The Institutes of Biblical Law Vol. 1 R. J. Rushdoony, 2009-11-16 To attempt to study Scripture without studying its law is to deny it To attempt to understand Western civilization apart from the impact of Biblical law within it and upon it is to seek a fictitious history and to reject twenty centuries and their progress The Institutes of Biblical Law has as its purpose a reversal of the present trend it is called Institutes in the older meaning of the that word i e fundamental principles here of law because it is intended as a beginning as an instituting consideration of that law which must govern society and which shall govern society under God To understand Biblical law it is necessary to understand also certain basic characteristics of that law In it certain broad premises or principles are declared These are declarations of basic law The Ten Commandments give us such declarations A second characteristics of Biblical law is that the major portion of the law is case law i e the illustration of the basic principle in terms of specific cases These specific cases are often illustrations of the extent of the application of the law that is by citing a minimal type of case the necessary jurisdictions of the law are revealed The law then asserts principles and cites cases to develop the implications of those principles with is purpose and direction the restitution of God s order Status and Future of Small Business United States.
