

The book cover features a classical painting as its background. In the upper left, two cherubs are depicted in flight against a golden, cloud-like background. The central figure is a woman, likely the Virgin Mary, dressed in a vibrant red gown and a dark blue mantle, seated and looking down with a serene expression. In the foreground, a pale, muscular male figure lies on the ground, his body partially draped in a white cloth. To the left, a man in a dark, patterned robe is shown in profile, holding a crown or scepter towards the central figure. The overall composition is dramatic, with strong contrasts between light and shadow, emphasizing the religious and political themes of the book.
