The Prison Papers Of Bozorg Alavi A Literary Odyssey:

The Prison Papers of Bozorg Alavi Donné Raffat, Buzurg 'Alavī, 1985-09 Traces the life of an Iranian dissident writer who spent much of his life in exile or prison and includes interviews and short stories written while imprisoned by Reza Shah

Prison in Iran Nahid Rahimpour Anaraki, 2020-11-06 This book offers a unique look into prisons in Iran and the lives of the prisoners and their families It provides an overview of the history of Iranian prisons depicts the sub culture in contemporary Iranian prisons and highlights the forms that gender discrimination takes behind the prison walls The book draws on the voices of 90 men and women who have been imprisoned in Iran interviewed in 2012 and 2017 across various parts of the Islamic Republic of Iran It presents a different approach to the one proposed by Michel Foucault in Discipline and Punish because the author argues that Iran never experienced the age of sobriety in punishment and a slackening of the hold on the body Whilst penal severity in Iran has reduced its scope has now extended beyond prisoners to their families regardless of their age and gender In Iran penalties still target the body but now also affect the bodies of the entire prisoner's family It is not just prisoners who suffer from the lack of food clothes spaces for sleeping health services legal services safety and threats of physical violence and abuse but also their families The book highlights the costs of mothers incarceration for their children It argues that as long as punishment remains the dominant discourse of the penal system the minds and bodies of anyone related to incarcerated offenders will remain under tremendous strain This unique book explores the nature of these systems in a deeply under covered nation to expand understandings of prisons in the non Western world

Culture and Cultural Politics Under Reza Shah Bianca Devos, Christoph Werner, 2013-08-22 Culture and Cultural Politics Under Reza Shah presents a collection of innovative research on the interaction of culture and politics accompanying the vigorous modernization programme of the first Pahlavi ruler Examining a broad spectrum of this multifaceted interaction it makes an important contribution to the cultural history of the 1920s and 1930s in Iran when under the rule of Reza Shah Pahlavi dramatic changes took place inside Iranian society With special reference to the practical implementation of specific reform endeavours the various contributions critically analyze different facets of the relationship between cultural politics individual reformers and the everyday life of modernist Iranians Interpreting culture in its broadest sense this book brings together contributions from different disciplines such as literary history social history ethnomusicology art history and Middle Eastern politics In this way it combines for the first time the cultural history of Iran's modernity with the politics of the Reza Shah period Challenging a limited understanding of authoritarian rule under Reza Shah this book is a useful contribution to existing literature for students and scholars of Middle Eastern History Iranian History and Iranian Culture

Edinburgh History of Reading Rose Jonathan Rose, 2020-07-09 Reveals the experience of reading in many cultures and across the ages Covers pornography and the origins of the transgender movement Explores everyday reading in Nazi Germany Analyses prison reading Examines reading in revolutionary societies and occupied nations Subversive Readers explores the strategies used by readers to question authority challenge convention resist oppression assert their independence and imagine a better world This kind of insurgent reading may be found everywhere in revolutionary France and Nazi Germany in Eastern Europe under Communism and in Australian and Iranian prisons among eighteenth century women reading history and nineteenth century men reading erotica among postcolonial Africans the blind and pioneering transgender activists

Persian Literature and Modernity Hamid Rezaei Yazdi, Arshavez Mozafari, 2018-12-07 Persian Literature and Modernity recasts the history of modern literature in Iran by elucidating the bonds between the classical tradition and modernity and exploring textual generic and discursive formations through heterodoxical investigations This is first done through the rehabilitation of concepts embedded in tradition including the mun zirah debate Ahr man the demonic tajarrud radical aloneness and n riz yat discontent Following this are broader structural and processual treatments including the emergence of the genre of the social novel the international dimension of Persian and Persianate canon formation and the development of salvage ethnography and anthropological discourse in Iran Covering literary experiments from the twelfth to the twentieth centuries the chapters in this volume make a case for stepping outside the bounds of orthodox literary scholarship in Iranian studies with its associated political and orientalist determinants in order to provide a more nuanced conception of literary modernity in Iran Offering an alternative reading of modernity in Persian literature this book is an invaluable resource for scholars and students interested in the history of modern Iran and Persian Literature

