The Politics Of Poetic Form Poetry And Public Policy:

The Politics of Poetic Form Charles Bernstein,1990 The Politics of Poetic Form Poetry and Public Policy is a series of essays from a discussion that occurred at the New School for Social Research in New York The discussion mines the relationship between poetic composition and political expression Poetry s relationship to public policy typically has a questionable margin of relation Not only does this volume posit that poetry is a dynamic medium for the consideration of political ideas it focuses on the ideological weight specific formal innovations bring to poetry Some of the contributors include Bruce Andrews Charles Bernstein Tina Darragh Alan Davies Carla Harryman Lyn Hejinian Susan Howe P Inman Jackson Mac Low Nathaniel Mackey Bob Perelman Kit Robinson Jerome Rothenberg Ron Silliman James Sherry and Diane Ward Poetics of Politics Sebastian M. Herrmann,Carolyn Alice Hofmann,Katja Kanzler,Stefan Schubert,Frank Usbeck,2015-04-22 This volume proposes the poetics of politics as an analytic angle to interrogate contemporary cultural production in the United States As recent scholarship has observed American literature and culture around the turn of the millennium while still deeply informed by the textual self consciousness of postmodernism are marked by a rekindled interest in matters of social concern This revived interest in politics is frequently read as a grand epochal transition Sidestepping such a logic of periodization this book points to the interplay between the textual and the political as a dynamic always locally specific that affords unique insights into the characteristics of the contemporary moment The sixteen case studies in this book explore this interplay across a wide range of media genres and modes Together they make visible a broad cultural concern with negotiating social relevance and textual self awareness that permeates and structures contemporary US popular culture Jayne Cortez, Adrienne Rich, and the Feminist Superhero Laura Hinton,2016-03-25 One a lyric confessional poet and essayist the other a jazz spoken word performance artist Adrienne Rich and Jayne Cortez were American feminist superheroes who produced extensive bodies of poetic work that reveal strangely overlapping visions but in radically different voices and poetic styles This book reconsiders the poetry activism of Cortez and Rich side by side engaging poetics theory cultural studies and popular media in its literary analyses A collection of eight integrated chapters by multiple poetry critics as well as an artist statement narrative by Wonder Woman sculptor Linda Stein the book focuses upon the voice of bravado the various calls for global justice and Third Wave feminist intersectional critiques all embodied within these two women s poetic texts The book also examines the twentieth century figure of the American superhero particularly Wonder Woman bringing popular culture studies into conversation with literary criticism as well as visual art through the inclusion of Stein s commentary and illustrations This beautiful and compelling book experiments with the festschrift concept by inviting multiple and competing disciplinary views on U S feminist poetics women s art and aesthetics racial and sexual identities as well as politics and performance all in tribute to the power of poetry by Cortez and Rich Blake, Nationalism, and the Politics of Alienation Julia M. Wright,2004 Despite his reputation as a staunch individualist and repeated attacks on institutions that constrain the individual's imagination Julia Wright argues that William Blake rarely represents isolation positively and explores his concern with the kind of national community being established A Nomad Poetics Pierre Joris, 2003-11-05 In his first collection of critical essays Joris maps the success and limitations of contemporary avant garde poetics This investigation leads him to envision a nomadic poetics as a strategy for new poetic work for translation and fundamentally for an ethics of early 21st century life Metamorphoses of Travel Writing Grzegorz Moroz, 2010-02-19 This book reflects comments on and adds to a fast growing field of travel writing studies The twenty five papers in this volume rely on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches and explore a diverse body of travel writing texts created over the last three hundred years in English Polish Hungarian and French The book is divided into three parts The first one includes papers which apply the findings of post structuralism generic and cultural criticism as well as narratology to explore theories canons and genres in travel writing drawing material not only from non fictional and fictional prose narratives but also from poetry and tragedy The second and third parts contain papers on a wide selection of travel writing texts both fictional and non fictional written in Anglophone as well as other literary traditions They are arranged chronologically the second part is devoted to texts written in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries while the third part focuses on those written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Violence and Mediation in Contemporary Culture Ronald Bogue, Marcel Cornis-Pope, 1995-11-30 Two major issues in contemporary culture are explored in this book the problem of violence in relation to the much debated notions of difference representation and power and the corresponding