Narratives Theodora D. Patrona,2017-08-29 This book is a comparative study of six Italian American and Greek American literary works written in the three last decades of the 20th century and examined in pairs Based on the common theme of the authors return either metaphorical or literal to the country of origin and its culture Return Narratives explores the common motifs of mythology ritual and storytelling where the third generation writers resort to in their quest for self definition With a common historical and cultural background in the old neighboring countries Greece and Italy and a similar reception in the new world facilitating a comparative approach the ethnic writers of the two literatures clearly envisage ethnic space as a site of resilience and empowerment No Faff, No Fuss, Just Food Maryanne Coleman,2020-05-01 No Faff No Fuss Just Food is a cookery book for people who have better things to do than slave over a hot stove Filled with suggestions as well as recipes and thoughtfully peppered with pages for your own ideas this book takes the lid off the simmering worries which many people have when cooking for themselves family and friends cooking should be fun not scary and reading this romp through possibly the most relaxed kitchen in the world will have you laughing as well as very soon cooking like you mean it Recipes in No Fuss No Faff Just Food include main meals snacks basic techniques and of course chocolate cake There s no point in a recipe book with no chocolate cake in it and as a bonus it is gluten and dairy free Safety in the kitchen from sharp knives to anaphylactic shock avoidance of is covered as well as some yummy recipes If you only ever have one cookery book make it this one Vegetarian Turkish Cooking ,2001 Robertson relates a series of captivating and delightful travel adventures in

Alphonso Maria de Liguori, Bishop of St. Agatha of the Goths, and Founder of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer ,1848 Lippincott's Monthly Magazine ,1897 Blücher Michael V. Leggiere,2014-01-29 One of the most colorful characters in the Napoleonic pantheon Gebhard Leberecht von Blücher 1742 1819 is best known as the

Prussian general who along with the Duke of Wellington defeated Napoleon at the Battle of Waterloo Throughout his long career Blücher distinguished himself as a bold commander but his actions at times appeared erratic and reckless This magnificent biography by Michael V Leggiere an award winning historian of the Napoleonic Wars is the first scholarly book in English to explore Bl cher s life and military career and his impact on Napoleon Drawing on exhaustive research in European archives Leggiere eschews the melodrama of earlier biographies and offers instead a richly nuanced portrait of a talented leader who contrary to popular perception had a strong grasp of military strategy Nicknamed Marshal Forward by his soldiers he in fact retreated more often than he attacked Focusing on the campaigns of 1813 1814 and 1815 Leggiere evaluates the full effects of Bl cher s operations on his archenemy In addition to providing military analysis Leggiere draws extensively from Bl cher s own writings to reveal the man behind the legend Though tough as nails on the outside Bl cher was a loving family man who deplored the casualties of war This meticulously written biography enhanced by detailed maps and other illustrations fills a large gap in our understanding of a complex man who for all his flaws and eccentricities is justly credited with releasing Europe from the yoke of Napoleon s tyranny

The Carrot Purple and Other Curious Stories of the Food We Eat Joel S. Denker, 2015-10-01 How many otherwise well educated readers know that the familiar orange carrot was once a novelty It is a little more than 400 years old Domesticated in Afghanistan in 900 AD the purple carrot in fact was the dominant variety until Dutch gardeners bred the young upstart in the seventeenth century After surveying paintings from this era in the Louvre and other museums Dutch agronomist Otto Banga discovered this stunning transformation The story of the carrot is just one of the hidden tales this book recounts Through portraits of a wide range of foods we eat and love from artichokes to strawberries The Carrot Purple traces the path of foods from obscurity to familiarity Joel Denker explores how these edible plants were in diverse settings invested with new meaning They acquired not only culinary significance but also ceremonial medicinal and economic importance Foods were variously savored revered and reviled This entertaining history will enhance the reader s appreciation of a wide array of foods we take for granted From the carrot to the cabbage from cinnamon to coffee from the peanut to the pistachio the plants beans nuts and spices we eat have little known stories that are unearthed and served here with relish

Call Mother a Lonely Field Liam Carson, 2013-04-25 Shortlisted for the 2013 Ondaatje Prize Call Mother a Lonely Field mines the emotional archaeology of family home and language the author s attempts to break their tethers and the refuge he finds within them Carson confronts the complex relationship between a son thinking in English a father dreaming in Irish in a room just off the reality I knew and a mother who after raising five children through Irish is no longer comfortable speaking it in the violent reality of 1970s Belfast The author s Irish speaking West Belfast childhood is described through still present echoes of the Second World War dystopian science fiction American comic books and punk rock At the same time he explores how Irish language literature and stories are transmitted from mouth to mouth

After years in London and Dublin the deaths of his parents bring Liam Carson a new sense of community and understanding as he heals his fractured relationship with Irish His rediscovery of the language as a sanctuary is central to a book exploring the potency of vanishing worlds be they childhood a city or a way of life A short but intense portrayal of his parents and the divided city where they made their lives It will leave you enriched no matter your origins Bernard MacLaverty The Compound Heist Ike Morah,2013-07-17 In The Compound Heist a mafia don robs a bank an airport and a mans house all at once They are all linked to the man Ike who though old was more than a force to reckon with in a fight He is God fearing and does everything to help the good against the evil while the don was out for vengeance since he killed his father Intrigues blackmails complicated plots ruthlessness and spectacular fights abound as Ike takes them out No matter what goodness always overcomes evil