Essays On Nima Yushij Ahmad Karīmī Hakkāk, Kamran Talattof, 2004 Situating Nima's life firmly within the context of 20th century Iranian history this book contributes to an emerging trend in literary scholarship on Persian literature that views Persian poetry as a living and constantly evolving tradition rather than an icon of some fading glory

Global 1979 Arang Keshavarzian, Ali Mirsepassi, 2021-07-15 The Iranian revolution of 1979 not only had an impact on regional and international affairs but was made possible by the world and time in which it unfolded This multi disciplinary volume presents this revolution within its transnational and global contexts Moving deftly from the personal to the global and from the provincial to the national it draws attention to the multiplicity of spaces of the revolution such as streets schools prisons personal lives and histories such as the Cold War and Global 1960s and 70s With a broad range of approaches Global 1979 conceives of the Iranian Revolution not as exceptional or anachronistic but as an uprising constituted by multiple interwoven geographies and histories which disrupt static and bounded notions of the local national regional and global

Global Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2011-12-21 In countries worldwide the Cold War dominated politics society and culture during the second half of the twentieth century Global Cold War Literatures offers a unique look at the multiple ways in which writers from Asia Africa Europe and North and South America addressed the military conflicts revolutions propaganda wars and ideological debates of the era While including essays on western European and North American literature the volume views First World writing not as central to the period but as part of an international discussion of Cold War realities in which the most interesting contributions often came from marginal or subordinate cultures To this end there is an emphasis on the literatures of the Second and Third Worlds including essays on Latin American poetry Soviet travel writing Chinese autobiography African theatre North Korean literature Cuban and eastern European fiction and Middle Eastern fiction and poetry With the post Cold War era still in a condition of emergence it is essential that we look back to the 1945-89 period to understand the political and cultural forces that shaped the modern world The volume's analysis of those forces and its focus on many of the hot spots Afghanistan Iran North Korea that define the contemporary war on terror make this an essential resource for those working in Postcolonial American and English Literatures as well as in History Comparative Literature European Studies and Cultural Studies Global Cold War Literatures is a suitable companion volume to Hammond's Cold War Literature Writing the Global Conflict also available from Routledge The Politics of Writing in Iran Kamran Talattof, 2000-05-01 Emerging in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries as a secular activity Persian literature acquired its own modernity by redefining past aesthetic practices of identity and history By analyzing selected work of major pre and post revolutionary literary figures Talattof shows how Persian literary history has not been an integrated continuum but a series of distinct episodic movements shaped by shifting ideologies Drawing on western concepts modern Persian literature has responded to changing social and political conditions through complex strategies of metaphorical and allegorical representations that both construct and denounce cultural continuities The book provides a unique contribution in that it draws on texts that demonstrate close affinity to such diverse ideologies as modernism Marxism feminism and Islam Each ideological standard has influenced the form characterization and figurative language of literary texts as well as setting the criteria for literary criticism and determining which issues are to be the focus of literary journals Sadeq Hedayat Homa Katouzian, 2007-09-13 Featuring contributions from leading scholars of Iranian studies and/or comparative literature this edited comprehensive and critical edited collection provides detailed scholarly analysis of Hedayat's life and work using a variety of methodological and conceptual approaches Hedayat is the author of The Blind Owl the most famous Persian novel both in Iran and in Europe and America Many of his short stories are in a critical realist style and are regarded as among some of the best written in twentieth century Iran But his most original contribution was the use of modernist more often surrealist techniques in Persian fiction Thus he was not only a great writer but also the founder of modernism in Persian fiction Yet both Hedayat's life and his death came to symbolize much more than leading writers would normally claim He still towers over modern Persian fiction and will remain a highly controversial figure so long as the clash of the modern and the traditional the Persian and the European and the religious and the secular has not led to a synthesis and a consensus A Companion to Comparative Literature Ali Behdad, Dominic Thomas, 2011-09-02 A Companion to Comparative Literature presents a collection of more than thirty original essays from established and emerging scholars which explore the history current state and future of comparative literature Features over thirty original essays from leading international contributors