question of the role of mediation in providing communal space for a nonconflictive play of cultural differences Focusing on topics as diverse as the semiotics of windows TV screens gender relations in contemporary film the image of Mormons in popular literature and the dynamics of representation in the fiction of Kafka Lu Xun Conrad Aiken Toni Morrison and Ronald Sukenick this book examines the dynamics of violence and mediation from a number of perspectives literary philosophical anthropological psychological and sociological Contributors discuss the legitimation and regulation of violence within the social institutions of law the systemic violence of commodity exchange within late capitalist societies the compensatory mechanisms of sacrificial victimage that mediate social disequilibrium and the function of representation itself as contemporary culture's prevailing mode of mediating violence A number of essays envision forms of mediation based on alternatives to an agonistic cultural ethos suggesting however that mediation has its conceptual and pragmatic limitations serving all too often as a way of conducting violence by other means Contributors include Elisabeth Bronfen Stanley Corngold Susan Derwin Terryl Givens Jerry Herron Albert Liu Tonglin Lu and Mihai Spărișu Opposing Poetics: Readings Hank Lazer, 1996 Explains to structural engineers some of the basic equations for analyzing and designing buildings that were devised at the end of the 19th century but were so unmanageably complex to solve that they were displaced by approximation techniques until the recent advent of electronic computer Heyman engineering U of Cambridge warns that some of the equations turn out not to fit reality as close as future occupants of buildings might prefer and explains how to use them and in what context Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Leaving Lines of Gender Ann Vickery,2000 The most significant contribution to the literary history of Language writing to date Memories of Our Future Ammiel Alcalay,1999-12 This text features essays from Ammiel Alcalay covering Mediterranean culture Arabic literature the war in Bosnia the Israeli Palestinian conflict the destruction of Carthage and much more Introduction to Scholarship in Modern Languages and Literatures David G. Nicholls,2015-01-01 The third edition of the MLA s widely used Introduction to Scholarship in Modern Languages and Literatures features sixteen new essays by leading scholars Designed to highlight relations among languages and forms of discourse the volume is organized into three sections Understanding Language provides an overview of the field of linguistics with special attention to language acquisition and the social life of languages Forming Texts offers tools for understanding how speakers and writers shape language it examines scholarship in the distinct but interrelated fields of rhetoric composition and poetics Reading Literature and Culture continues the work of the first two sections by introducing major areas of critical study The nine essays in this section cover textual and historical scholarship interpretation comparative cultural and translation studies and the interdisciplinary topics of gender sexuality race and migrations among others As in previous volumes an epilogue examines the role of the scholar in contemporary society Each essay discusses the significance underlying assumptions and limits of an important field of inquiry traces the historical development of its subject introduces key terms outlines modes of research now being pursued postulates future developments and provides a list of suggestions for further reading This book will interest any member of the academic community seeking a review of recent scholarship while it provides an indispensable resource for undergraduate and graduate students of modern languages and literatures Disjunctive Poetics Peter Quartermain,1992-06-26 Disjunctive Poetics examines some of the experimental contemporary writers including Stein and Zukofsky whose work forms a counterpoint to the mainstream writing of our time Peter Quartermain suggests that the explosion of such modern writing is linked to the severe political social and economic dislocation of non English speaking immigrants who arriving in America at the turn of the century found themselves uprooted from their tradition and disassociated from their culture A Guide to Poetics Journal Lyn Hejinian,Barrett Watten,2013-10-21 Lyn Hejinian and Barrett Watten are internationally recognized poet critics Together they edited the highly influential Poetics Journal whose ten issues published between 1982 and 1998 contributed to the surge of interest in the practice of poetics A Guide to Poetics Journal presents the major conversations and debates from the journal and invites readers to expand on the critical and creative engagements they represent In making their selections for the guide the editors have sought to showcase a range of innovative poetics and to indicate the diversity of fields and activities with which they might be engaged The introduction and headnotes by the editors provide historical and thematic context for the articles The Guide is intended to be of sustained creative and classroom use while the companion Archive of all ten issues of Poetics Journal allows users to remix remaster and extend its practices and debates See <http://www.upne.com/0819571236.html> for more information on the digital archive

