Kamus Peribahasa Melayu-Inggeris Shamsuddin Ahmad, 2007 The Reading Life Peter Bollen, 2022-12-11 Collected columns Reviews Interesting exclusive interviews with noted authors Educating for Democracy Daniel Schugurensky, Tara Bartlett, 2024-08-06 This captivating book provides a detailed examination of school participatory budgeting SPB a process that combines school democracy civic engagement and citizenship education Presenting insights from SPB processes across the globe it advocates for the wider rollout of programs which amplify students voices their deliberative capacities and decision making power while improving school climate and campus infrastructure Healing the Split Marc Elihu Hofstadter, 2011 Healing the Split consists of the collected essays of poet literary critic and philosopher Marc Elihu Hofstadter The essays stretch from Hofstadter s early scholarly articles about poets William Carlos Williams and Yves Bonnefoy through articles published in the Redwood Coast Review about poetry art music science politics and France to recent articles concerning the split between the sciences and the humanities reason and feeling intuition faith The book embodies Hofstadter s consistent belief in the idea that all human activities are composed of an objective element and a subjective element Human knowledge whether scientific mathematical philosophical or artistic contains a degree of objective certainty mixed with a component of subjective feeling The differences between science and the humanities are differences of degree of objectivity not of essence and the knowledge the humanities display is a genuine form of knowledge less certain than science but rich in tangible felt experience Even early in his career as a literary critic Hofstadter was interested in how such otherwise diverse poets as Williams and Bonnefoy sacralize the coming together of mind and world in all forms of human experience As Williams put it No ideas but in things by which he meant not Let there not be any ideas but Let all ideas be inextricably entwined with the physical world Hofstadter argues that in all our activities there is a mixture of the thinking reasoning mind and the parts of us that feel perceive touch our bodies our hearts Science and philosophy are the great achievements of the mind while art and religion are the most powerful consummations of sensing and feeling yet science and philosophy are partly emotive and art and theology partly rational The difference again is in degree Healing the Split is an attempt to bring reason and feeling intuition faith together to show how they are intimately related The Buddhist faith is key to this effort because Buddhism doesn t analyze out reason and non rational knowledge as separate faculties but tries to unite them in a direct embodied kind of experience that heals the split between them and makes the individual human being whole In Buddhism everything we know is known through consciousness and distinctions between subject and object mind and world logic and faith become artificial since consciousness is essentially unitary And Buddhism sees all phenomena known through consciousness as being related in a universal web everything is connected ultimately to everything else and the world is essentially One Healing the Split is finally a work of mysticism in the line of Parmenides who believed that everything is one or the Kabbalists who worshipped the All in the form of Ha Shem the unnamable Name Marc Elihu

Hofstadter was born in New York City in 1945 He received his B A in French literature from Swarthmore College in 1967 and his Ph D in Literature from the University of California at Santa Cruz in 1975 He has taught American literature at Santa Cruz the Universite d Orleans on a Fulbright Lectureship and Tel Aviv University In 1980 he obtained his Master of Library Science degree from the University of California at Berkeley and from 1982 to 2005 served as the Librarian of the City of San Francisco s transit agency He has published five volumes of poetry House of Peace Visions Shark s Tooth Luck and Rising at 5 AM all of which are available on amazon com and his poems translations and essays have appeared in over sixty magazines He lives in the retirement community of Rossmoor in Walnut Creek California with his partner the artist David Zurlin
