The Popular West American Illustrators 1900-1942:

Collected Works, 1900-1942, Incomplete William Emerson Ritter, 1900      Panorama, 1900-1942 Harold Herd, 1942

Santa Fe Art Colony, 1900-1942 Sharyn Rohlfen Udall, 1987      Women Artists of the American West Susan R.

Ressler, 2003 Profiles more than 150 women artists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the American West offers fifteen interpretive essays and includes nearly three hundred reproductions of their works      Branding the American

West Marian Wardle, Sarah E. Boehme, 2016-02-17 Artists and filmmakers in the early twentieth century reshaped our vision of the American West In particular the Taos Society of Artists and the California based artist Maynard Dixon departed from the legendary depiction of the Wild West and fostered new images or brands for western art This volume illustrated with more than 150 images examines select paintings and films to demonstrate how these artists both enhanced and contradicted earlier representations of the West Prior to this period American art tended to portray the West as a wild frontier with untamed lands and peoples Renowned artists such as Henry Farny and Frederic Remington set their work in the past invoking an environment immersed in conflict and violence This trademark perspective began to change however when artists enamored with the Southwest stamped a new imprint on their paintings The contributors to this volume illuminate the complex ways in which early twentieth century artists as well as filmmakers evoked a southwestern environment not just suspended in time but also permanent rather than transient Yet as the authors also reveal these artists were not entirely immune to the siren call of the vanishing West and their portrayal of peaceful yet exotic Native Americans was an expansion rather than a dismissal of earlier tropes Both brands cast a romantic spell on the West and both have been seared into public consciousness Branding the American West is published in association with the Brigham Young University Museum of Art Provo Utah and the Stark Museum of Art Orange Texas      Re-imagining the Modern American West Richard W.

Etulain, 1996-09-01 From the Mississippi west to the Pacific from border to border north and south here is the first thorough overview of novelists historians and artists of the modern American West Examining a full century of cultural intellectual forces at work a leading authority on the twentieth century West brings his formidable talents to bear in this pioneering study Richard W Etulain divides his book into three major sections He begins with the period from the 1890s to the 1920s when artists and authors were inventing an idealized frontier especially one depicting initial contacts and conflicts with new landscapes and new peoples The second section covers the regionalists who focused on regional mostly geographical characteristics that shaped distinctively western traits of character and institutions The book concludes with a discussion of the postregional West from World War II to the 90s a period when novelists historians and artists stressed ethnicity gender and a new environmentalism as powerful forces in the formation of modern western society and culture Etulain casts a wide net in his new study He discusses novelists from Jack London to John Steinbeck and on to Joan Didion He covers historians from Frederick Jackson Turner to Earl Pomeroy and Patricia Nelson Limerick and artists from Frederic Remington and

Charles Russell to Georgia O Keeffe and R C Gorman The author places emphasis on women painters and authors such as Mary Hallock Foote Mary Austin Willa Cather and Judith Baca He also stresses important works of ethnic writers including Leslie Marmon Silko Rudolfo Anaya and Amy Tan An intriguing survey of tendencies and trends and a well defined profile of influences and outgrowths this book will be valuable to students and scholars of western culture and history American studies and related disciplines General readers will appreciate the book s balanced structure and spirited writing style All readers whatever their level of interest will discover the major cultural inventions of the American West over the past one hundred years     HGAF Western Art Dallas Auction Catalog #652 ,     American Studies Jack Salzman,1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00     How It Feels to Be Free Ruth Feldstein,2013-11-26 How It Feels to Be Free examines the role of black female entertainers in the Civil Rights movement     Do What You Gotta Do Ruth Feldstein,2013 Do What You Gotta Do examines the role of black female entertainers in the Civil Rights movement     Aaron Copland and His World Carol J. Oja,Judith Tick,2018-06-05 Aaron Copland and His World reassesses the legacy of one of America s best loved composers at a pivotal moment as his life and work shift from the realm of personal memory to that of history This collection of seventeen essays by distinguished scholars of American music explores the stages of cultural change on which Copland s long life 1900 to 1990 unfolded from the modernist experiments of the 1920s through the progressive populism of the Great Depression and the urgencies of World War II to postwar political backlash and the rise of serialism in the 1950s and the cultural turbulence of the 1960s Continually responding to an ever changing political and cultural panorama Copland kept a firm focus on both his private muse and the public he served No self absorbed recluse he was very much a public figure who devoted his career to building support systems to help composers function productively in America This book critiques Copland s work in these shifting contexts The topics include Copland s role in shaping an American school of modern dance his relationship with Leonard Bernstein his homosexuality especially as influenced by the writings of Andr Gide and explorations of cultural nationalism Copland s rich correspondence with the composer and critic Arthur Berger who helped set the parameters of Copland s reception is published here in its entirety edited by Wayne Shirley The contributors include Emily Abrams Paul Anderson Elliott Antokoletz Leon Botstein Martin Brody Elizabeth Crist Morris

Black Women of the Harlem Renaissance Era Lean'tin L. Bracks, Jessie Carney Smith, 2014-10-16 The Harlem