Language and the Renewal of Society in Walt Whitman, Laura (Riding) Jackson, and Charles Olson C.

Billitteri, 2009-04-13 This book takes up the utopian desire for a perfect language of words that give direct expression to the real known in Western thought as Cratylistism and its impact on the social visions and poetic projects of three of the most intellectually ambitious of American writers Walt Whitman Laura Riding Jackson and Charles Olson Longer Views

Samuel R. Delany, 2016-03-15 Six essays from the critic and award winning author exploring topics such as theater LGBTQ scholarship cyborgs metaphors and Star Wars Reading is a many layered process like writing observes Samuel R Delany a Nebula and Hugo Award winning author and a major commentator on American literature and culture In this collection of six extended essays Delany challenges what he calls the hard edged boundaries of meaning by going beyond the customary limits of the genre in which he is writing By radically reworking the essay form Delany can explore and express the many layers of his thinking about the nature of art the workings of language and the injustices and ironies of social political and sexual marginalization Thus Delany connects in sometimes unexpected ways topics as diverse as the origins of modern theater the context of lesbian and gay scholarship the theories of cyborgs how metaphors mean and the narrative structures in the Star Wars trilogy Over the course of his career Kenneth James writes in his extensive introduction Delany has again and again thrown into question the world models that all too many of us unknowingly live by Indeed Delany challenges an impressive list of world models here including High and Low Art sanity and madness mathematical logic and the mechanics of mythmaking the distribution of wealth in our society and the limitations of our sexual vocabulary Also included are two essays that illustrate Delany's unique chrestomathic technique the grouping of textual fragments whose associative interrelationships a reader must actively trace to read them as a resonant argument Whether writing about Wagner or Hart Crane Foucault or Robert Mapplethorpe Delany combines a fierce and often piercing vision with a powerful honesty that beckons us to share in the perspective of these Longer Views An intellectually adventurous book Every page of every essay here rewards a second reading and a third Delany has a fearsomely stocked intellect and a wider range of experience than most writers can even imagine He is brilliant driven prolific The Nation One of science fiction's grand masters Delany's elegant command of language and deep insight into other authors works are delightful to behold Booklist Rare personal frankness and stunning erudition Recommended for readers who enjoy the challenge of being led into remote regions of a gifted mind Library Journal Literary Gestures Rocio G Davis, Sue-Im Lee, 2009-08-31 Form as function in Asian American literature Dissonance (if you are interested) Rosmarie Waldrop, 2005-08-21 Incisive essays on modern poetry and translation by a noted poet translator and critic As an immigrant to the United States from Germany Rosmarie Waldrop has wrestled with the problems of language posed by the discrepancies between her native and adopted tongues and the problems of translating from one to the other Those discrepancies and disjunctions instead of posing problems to be overcome have become for Waldrop a generative force and the very foundation of her interests as a critic and poet In this comprehensive collection of her essays Waldrop addresses considerations central to her life s work typical genres and ways of countering the conventions of genre how concrete poets have made syntax spatial rather than grammatical and the move away from metaphor in poetry toward contiguity and metonymy Three essays on translation struggle with the sources and targets of translation of the degree of strangeness or foreignness a translator should allow into any English translation Finally other essays examine the two way traffic between reading and writing and Waldrop s notion of reading as experience

Intervening in Northern Ireland Marysia Zalewski, John Barry, 2014-02-04 The articles in this special issue drawn from a workshop hosted by the Institute of Governance Queen s University Belfast explicitly engage with and challenge conventional academic analyses in order to confront the ways in which the conflict on Northern Ireland has traditionally been represented and understood Part of the reason for adopting this approach is because it is suggested that to a certain extent academic analyses have defined the parameters of the conflict which has necessarily had implications for the shape of ensuing solutions A further claim is that the persistent historical and political search for causes and solutions may be constitutive of the problems that conventional analysts seek to resolve The articles in the first part introduce and problematize traditional analyses of the conflict Additionally these essays explain alternative approaches offering other ways of thinking about how the problem of Northern Ireland has been constituted The second part comprises empirically focused essays each either engaging with or confronting the issue of the liberal hegemony that defines most analyses of the conflict The final essay returns to more explicitly re consider how the problem of Northern Ireland has been theorized represented and understood This book was previously published as a special issue of Critical Review of International Social and Political Philosophy

The Cambridge Companion to The Essay Kara Wittman, Evan Kindley, 2022-11-03 The Cambridge Companion to the Essay considers the history theory and aesthetics of the essay from the moment it s named in the late sixteenth century to the present What is an essay What can the essay do or think or reveal or know that other literary forms cannot What makes a piece of writing essayistic How can essays bring about change Over the course of seventeen chapters by a diverse group of scholars The Companion reads the essay in relation to poetry fiction natural science philosophy critical theory postcolonial and decolonial thinking studies in race and gender queer theory and the history of literary criticism This book studies the essay in its written photographic cinematic and digital forms with a special emphasis on how the essay is being reshaped and reimagined in the twenty first century making it a crucial resource for scholars students and essayists
