The Power Of History:

The Power of Scale: A Global History Approach John Bodley, 2015-06-01 Throughout history the natural human inclination to accumulate social power has led to growth and scale increases that benefit the few at the expense of the many John Bodley looks at global history through the lens of power and scale theory and draws on history economics anthropology and sociology to demonstrate how individuals have been the agents of social change not social classes Filled with tables and data to support his argument this book considers how increases in scale necessarily lead to an increasingly small elite gaining disproportionate power making democratic control more difficult to achieve and maintain The Power of the Poor in History Gustavo Gutierrez, 2004-10-29 Gustavo Gutierrez the doyen of the Latin American liberation theologians published his landmark A Theology of Liberation in English in 1973 In The Power of the Poor in History he presents in eight major essays his developing theological insights A faithful history of the late discussions in Bengal, on the power of transportation without trial, assumed as a right by the supreme government of India, to be exercised on any Englishman, who may honestly avail himself of the freedom of the press. With copies of the official correspondence between W.B. Bayley and Mr. Buckingham James Silk Buckingham, 1823 Air Power History Sebastian Cox, Peter Gray, Peter W. Gray, 2002 This volume examines the theory and practice of air power from its earliest inception The South in the Building of the Nation: History of southern oratory, ed. by T. E. Wortman, 2017-11-30 This book examines the rhetorical force of certain key words in the discourses of Russian state political thought and literature It shows how terms for cultured conduct kul turnost political affection love liubov joy radost etc personhood lichnost truth pravda and geographical integrity tsel nost assumed almost sacral meaning It considers how these terms took on a life of their own imposing the designs of the Russian state and defining the hopes of educated society in the process By exploring the usage of these words in a wide range of texts Richard Wortman provides glimpses into the ideas and feelings of leading figures and thinkers in Russian history from Peter the Great to Alexander Herzen and Nicholas Berdiaev as well as writers like Mikhail Lermontov Ivan Turgenev and Fedor Dostoevsky giving a sense of the intellectual and emotional universe they inhabited The Power of Language and Rhetoric in Russian Political History provides both students and scholars with a specific focus through which to approach Russian culture and history This book is essential reading for students of Russian government thought literature and political action The History and practice of psychoanalysis Poul Carl Bjerre, 1916 Goods, Power, History Arnold J. Bauer, 2001-04-30 Why do we acquire the things we do Behind this apparently ingenuous question are several answers some straightforward and others more interesting To feed ourselves might be the first response for we can easily see that we expend much energy in the quest for food Clothing and shelter as well would seem to constitute our basic needs Yet we quickly see that even in the Garden of Eden people want more than they need This simple impulse has created the ever mounting abundance we call progress and nearly all of the subsequent trouble on our planet Four main interwoven themes run through this exploration of material culture and consumption in Latin America over the past five centuries supply and demand the relationships between consumption and identity the importance of ritual both ancient and modern in what we buy and the relationship between colonial and post colonial power in consumption History of the United States Wilbur Fisk Gordy, 1922 The Complete Writings of Lord Macaulay: History of England Thomas Babington Macaulay Baron Macaulay, 1899 An History of the Holy Bible Thomas Stackhouse, 1787 A History of Columbia County, Wisconsin James Edwin Jones, 1914 Studies in History and Jurisprudence James Bryce Bryce (Viscount), 1901 History of the Development of the Doctrine of the Person of Christ Isaak August Dorner, 1890 A History of Greece from the Earliest Times to the Death of Alexander the Great Charles Oman, 1901 Anthropological Papers of the American Museum of Natural History American Museum of Natural History, 1914 History of Pasadena Hiram Alvin Reid, 1895