Renaissance is considered one of the most significant periods of creative and intellectual expression for African Americans Beginning as early as 1914 and lasting into the 1940s this era saw individuals reject the stereotypes of African Americans and confront the racist social political and economic ideas that denied them citizenship and access to the American Dream While the majority of recognized literary and artistic contributors to this period were black males African American women were also key contributors Black Women of the Harlem Renaissance Era profiles the most important figures of this cultural and intellectual movement Highlighting the accomplishments of black women who sought to create positive change after the end of WWI this reference work includes representatives not only from the literary scene but also

Activists Actresses Artists Educators Entrepreneurs Musicians Political leaders Scholars By acknowledging the women who played vital if not always recognized roles in this movement this book shows how their participation helped set the stage for the continued transformation of the black community well into the 1960s To fully realize the breadth of these contributions editors Lean tin L Bracks and Jessie Carney Smith have assembled profiles written by a number of accomplished academics and historians from across the country As such Black Women of the Harlem Renaissance Era will be of interest to scholars of women s studies African American studies and cultural history as well as students and anyone wishing to learn more about the women of this important era

Generation Multiplex Timothy Shary, 2014-04-01 Generation Multiplex 2002 was the first comprehensive study of the representation of teenagers in American cinema since David Considine s Cinema of Adolescence in 1985 This updated and expanded edition reaffirms the idea that films about youth constitute a legitimate genre worthy of study on its own terms Identifying four distinct subgenres school delinquency horror and romance Timothy Shary explores hundreds of representative films while offering in depth discussion of movies that constitute key moments in the genre including Fast Times at Ridgemoor High A Nightmare on Elm Street The Breakfast Club Say Anything Boyz n the Hood Scream American Pie Napoleon Dynamite Superbad The Twilight Saga and The Hunger Games Analyzing developments in teen films since 2002 Shary covers such topics as the increasing availability of movies on demand which has given teens greater access to both popular and lesser seen films the recent dominance of supernatural and fantasy films as a category within the genre and how the ongoing commodification of teen images in media affects real life issues such as school bullying athletic development sexual identity and teenage pregnancy

Le Tumulte Noir Jody Blake, 1999-01-01 Jody Blake demonstrates in this book that although the impact of African American music and dance in France was constant from 1900 to 1930 it was not unchanging This was due in part to the stylistic development and diversity of African American music and dance from the prewar cakewalk and ragtime to the postwar Charleston and jazz Successive groups of modernists beginning with the Matisse and Picasso circle in the 1900s and concluding with the Surrealists and Purists in the 1920s constructed different versions of la musique and la danse negre Manifested in creative and critical works these responses to African American music and dance reflected the modernists varying artistic agendas and historical climates Cultural Landscape Report for Saint-Gaudens National Historic Site: Recent history, existing conditions, and analysis Marion Pressley, Cynthia Zaitzevsky, 2009 Cultural Landscape Report for Aspet Lisa Nowak, Cynthia Zaitzevsky, Marion Pressley, 2009 Slow Fade to Black Thomas Cripps, 1993 Slow Fade to Black is a history of US African American accomplishment in film from the earliest movies through World War II It explores the growth of discrimination as filmmakers became more and more intrigued with myths of the Old South Contours of White Ethnicity Yiorgos Anagnostou, 2009-11-15 In Contours of White Ethnicity Yiorgos Anagnostou explores the construction of ethnic history and reveals how and why white ethnics selectively retain rework or reject their pasts Challenging the tendency to portray Americans of European background as a uniform cultural category the author demonstrates how a generalized view of American white ethnics misses the specific identity issues of particular groups as well as their internal differences Interdisciplinary in scope Contours of White Ethnicity uses the example of Greek America to illustrate how the immigrant past can be used to combat racism and be used to bring about solidarity between white ethnics and racial minorities Illuminating the importance of the past in the construction of ethnic identities today Anagnostou presents the politics of evoking the past to create community affirm identity and nourish reconnection with ancestral roots then identifies the struggles to neutralize oppressive pasts Although it draws from the scholarship on a specific ethnic group Contours of White Ethnicity exhibits a sophisticated interdisciplinary methodology which makes it of particular interest to scholars researching ethnicity and race in the United States and for those charting the directions of future research for white ethnicities The Other Great Migration Bernadette Pruitt, 2013-10-16 The twentieth century has seen two great waves of African American migration from rural areas into the city changing not only the country's demographics but also black culture In her thorough study of migration to Houston Bernadette Pruitt portrays the move from rural to urban homes in Jim Crow Houston as a form of black activism and resistance to racism Between 1900 and 1950 nearly fifty thousand blacks left their rural communities and small towns in Texas and Louisiana for Houston Jim Crow proscription disfranchisement acts of violence and brutality and rural poverty pushed them from their homes the lure of social advancement and prosperity based on urban industrial development drew them Houston's close proximity to basic minerals innovations in transportation increased trade augmented economic revenue and industrial development prompted white families commercial businesses and industries near the Houston Ship Channel to recruit blacks and other immigrants to the city as domestic laborers and wage earners Using census data manuscript collections government records and oral history interviews Pruitt details who the migrants were why they embarked on their journeys to Houston the migration networks on which they relied the jobs they held the neighborhoods into which they settled the culture and institutions they transplanted into the city and the communities and people they transformed in Houston      Public Art and Architecture in New Mexico 1933-1943 Kathryn A. Flynn, 2012 A
