Institutional Change and Irrigation Management in Burkina Faso Charlotte van der Schaaf, 2008 Water and land policies form the basis for this study on the realities of policy implementation and outcomes at the local level The empirical study focuses on two small scale irrigation systems in Burkina Faso It contributes to the discussion on the widespread trend to transfer management responsibilities through the ongoing decentralisation process from the state to water user associations The study shows the intra community power structures and changing relationships between state actors and the community and the consequences for the management of these systems and the related natural resources Studying the

Short-story Joseph Berg Esenwein, 1918 Poe's Perfect Crimes Yasuhiro Takeuchi, 2025-02-12 The genius of Edgar Allan Poe extends far beyond his groundbreaking creation of Auguste Dupin which laid the foundation for detective fiction What remains little known is that Poe envisioned an even more sophisticated form of the genre Works in this form take an innovative approach allowing the reader rather than a fictional detective to uncover and solve hidden murders In 1844 as the Dupin stories concluded Poe published two lesser known works Thou Art the Man and A Tale of the Ragged Mountains These stories reflect his ambition to engage readers in a game of wits with himself This study endeavors to rise to his challenge and unravel the perfect crimes hidden for nearly two centuries within these tales As we delve deeper another mystery arises What is analysis By examining Dupin's secrets to successful analysis and contrasting them with the failures of the narrators in stories like The Black Cat and The Fall of the House of Usher this book seeks to unlock Poe's fundamental mystery of analysis The story-teller; or, Table-book of popular literature. Ed. by R. Bell Story-teller, 1843 All-story Magazine, 1907 Rome's Enemies Within John S McHugh, 2024-10-30 The greatest danger to Roman emperors was the threat of deadly conspiracies arising among the Senate the imperial court or even their own families All the emperors that reigned from Augustus to the end of the first century AD faced such efforts to overthrow or assassinate them John McHugh uncovers these conspiracies narrating them and seeking to explain them The underlying cause in many cases was the decline in influence patronage and status granted by emperors to the Senatorial class leading some to seek power for themselves or a more generous candidate Attempted assassinations or coups led the emperors to mistrust the Senate and rely more on freedmen causing more resentment Paranoid emperors often reacted to the merest hint of treason real or imagined with punishments and executions leading more of those around them to consider desperate measures out of self preservation And of course amid this vicious circle of poisonous mistrust there were ambitious family members promoting their own or their offspring's claims to the purple and the duplicitous Praetorian Guard John McHugh brings to light a century of assassination conspiracy and betrayal exploring the motives and aims of the plotters and the bloody cost of success or failure Operas:
