Information Rights Philip Coppel, 2014-12-01 This is the fourth edition of what is the leading practitioner's text on freedom of information law Providing in depth legal analysis and practical guidance it offers complete authoritative coverage for anyone either making handling or adjudicating upon requests for official information The three years since the previous edition have seen numerous important decisions from the courts and tribunals in the area These and earlier authorities supply the basis for clear statements of principle which the work supports by reference to all relevant cases The book is logically organised so that the practitioner can quickly locate the relevant text It commences with an historical analysis that sets out the object of the legislation and its relationship with other aspects of public law Full references to Hansard and other Parliamentary materials are provided This is followed by a summary of the regime in five other jurisdictions providing comparative jurisprudence which can assist in resolving undecided points The potential of the Human Rights Act 1998 to support rights of access is dealt with in some detail with reference to all ECHR cases Next follows a series of chapters dealing with rights of access under other legislative regimes covering information held by EU bodies requests under the Data Protection Act and the Environmental Information Regulations public records as well as type specific rights of access These introduce the practitioner to useful rights of access that might otherwise be overlooked They are arranged thematically to ensure ready identification of potentially relevant ones The book then considers practical aspects of information requests the persons who may make them the bodies to whom they may be made the time allowed for responding the modes of response fees and vexatious requests the duty to advise and assist the codes of practice government guidance and its status transferring of requests third party consultation The next 13 chapters comprising over half the book are devoted to exemptions These start with two important chapters dealing with general exemption principles including the notions of prejudice and the public interest The arrangement of these chapters reflects the arrangement of the FOI Act but the text is careful to include analogous references to the Environmental Information Regulations and the Data Protection Act 1998 With each chapter the exemption is carefully analysed starting with its Parliamentary history giving full references to Hansard and other Parliamentary material and the treatment given in the comparative jurisdictions The analysis then turns to consider all court judgments and tribunal decisions dealing with the exemption The principles are stated in the text with footnotes giving all available references Whether to prepare a case or to prepare a response to a request these chapters allow the practitioner to get on top of the exemption rapidly and authoritatively The book concludes with three chapters setting out the role of the Information Commissioner and the Tribunal appeals and enforcement The chapter on appeals allows the practitioner to be familiar with the processes followed in the tribunal picking up on the jurisprudence as it has emerged in the last eight or so years Appendices include precedent requests for information a step by step guide to responding to a request comparative tables and a table of the FOI Act s Parliamentary history Finally the book includes an annotated copy of the FOIA Act the Data Protection Act 1998 the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 all subordinate legislation made under them EU legislation Tribunal rules and practice directions and the Codes of Practice Contributors Prof John Angel former President of the Information Tribunal Richard Clayton QC 4 5 Gray s Inn Square Joanne Clement 11 KBW Gerry Facena Monkton Chambers Eleanor Gray QC

Special Operations Forces in Iraq Leigh Neville, 2011-03-15 Filled with recently declassified material first hand accounts and unique photographs this book offers a rare look at the largest mobilisation of Special Forces in recent history The companion volume to Elite 163 Special Operations Forces in Afghanistan Leigh Neville now turns his expert analysis to the Special Operations Forces SOF of the US and Coalition allies serving in Iraq since 2003 Examining in detail the US Delta Force the British SAS Australian and Canadian Special Forces as well as CIA and MI6 operational units this book provides a crucial study of their skills and success in Iraq from the Battle of Debecka to storming the safe house of Uday Hussein In a controversial war that was plagued by high fatalities and military blunders this book highlights the successes enjoyed by Special Forces Operatives Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2013 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Military Construction, Veterans Affairs, and Related Agencies, 2012 Why Spy? Brian Stewart, Samantha Newbery, 2015 With practical experience both of field work and of the intelligence bureaucracy at home and abroad Stewart examines successes and failures via case studies considers the limitations and usefulness of the intelligence product and warns against the tendency to abuse or ignore it when its conclusions do not fit with preconceived ideas The Occupation of Iraq: Volume 2 Stefan Talmon, 2013-02-08 The invasion and occupation of Iraq rank among the most controversial and complex issues in international law in recent history This volume of documents covers the occupation of Iraq from the planning stages of the invasion of Iraq in early 2002 to the transfer of governing authority to the Iraqi Interim Government on 28 June 2004 The book presents 595 selected documents including the first complete set of all Regulations Orders Memoranda and Public Notices issued by the US led occupation administration of Iraq the Coalition Provisional Authority CPA several of which were never published on the CPA's website or promulgated in Alwaqai Aliraqiya the Official Gazette of Iraq Some of these legal acts have shaped the economic and political system of present day Iraq and will be part of the country's legal order for years to come The book also includes some 120 other CPA and CPA related documents selected from more than 5000 unclassified CPA documents and received under freedom of information requests lodged in the United States the United Kingdom Australia and Switzerland These documents include instructions and proclamations to the Iraqi people in the early stages of the occupation organizational charts internal legal opinions diplomatic notes international agreements concluded by the CPA with other States and numerous internal memoranda for the head of the CPA Ambassador Paul L Bremer on legal diplomatic and political issues The book also presents for the first time all 235 resolutions passed by the Iraqi Governing Council IGC between July 2003 and June 2004 The resolutions as well as many of the 25 other important IGC documents including various political statements press releases and decrees of the Council's Higher National De Ba'athification Commission have been translated from Arabic and are presented here for the first time in English These documents are complemented by the relevant United Nations documents on the occupation of Iraq as well as some 50 policy documents of the United States the United Kingdom and the Iraqi opposition movement as well as all relevant fatwas religious rulings of Grand Ayatollah Ali al-Sistani which shaped the internal Iraqi political process during the occupation This collection archives these important documents for future use and makes them easily accessible to researchers and professionals Considering that the main source of information for the occupying powers in Iraq were the precedents set during the First and Second World Wars the occupation of Iraq will serve as a modern precedent for future administrations of occupied territory The documents are made easily accessible by a comprehensive table of documents a list of abbreviations more than 1100 explanatory notes and cross references and a substantive subject index This volume is the second on The Occupation of Iraq It is complemented by a monograph by the same author which on the basis of the documents collection presents a comprehensive analysis of The Governance of Occupied Territory in Contemporary International Law The Future of the Military Services and Consequences of Defense Sequestration United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services,2012

Department of Defense Appropriations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of Defense,2013
