Twelve Stories by American Women Arielle Zibrak, 2025-03-18 A collection of twelve essential short stories by iconic American women writers that introduces a more diverse canon and emphasizes non white and queer writers to better represent the experiences of all American women and to understand the importance of the short story for women A Penguin Classic When Four Stories by American Women was first published by Penguin Classics in 1990 it understandably reflected the second wave feminist interpretations of that time a period marked by an impressive recovery of what were then considered to be minor American writers Since then the four white women writers included in the volume Rebecca Harding Davis Charlotte Perkins Gilman Sarah Orne Jewett and Edith Wharton have become canonical figures and scholars have grown to see their work as only a small part of the rich tapestry of American women s lives values and political beliefs in the fertile period of late nineteenth century and early twentieth century American literature Today we not only have a deeper understanding of the significance of these texts and the complicated nature of their authors ideological orientations scholars and educators have also expanded the canon of American women writers to more frequently foreground the voices of non white and queer writers whose work speaks more fully to the experiences and beliefs of all American women This updated and expanded volume Twelve Stories by American Women edited by Arielle Zibrak offers a more diverse selection of writers including Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Mar a Cristina Mena Zitkala a Sui Sin Far and Barbara E Pope covers hot button issues such as environmentalism queerness and marital status and provides a new introduction that highlights the developments in the critical understanding of turn of the century American women writers in all of their complexity

Speculative Modernism William Gillard, James Reitter, Robert Stauffer, 2021-11-04 Speculative modernists that is British and American writers of science fiction fantasy and horror during the late 19th and early 20th centuries successfully grappled with the same forces that would drive their better known literary counterparts to existential despair Building on the ideas of the 19th century Gothic and utopian movements these speculative writers anticipated literary Modernism and blazed alternative literary trails in science religion ecology and sociology Such authors as H G Wells and H P Lovecraft gained widespread recognition budding from them other speculative authors published fascinating tales of individuals trapped in dystopias of anti society attitudes post apocalyptic worlds and the rapidly expanding knowledge of the limitless universe This book documents the Gothic and utopian roots of speculative fiction and explores how these authors played a crucial role in shaping the culture of the new century with their darker more evolved themes The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edith Wharton Emily

Orlando,2022-10-20 Bringing together leading voices from across the globe The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edith Wharton represents state of the art scholarship on the American writer Edith Wharton once primarily known as a New York novelist Focusing on Wharton s extensive body of work and renaissance across 21st century popular culture chapters consider Wharton in the context of queer studies race studies whiteness studies age studies disability studies anthropological studies and economics Wharton s achievements in genres for which she deserves to be better known poetry drama the short story and non fiction prose Comparative studies with Christina Rossetti Henry James and Willa Cather The places and cultures Wharton documented in her writing including France Greece Italy and Morocco Wharton s work as a reader and writer and her intersections with film and the digital humanities Book ended by Dale Bauer and Elaine Showalter and with a foreword by the Director and senior staff at The Mount Wharton s historic Massachusetts home the Handbook underscores Wharton s lasting impact for our new Gilded Age It is an indispensable resource for readers interested in Wharton and 19th and 20th century literature and culture Women and the Gothic Avril Horner,2016-02-22 A re assessment of the Gothic in relation to the female the feminine feminism and post feminism This collection of newly commissioned essays brings together major scholars in the field of Gothic studies in order to re think the topic of Women and the Gothic The 14 chapters in this volume engage with debates about Female Gothic from the 1970s and 80s through second wave feminism theorisations of gender and a long interrogation of the women category as well as with the problematics of post feminism now itself being interrogated by a younger generation of women The contributors explore Gothic works from established classics to recent films and novels from feminist and post feminist perspectives The result is a lively book that combines rigorous close readings with elegant use of theory in order to question some ingrained assumptions about women the Gothic and identity Key Features Revitalises the long running debate about women the Gothic and identity Engages with the political agendas of feminism and post feminism Prioritises the concerns of woman as reader author and critic Offers fresh readings of both classic and recent Gothic works A Companion to Hemingway's Death in the Afternoon Miriam B. Mandel,2009 New carefully focused essays providing a thorough examination of Hemingway s groundbreaking non fictional work Published in 1932 Death in the Afternoon reveals its author at the height of his intellectual and stylistic powers By that time Hemingway had already won critical and popular acclaim for his short stories and novels of the late twenties A mature and self confident artist he now risked his career by switching from fiction to nonfiction from American characters to Spanish bullfighters from exotic and romantic settings to the tough world of the Spanish bullring a world that might seem frightening and even repellant to those who do not understand it Hemingway's nonfiction has been denied the attention that his novels and short stories have enjoyed a state of affairs this Companion seeks to remedy breaking new ground by applying theoretical and critical approaches to a work of nonfiction It does so in original essays that offer a thorough balanced examination of a complex boundary breaking and hitherto neglected text The volume is broken into sections dealing with the composition reception and sources of Death in the Afternoon cultural translation cultural criticism semiotics and paratextual matters and the issues of art authorship audience and the literary legacy of Death in the Afternoon The contributors to the volume four men and seven women lay to rest the stereotype of Hemingway as a macho writer whom women do not read and their nationalities British Spanish American and Israeli indicate that Death in the Afternoon even as it focuses on a particular national art discusses matters of universal concern Contributors Miriam B Mandel Robert W Trogdon Lisa Tyler Linda Wagner Martin Peter Messent Beatriz Penas Ib ez Anthony Brand Nancy Bredendick Hilary Justice Amy Vondrak and Kenneth Kinnamon Miriam B Mandel teaches in the English Department of Tel Aviv University Different Dispatches David T. Humphries, 2006-03-09 In Different Dispatches David Humphries brings together in a new way a diverse group of well known American writers of the inter war period including Willa Cather Sherwood Anderson Ernest Hemmingway Zora Neale Hurston James Agee and Robert Penn Warren He demonstrates how these writers engage journalism in creating innovative texts that address mass culture as well as underlying cultural conditions The book will be of interest to readers approaching these well known authors for the first time or for scholars grappling with larger issues of cultural production and reception