Provides a critical assessment of the status of literary and cross cultural inquiry Addresses the history current state and future of comparative literature Chapters address such topics as the relationship between translation and transnationalism literary theory and emerging media the future of national literatures in an era of globalization gender and cultural formation across time East West cultural encounters postcolonial and diaspora studies and other experimental approaches to literature and culture

In a Persian Mirror M. R. Ghanoonparvar, 2010-07-05 The extreme anti Western actions and attitudes of Iranians in the 1980s astonished and dismayed the West which has characterized the Iranian positions as irrational and inexplicable In this groundbreaking study of images of the West in Iranian literature however M R Ghanoonparvar reveals that these attitudes did not develop suddenly or inexplicably but rather evolved over more than two centuries of Persian Western contact Notable among the authors whose works Ghanoonparvar discusses are Sadeq Hedayat M A Jamalzadeh Hushang Golshiri Gholamhoseyn Sa'edi Simin Daneshvar Moniru Ravanipur Sadeq Chubak and Jalal Al-e Ahmad This survey significantly illuminates the sources of Iranian attitudes toward the West and offers many surprising discoveries for Western readers not least of which is the fact that Iranians have often found Westerners to be as enigmatic and incomprehensible as we have believed them to be

The Cambridge History of Iran William Bayne Fisher, P. Avery, G. R. G. Hambly, C. Melville, 1968 Iran from 1722 1979 political social economic and religious aspects of Iran

Veils and Words Farzaneh Milani, 1992 This is the first book in any language about the writing of women in Iran For centuries any sense that there could be a literary tradition among women was suppressed Since the middle of the 19th century however a number of pioneering women have defied the traditional order to produce poetry and novels of the highest quality but many of them have paid for their courage with accusations of immorality promiscuity heresy and even lunacy

Representing Iran in East Germany Edgar Klüsener, 2021-04-22 Economic and political relations with Iran were a primary concern for the German Democratic Republic leadership and dominated the GDR's press This is the first book to analyse the representation of Iran in the media from the GDR's formation in 1949 until 1989 the last complete year before its demise Covering key events such as the overthrow of the Mossadegh government in 1953 the White Revolution the Islamic Revolution of 1979 and the Iran Iraq war the author reveals that only in periods where the two countries enjoyed less amicable or poor relations was the press free to critically report events in Iran and openly support the cause of the country's communist party the Tudeh The book explores the use of the press as a tool for ideological education and propaganda It also examines how the state's official Marxist Leninist ideology the GDR's international competition with West Germany and cultural prejudices and stereotypes impacted reporting so powerfully

Oriental Responses to the West Nasrin Rahimieh, 2023-10-20 Modern writers and scholars from the Islamic East have represented actual or fictional encounters with the West in a surprising variety of ways Far from constituting a monolithic approach to the West as Western Orientalism often tended to these writings reveal an interest in and sometimes acute perception of cross cultural conflict and synthesis The very difficulties experienced by writers and critics immersed in two or more cultures have led to new creative and innovative forms of response to the West By shifting focus in East West relations towards the East it initiates further interdisciplinary discussions

Hedayat's Blind Owl as a Western Novel Michael Beard, 2014-07-14 The Iranian writer Sadeq Hedayat is the most influential figure in twentieth century Persian fiction and the object of a kind of cult after his suicide in 1951 His masterpiece The Blind Owl is the most important novel of modern Iran Its abrupt tortured opening sentence There are sores which slowly erode the mind in solitude like a kind of canker is one of the best known and most frequently recited passages of modern Persian But underneath the book's uncanniness and its narrative eccentricities Michael Beard traces an elegant pastiche of familiar Western traditions A work of advocacy for a disturbing and powerful piece of fiction his comprehensive analysis reveals the significance of The Blind Owl as a milestone not only for Persian writing but also for world literature The international decentered nature of modernist writing outside the West typified by Hedayat's European education and wide reading in the Western canon suggested to Beard the strategy of assessing The Blind Owl as if it were a Western novel Viewed in this context Hedayat's intricate chronicle challenges the very notion of a national literature rethinking and reshaping our traditions until we are compelled through its eyes to see them in a new way Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
