The Princess and the Goblin George MacDonald,2020-11-19 The Princess and the Goblin is the story of the young Princess Irene her good friend Curdie a minor s son and Irene s mysterious and beautiful great great grandmother who lives in a secret room at the top of the castle stairs Filled with images of dungeons and goblins mysterious fires burning roses and a thread so fine as to be invisible and yet like prayer strong enough to lead the Princess back home to her grandmother s arms this is a story of Curdie s slow realization that sometimes as the princess tells him you must believe without seeing J R R Tolkien was a great admirer of George MacDonald s fairy stories When his children were young he used to read The Princess and the Goblin to them in the evenings before they went to bed The Princess and the Goblin 100th Anniversary Classic Edition George MacDonald,2021-05-02 Although George MacDonald wrote The Princess and the Goblin primarily for children his fantasy continues to delight readers of all ages It is the story of two young people who grow in maturity and spiritual development as they thwart the evil plans of goblins MacDonald s book contains the elements of good storytelling an exciting well paced plot and believable characters who have human weaknesses as well as strengths The twentieth century English poet W H Auden called MacDonald s technique dream realism and honored The Princess and the Goblin as the only English children s book in the class book Unquestionably MacDonald employed fantasy as a way of presenting the Christian spiritual concepts of faith and love But MacDonald s marvelous story with its fusion of fantasy and realism is so original that it appeals to the imagination rather than to analytical faculties letting the reader experience his spiritual message at a deep psychological level These qualities led C S Lewis to observe that MacDonald s art is essentially the art of myth making

The Princess and the Goblin - Large Print Edition George MacDonald,2020-12 There was once a little princess whose father was king over a great country full of mountains and valleys His palace was built upon one of the mountains and was very grand and beautiful The princess whose name was Irene was born there but she was sent soon after her birth because her mother was not very strong to be brought up by country people in a large house half castle half farmhouse on the side of another mountain about half way between its base and its peak The princess was a sweet little creature and at the time my story begins was about eight years old I think but she got older very fast Her face was fair and pretty with eyes like two bits of night sky each with a star dissolved in the blue Those eyes you would have thought must have known they came from there so often were they turned up in that direction The ceiling of her nursery was blue with stars in it as like the sky as they could make it But I doubt if ever she saw the real sky with the stars in it for a reason which I had better mention at once
