends informing them as a means of grasping the big picture issues Brettell clearly shows that by engaging with other fields cultural anthropologists have been able to think more deeply about what they mean by culture through this book she invites readers to continue the conversation

Performance, Culture, and Identity Elizabeth C. Fine, Jean Haskell, 1992-10-20 This volume is based on the premise that artistic performance is epistemological a way of knowing self culture and other The nine essays in this book based on a broad range of ethnic racial and gender groups share a common interest in exploring how performance reveals shapes and sometimes transforms personal and cultural identity Editors Fine and Speer begin by examining the interdisciplinary roots of performance studies and the role of performance studies in the field of communication They also discuss the power of performance to shape personal and cultural identity The first two chapters explore the ritual nature of performance in two different cultural contexts an African American church service and an Appalachian storytelling event of the legendary Ray Hicks In both arenas the performers act as shamans transporting the audience from their everyday secular lives to the higher ground of the mythic spheres of heroic and fantastic events The next three chapters discuss the notion of place and performance in various landscapes the English countryside the Blue Ridge Mountains and the farmland of the Midwest Through analysis of the speech and songs of a modern Sussex yeoman the ghost tales of Appalachian storytellers and the narratives of Midwest farmers coping with hard times the authors reveal a variety of ways in which narrative performances function to preserve people's relationship with the land The last four chapters share a focus on women as storytellers One chapter offers a feminist critique of personal narrative research and challenges normative assumptions about the storytelling behavior of women Another chapter interprets a narration of a Galician woman's typical day to reveal how the performance expresses deeply held attitudes and beliefs of her cultural community Words are not the only medium that women use to tell their stories The next chapter examines the story cloths of Hmong women refugees from Laos as intercultural and dialogical performances The last chapter explores self discovery and identity in the storytelling of a woman in the last years of her life This volume is particularly representative of the ways in which communication scholars approach performance studies but will also interest researchers and students of folklore anthropology sociology theatre and related disciplines

Social and Ecological History of the Pyrenees Ismael Vaccaro, Oriol Beltran, 2016-06-03 This major work of historical ecology advances the integration of research on environmental and social systems contributing important lessons for contemporary natural resource policy and management A diverse international region the Pyrenees has been characterized as a quintessential example of rural areas across Europe and North America The authors use qualitative and quantitative methods from economics history anthropology and ecological science to integrate human agency and ecology across a landscape that moved from agricultural and pastoral production to industrialization then experienced acute depopulation and now is becoming a focus of conservation and tourism The book shows how today's most pressing resource policy challenges are best illuminated by this broad long term understanding of humans and landscapes

