Abraham Lincoln in the Kitchen is a culinary biography unlike any before The very assertion of the title that Abraham Lincoln cooked is fascinating and true It's an insight into the everyday life of one of our nation's favorite and most esteemed presidents and a way to experience flavors and textures of the past Eighmey solves riddles such as what type of barbecue could be served to thousands at political rallies when paper plates and napkins didn't exist and what gingerbread recipe could have been Lincoln's childhood favorite when few families owned cookie cutters and he could carry the cookies in his pocket Through Eighmey's eyes and culinary research and experiments including sleuthing for Lincoln's grocery bills in Springfield ledgers and turning a backyard grill into a cast iron stove the foods that Lincoln enjoyed cooked or served are translated into modern recipes so that authentic meals and foods of 1820-1865 are possible for home cooks Feel free to pull up a chair to Lincoln's table A Woman of Adventure Annette Dunlap, 2022-06 When Lou Henry married Herbert Hoover in February 1899 she looked forward to a partnership of equality and a life of adventure She could fire a rifle and sit a horse as well as any man The Quaker community of Whittier California where she lived as a teen reinforced the egalitarian spirit of her upbringing But history had other ideas for Lou Henry Hoover For the first fifteen years of married life Lou globe trotted with her husband as he pursued a lucrative career in mining engineering and consulting World War I not only changed the map of the world it changed the map of the Hoovers marriage Herbert Hoover's Commission for the Relief of Belgium launched him into a political career that led to the White House Lou who detested the limelight led a dual life she supported her husband's political career managed their multiple households and saw to the needs of their family Behind the scenes she
