The Predatory Pedagogue:

The Predatory Pedagogue Z. T. Law, 2000-12 Barnett will take you to places you don't want to go. He wants to be accepted on his own terms but hasn't a clue as to what it takes. He travels the country performing services for hire that few people provide. Enter four West Coast detectives who combine efforts to stop an unknown assassin. Boil the mix down to two detectives against the assassin and an FBI agent. This page-turner will make you hate to stop reading. Children and Childhood in the Works of Stephen King Debbie Olson, 2020-10-06 This unique and timely collection examines childhood and the child character throughout Stephen King's works from his early novels and short stories through film adaptations to his most recent publications. King's use of child characters within the framework of horror or of horrific childhood raises questions about adult expectations of children, childhood, the American family, child agency, and the nature of fear and terror for or by children. The ways in which King presents, complicates, challenges, or terrorizes children and notions of childhood provide a unique lens through which to examine American culture, including both adult and social anxieties about children and childhood across the decades of King's works. The Wine of Astonishment Mary Overton, 1997 THE WINE OF ASTONISHMENT brings us a selection of thirteen stories containing a carnival house of characters, impetuous brides, immigrants struggling in a new land, suburban witches, rough and tumble low life, a father drunk on Tolstoy. A charming and magical book. Cuttingly real. Tin Pan Opera Larry Hamberlin, 2011-02-03 Author Larry Hamberlin guides us through the large but oft-forgotten repertoire of operatic novelties and brings to life the rich humor and keen social criticism of the ragtime era. He's the Wicked Bad Karyn Gerrard, 2021-01-14 Dark and brooding Nick Crocetti was labeled a bad boy from the moment he arrived in Rockland City. Now the owner of the bar, The Chief, whispers of criminal dealings and a murky past still swirl around him. Being alone suits Nick until his high school fantasy enters his life once again. Veronica Barnes is leaving behind a disastrous marriage along with her high-paying consulting career. Returning home, she is determined to follow a lifelong dream of opening a bakery. Meeting her secret high school crush, the wicked bad Nick, stirs up her emotions in ways she never imagined. Despite the mutual physical attraction, past and present, Nick and Veronica are wary and even though they would never admit it, lonely. Breaking down the barriers of past heartbreak seems insurmountable, especially when the intimate bond moves toward something neither counted on nor wanted. Acknowledging their feelings may be more than they bargained for. The Price of Nice Angelina E. Castagno, 2019-10-22 How being nice in school and university settings works to reinforce racialized, gendered, and disability-related inequities in education and society. Being nice is difficult to critique. Niceness is almost always portrayed and felt as a positive quality. In schools, nice teachers are popular among students, parents, and administrators. And yet, Niceness as a distinct set of practices and discourses is not actually good for individuals, institutions, or communities because of the way it maintains and reinforces educational inequity. In The Price of Nice, an interdisciplinary group of scholars explores Niceness in educational spaces from elementary schools through higher education to highlight how this seemingly benign quality reinforces structural inequalities Grounded in data personal narrative and theory the chapters show that Niceness as a raced gendered and classed set of behaviors functions both as a shield to save educators from having to do the hard work of dismantling inequity and as a disciplining agent for those who attempt or even consider disrupting structures and ideologies of dominance Contributors Sarah Abuwandi Arizona State U Colin Ben U of Utah Nicholas Bustamante Arizona State U Aidan Amanda J Charles Northern Arizona U Jeremiah Chin Arizona State U Sally Campbell Galman U of Massachusetts Frederick Gooding Jr Texas Christian U Deirdre Judge Tufts U Katie A Lazdowski Rom n Liera U of Southern California Sylvia Mac U of La Verne Lindsey Malcolm Piqueux California Institute of Technology Giselle Martinez Negrette U of Wisconsin Madison Amber Poleviyuma Arizona State U Alexis Richmond Arizona State U Frances J Riemer Northern Arizona U Jessica Sierk St Lawrence U Bailey B Smolarek U of Wisconsin Madison Jessica Solyom Arizona State U Megan Tom Arizona State U Sabina Vaught U of Oklahoma Cynthia Diana Villarreal U of Southern California Kristine T Weatherston Temple U Joseph C Wegwert Northern Arizona U Marguerite Anne Fillion Wilson Binghamton U Jia Hui Stefanie Wong Trinity College Denise Gray Yull Binghamton U