Rationality and the Ideology of Disconnection Michael Taylor, 2006-07-24 A powerful and provocative critique of the foundations of Rational Choice theory and the economic way of thinking about the world written by a former leading practitioner The target is a dehumanizing ideology that cannot properly recognize that normal people have attachments and commitments to other people and to practices projects principles and places which provide them with desire independent reasons for action and that they are reflective creatures who think about what they are and what they should be with ideals that can shape and structure the way they see their choices The author s views are brought to bear on the economic way of thinking about the natural environment and on how and when the norm of fair reciprocity motivates us to do our part in cooperative endeavors Throughout the argument is adorned by thought provoking examples that keep what is at stake clearly before the reader s mind Spanish Agriculture James Simpson,2003-11-13 A detailed analysis of Spanish agricultural history first published in 1996 explaining why it changed so slowly Engaging the Past Eric H. Monkkonen,1994 Vigorous historical exploration has increased across the social sciences in the past two decades Originally published as a series of articles in the journal Social Science History the essays in this volume provide a guide to historical social science by surveying the use of historical data and methodologies in anthropology sociology political science economics and geography Each essay in Engaging the Past pays close attention to the unique problems and methods associated with its particular social scientific discipline By exploring questions raised by both contemporary and more established works within each field the authors show that some of the best and most innovative research in each of the social sciences includes a strong historical component Thus as Eric H Monkkonen s introduction shows these essays taken together make it clear that historical research provides a significant key to many of the major issues in the social sciences Intended for the growing community of both social scientists and historians interested in reading or researching historically informed social science Engaging the Past suggests future directions that might be taken by this work Above all by providing a set of user s guides written by respected social scientists it encourages future boundary crossings between history and each of the social sciences Contributors Andrew Abbott Richard Dennis Susan Kellog Eric H Monkkonen David Brian Robertson Hugh Rockoff Spanish Society, 1400-1600 Teofilo F Ruiz,2014-09-11 Spanish Society depicts a complex and fascinating country in transition from the late Middle Ages to modernity It describes every part of society from the gluttonous nobility to their starving peasants Through anecdotes a lively style and portraits of figures such as St Teresa of Avila and Torquemada the book reflects the character and humour with which the common Spaniard endured an often wretched lot Beginning with a description of the geography political life and culture of Spain from 1400 to 1600 the unfolding narrative charts the country s shifts from one age to the next It unveils patterns of everyday life from the court to the brothel from the haves of the aristocracy and clergy to the have nots of the peasantry and the urban poor Historical records illuminate details of Spanish society such as the transition from medieval festivities to the highly scripted spectacles of the early modern period the reasons for violence and popular resistance and the patterns of daily living eating dressing religious beliefs and concepts of honour and sexuality This compelling account includes historical examples and literary extracts which allow the reader direct access to the period From the street theatre of village carnivals to the oppressive Spanish Inquisition it gives an abiding sense of Spain in the making and renders vivid the colours of a passionate history

Biographical Dictionary of Anthropologists William Stewart,2024-11-05 This biographical dictionary provides information on 322 men and women who have made or are making significant contributions in the field of anthropology A short biography highlights each person s professional and private background and detailed analysis of the theories or approaches that each contributed to his or her individual field and a guide to their major published works are provided A chronological appendix lists each person s date of birth full name and primary field of study guiding readers to entries covering 1681 to 2006 An extensive glossary explains technical terms used throughout the work Memories Cast in Stone David E. Sutton,2020-06-03 How does the past matter in the present How is a feeling of ownership of the past expressed in people s everyday lives Should continuity with the distant past be seen as simply a nationalist fiction or is it transformed by local historical imagination While recent anthropological studies have focused on reconstructing disputed histories this book examines the multiple ways in which the past is used by people as a critical resource for interpreting the meanings of a changing present It poses the issue of the felt relevance of the past in constructing present day identities The Greek island of Kalymnos is a barren and seemingly bucolic setting of tourist imagination But its history has been one of almost continuous occupation by foreign powers and of often fierce resistance This has made Kalymnians particularly sensitive to seeing their island in a much wider context and to understanding the games played by the powerful In examining changing gender relations European integration and local perceptions of the war in the former Yugoslavia this book brings together local national and international perspectives in a unified field Controversial contemporary practices of dynamite throwing and dowry giving serve as tropes through which Kalymnians explore alternative ways of living in a changing world Further the author argues persuasively for the crucial importance of situated fieldwork in peripheral places in understanding the issues and conflicts of a transnational world This book serves as an highly readable case study of the complex connections between local and global discourses and practices and how they are shaped by their relationship to the past

Making History Peter Lambert,Phillipp Schofield,2004-08-02 Making History offers a fresh perspective on the study of the past It is an exhaustive exploration of the practice of history historical traditions and the theories that surround them Discussing the development and growth of history as a discipline and of the profession of the historian the book encompasses a huge diversity of influences organized around the following themes the professionalization of the discipline the most significant movements in historical scholarship in the last century including the Annales School the increasing interdisciplinary trends in scholarship theory in historical practice including Marxism post modernism and gender history historical practice outside the academy The volume offers a coherent set of chapters to support undergraduates postgraduates and others interested in the historical processes that have shaped the discipline of history

