The Prevention Of Youthful Crime The Great Stumble Forward:

The Prevention of Youthful Crime James C. Hackler, 1978 Professional Child and Youth Care Roy Ferguson, Carey J. Denholm, Alan R. Pence, 1993 Provides an overview of the spectrum of concerns within the field of child care in Canada The book pays particular attention to developments in the field from the mid 1980s to the mid 1990s The Criminology of Criminal Law William Laufer, 2017-07-05 The Criminology of Criminal Law considers the relation between criminal law and theories of crime criminality and justice This book discusses a wide range of topics including the way in which white collar crime is defined new perspectives on stranger violence the reasons why criminologists have neglected the study of genocide the idea of boundary crossing in the control of deviance the relation between punishment and social solidarity the connection between the notion of justice and modern sentencing theory the social reaction to treason and the association between politics and punitiveness Contributors include Bonnie Berry Don Gottfredson David F Greenberg Marc Riedel Jason Rourke Kip Schlegel Vered Vinitzky Seroussi Leslie T Wilkins Marvin E Wolfgang and Richard A Wright The Criminology of Criminal Law concludes with an analysis of the results of a study on the most cited scholars in the Advances in Criminological Theory series This work will be beneficial to criminologists sociologists and scholars of legal studies Advances in Criminological Theory is the first series exclusively dedicated to the dissemination of original work on criminological theory It was created to overcome the neglect of theory construction and validation in existing criminological publications Community Policing in a Rural Setting Quint Thurman, Edmund F. McGarrell, 2014-10-13 The authors provide stepping stones for rural and small town agencies to make the organizational changes needed for community policing to take hold The book introduces the concept of community policing and its many benefits to the agencies and communities that adopt it Important issues discussed include the challenge of organizational change as well as examples of community policing obstacles and successes and the future of community policing in the 21st century The Geography of Crime (RLE Social & Cultural Geography) David Evans, David Herbert, 2014-01-10 This book presents original research into contemporary geographical aspects of the study of crime The contributors drawn from different disciplines within the social sciences and from various countries give a review of the subject which provides a valuable insight into the geography of crime Their approaches range from the behavioural to the environmental and the crimes dealt with include violent crime and residential burglary The book examines data sources discusses different crimes and ways of studying them and considers the fear of crime The criminal justice system in the UK is examined in detail including policy the operations of community and police committees and an account of the experience of crime prevention policies in Britain and North America is also given Juvenile Justice and Delinquency David Springer, Albert Roberts, 2011-04-18 Traces the progress toward resolving critical juvenile justice and delinquency issues and to provide cutting edge intervention strategies to effectively rehabilitate juvenile offenders and prevent delinquency The 21 chapters in this book are divided into four sections Part I provides an overview of juvenile delinquency and the juvenile justice system In this section we examine historical political legal and arrest delinquency trends and consider comprehensive community planning as one strategy for improving the juvenile justice system Part II explores early crime prevention strategies effective programs to reduce antisocial behavior and school bullying and the powerful relationship between school performance and juvenile delinquency Part III examines and critiques a range of developmental familial and sociological theories that are commonly used to explain and understand juvenile delinquency Finally in Part IV we examine a range of juvenile justice treatment and policy alternatives including mental health screening and assessment suicide prevention evidence based intervention models police responses and strategies to delinquency drug and mental health courts therapeutic jurisprudence restorative justice female delinquency and community based after care

Judicial Administration in Canada Perry S. Millar, Carl Baar, 1981-01-01

Drug Education in Schools Christine Eiser, J. Richard Eiser, 2012-12-06 Double Take is a drug education package produced by the Department of Health and Social Security United Kingdom This video package was distributed at no cost to all secondary schools catering to students from eleven years onwards in England and Wales during 1986 This book reports the results of a research evaluation of this educational package particularly in terms of its acceptability to teachers and pupils The evaluation discussed in this book was conducted deliberately within the context of organizational and methodological restrictions The primary concern was less with the potential effectiveness of Double Take under optimal conditions Rather the investigators were interested in the ways in which teachers themselves chose to adopt and integrate the package within existing courses and with the restrictions of pupils in their schools

Routledge Library Editions: Social & Cultural Geography Various Authors, 2022-07-30 Re issuing books originally published between 1969 and 1990 this set of 15 volumes gives a 20 year perspective on the development of the discipline of social geography The books emphasize the increasingly important contribution of geographical theory to the understanding of social change values economic and political organization and ethical imperatives The volumes are authored by well known international geographers and discuss the philosophy and sociology of geography as well as key themes such as the geography of health crime space They also examine the cross over of geography with other disciplines such as literature and history

Fostering Nation? Veronica Strong-Boag, 2011 The first comprehensive perspective on Canada's provision for marginalized youngsters from the nineteenth to the twenty first century It's examination of kin care institutions state policies birth parents foster parents and foster youngsters provides ample reminder that children's welfare cannot be divorced from that of their parents and communities

Handbook on Crime and Delinquency Prevention Elmer Hubert Johnson, 1987-04-21 The Handbook clearly points out that although the literature on crime prevention is voluminous the social conditions that invoke criminality are resistant to social change The articles repeatedly demand a critical evaluation of prevention theories and programs and call for accountability within the crime prevention profession The collection will serve as a valuable resource for policymakers and practitioners as well as for academics The volume includes an excellent directory of crime delinquency prevention organizations and a supplementary bibliography Choice In recent years the idea of prevention as a means of controlling crime has gained unprecedented popularity Advocates of crime prevention frequently see its proactive nature to be superior to the reactive stance of typical law enforcement Yet major questions continue to arise about what prevention is how it can be carried out to whom it should be directed and where it can best be implemented Elmer E Johnson has drawn together a variety of perspectives in an effort to provide an integrated analysis of fundamental concepts relating to the preventive approach
