Special Selection For Teachers

Axel Gehrmann, Peggy Germer

Special Selection For Teachers:

Teacher Shortage in International Perspectives: Insights and Responses Axel Gehrmann, Peggy Germer, 2025-02-25 This Open Access volume aims to inspire innovative and culturally responsive transformations in teacher education practices and policies within Europe and beyond in the context of teacher shortage. It amalgamates the collaborative efforts during several years between the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Research ZLSB at TU Dresden University of Technology Saxony Germany and eleven international partners. The articles inside explore different viewpoints on teacher shortage and endeavors to systematically navigate the intricacies of the problem in light of contemporary political shifts, institutional paradigms of universities and the theoretical contemplations of the respective nations. Researchers from Australia, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the United Kingdom, Germany, Ireland, Japan, Poland, Sweden, Switzerland, and the United States venture into new territories by intertwining the discourse about teacher shortage with alternative routes into the teaching vocation.

European Education and Teachers Digumarti Bhaskara Rao, 2003. European countries have different educational set ups and varied teacher education programmes. As much literature is not available on education and teachers of European countries to the people of developing states, this book is prepared in order to give all information in nutshell about the European Education, the present status and the strategies that are in action to enhance the quality of education and the status and competencies of teachers. This book also explains the political scenario, the expenditure on education, the educational reforms, the programmes for future, the aspects to be considered in teacher education and teacher recruitment etc. This book will add many things to our present teacher education and general education programmes and policies.

Affirming the Comprehensive Ideal Richard Pring, Geoffrey Walford, 2021-04-29. Examines the ideals which lay behind the development of comprehensive schools. Written by 14 British educationalists, this text considers the evidence and suggests how further progress might be made within the moral framework of secondary education for all, irrespective of background or ability. The text includes an afterword by the Rt Hon John Prescott MP, Deputy Leader of the Labour Party.

Initial Training for History Teachers Alois Ecker, 2003-01-01. The Council of Europe's work on history teaching in secondary schools has three main thrusts: curriculum development, textbooks, and teaching materials, and teacher training, which should take into account societal developments and the cultural needs of coming generations. This pilot study is the first comparative study on the structures of initial training for history teachers to be carried out in several European countries. Its aim is to provide information that will raise the level of professionalism, not only of history teaching but also of teacher training. Publisher's description.