Education and Identity in Rural France Deborah

Reed-Danahay,1996 Drawing on an ethnographic study of a remote farming community in the Auvergne Dr Reed Danahay challenges conventional views about the operation of the French school system She demonstrates how parents and children subvert and resist the ideological messages of the teachers and describes the ways in which a sense of local difference is sustained and valued through a complex interplay of schooling and family life This book explores the role played by history identity and power in local responses to a national institution A significant contribution to the anthropology of education this book offers fresh insights into the ways in which French culture is transmitted to the coming generation Dr Reed Danahay also provides lucid and critical discussions of sociological theories on education including those of Bourdieu The Family in Italy from Antiquity to the Present David I. Kertzer,Richard P. Saller,1991-01-01 Provides historical and anthropological perspectives on the Western family focusing on family life in Italy from the Roman Empire to the present Topics covered include marriage divorce matchmaking inheritance sexual mores celibacy adoption and property rights

The Politics of Memory Joanne Rappaport,1990-06-29 Reconsidering the predominantly mythic status of non Western historical narrative Rappaport identifies the political realities that influenced the form and content of Andean history revealing the distinct historical vision of these stories Because of her examination of the influences of literacy in the creation of history Rappaport s analysis makes a special contribution to Latin American and Andean studies solidly grounding subaltern texts in their sociopolitical contexts Amazon Iberian Worlds Gary W. McDonogh,2009 A vivid reading of globalization through centuries of Iberian peoples places and encounters Changes in the Heart of Europe Timothy

McCajor Hall,Rosie Read,2012-02-13 From WW II until the Velvet Revolution few outside anthropologists had access to Czechoslovakia while only a handful of Czech and Slovak ethnologists published in Western journals In recent years anthropological interest in Slovakia and the Czech Republic has increased substantially This volume brings together a broad sample of recent cutting edge ethnographic studies by Czech and Slovak ethnographers as well as American and western European anthropologists Contents Raymond June on measuring corruption in Czech society David Karjanen on structural violence and economic change in Slovakia Karen Kapusta Pofahl Hana Ha kov and Marta Kol ov on women s civic organizing Rebecca Nash on Czech feelings about social support and welfare reform Denise Kozikowski on women s experience of breast cancer V ra Sokolov on population policy and the sterilization of Romani women in Czechoslovakia 1972 1989 James Quin on pornography and the commodification of queer bodies in Slovakia Ben Hill Passmore on working women in a Moravian factory Krista Hegburg on Roma social workers Zden k Uherek and Kate ina Plochov on ethnic Czechs in Bosnia and Herzegovina Leo atava on ethnic identity and language among Sorbian youth Haldis Haukanes on history and autobiography in a Czech village Davide Torsello on memory geography and local history in southern Slovakia Peter Skaln k reviews Czech and Slovak community re studies in a European context Afterword by Zden k Salzmann Little Havana Blues Delia Poey,Virgil Suarez,1996-01-01 Little Havana Blues is a medley of voices narrators essayists and poets that have come to forge a literary identity within the United States since their parents left Cuba to go into exile. However, this first comprehensive anthology of Cuban American literature is not a symphony of the exile or immigrant generation and its letters. Instead, these writers are staking their claim on part of the American mosaic with Pulitzer Prizes and other awards in hand. But in their Americanization, they are not rejecting their heritage or their Hispanic culture; rather, they are Cubanizing, tropicalizing, and expanding the realm of American culture and letters. Their vision is inclusive; their sources go deep into Anglo and Hispano European tradition and as deeply into Afro Caribbean and mestizo culture, not to mention their love affair with popular culture and its icons. Included in Little Havana Blues are writers both established and burgeoning onto the literary scene: Pulitzer Prize winner Oscar Hijuelos, Rafael Compo, Gustavo Pérez Firmat, Margarita Engle, Roberto Fernández, Dolores Prida, José Yglesias, and many others. Accompanying the selections are an introduction and bibliography by the editors.