Walking New York Stephen Miller, 2014-12-01 Walk along with New York's most celebrated writers on a tour of the city that inspired them in this evolving portrait of New York through the centuries The New York Observer ONE OF THE NEW YORK OBSERVER'S TOP 10 BOOKS FOR FALL It's no wonder that New York has always been a magnet city for writers Manhattan is one of the most walkable cities in the world But while many novelists poets and essayists have enjoyed long walks in New York their experiences varied widely Walking New York is a study of celebrated writers who walked the streets of New York and wrote about the city in fiction nonfiction and poetry Though the writers were often irritated disturbed and occasionally shocked by what they saw on their walks they were still fascinated by the city Cynthia Ozick called faithfully inconstant magnetic man made unnatural the synthetic sublime Returning to New York after an absence of two decades Henry James loathed many things about bristling New York while native New Yorker Walt Whitman both celebrated and criticized Mannahatta in his writings This idiosyncratic guidebook combines literary scholarship with urban studies to reveal how this crowded dirty noisy and sometimes ugly city gave these restless analysts plenty of fodder for their craft In Walking New York you'll see the city through the eyes of Walt Whitman Herman Melville William Dean Howells Jacob Riis Henry James Stephen Crane Theodore Dreiser James Weldon Johnson Alfred Kazin Elizabeth Hardwick Colson Whitehead and Teju Cole

Private Sphere to World Stage from Austen to Eliot Elizabeth Sabiston, 2017-11-30 Emily Dickinson's poem This is my letter to the World That never wrote to Me opens the Introduction which focuses on the near anonymity of nineteenth century women novelists Close readings of works by five British novelists Jane Austen Charlotte and Emily Bront Elizabeth Gaskell and George Eliot offer persuasive accounts of the ways in which women used stealth tactics to outmaneuver their detractors Chapters examine the hidden manifesto in Austen s works whose imaginative heroines defend women s writing the lasting impact of Jane Eyre with its modest heroine who takes up the pen to tell her own story even on male writers outside the English tradition Cathy s testament as the ghost text of Wuthering Heights and the shifting gender roles in Daniel Deronda with its silenced heroine and androgynous hero Though the focus is on British novelists the author s discussion of the Anglo American connections in the factory novels of Elizabeth Gaskell and the slavery writings of Harriet Beecher Stowe has particular relevance for its demonstration of how the move from the private to the public sphere enables and even compels the blurring of national and ethnic boundaries What emerges is a compelling argument for the relevance of these novelists to the emergence in our own time of hitherto silenced female voices around the globe

Fifty Great Short Stories Milton Crane,1983-08-01 50 Great Short Stories is a comprehensive selection from the world s finest short fiction The authors represented range from Hawthorne Maupassant and Poe through Henry James Conrad Aldous Huxley and James Joyce to Hemingway Katherine Anne Porter Faulkner E B White Saroyan and O Connor The variety in style and subject is enormous but all these stories have one point in common the enduring quality of the writing which places them among the masterpieces of the world s fiction

American Literary Scholarship James Leslie Woodress,1965

Polymorphous Domesticities Juliana Schiesari,2012-03-06 This book specifically maps out a figural play of gender sexuality and alternative forms of domesticity in four modern European and American writers Edith Wharton Djuna Barnes Colette and J R Ackerley What these four writers have in common is a defiance of the patriarchal paradigm in the lives they lead as well as in the literature that represents those lives The alternative lifestyles they pursue and write about prominently involves animals of various kinds and in as many capacities The rearrangement of the family life within these texts not only explores sexual alternatives but also explores how domestic life is refigured by the very presence of the animals who co habit those spaces The cultural sexual and social experimentation that these authors write about in the pursuit of alternative lifestyles is in direct relation with the animals who they share their lives with them in the domestic world of home
