The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in Psychology Carla Willig, Wendy Stainton Rogers, 2017-03-31 One of our bestselling handbooks The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in Psychology is back for a second edition. Since the first edition qualitative research in psychology has been transformed. Responding to this existing chapters have been updated and three new chapters introduced on Thematic Analysis, Interpretation and Netnography. With a focus on methodological progress throughout the chapters are organised into three sections: Section One Methods, Section Two Perspectives and Techniques, Section Three Applications. In the field of psychology and beyond this handbook will constitute a valuable resource for both experienced qualitative researchers and novices for many years to come.

Civic Discipline Karen M. Morin, 2016-05-23 The American Geographical Society was the pre eminent geographical society in the nineteenth century U S. This book explores how geographical knowledge and practices took shape as a civic enterprise under the leadership of Charles P. Daly, AGS president for 35 years 1864-1899. The ideals and programmatic interests of the AGS link to broad institutional societal and spatial contexts that drove interest in geography itself in the post Civil War period and also link to Charles Daly's personal role as New York civic leader, scholar, revered New York judge and especially popularizer of geography. Daly's leadership in a number of civic and social reform causes resonated closely with his work as geographer such as his influence in tenement housing and street sanitation reform in New York City. Others of his projects served commercial interests including in American railroad development and colonization of the African Congo. Daly was also New York's most influential access point to the Arctic in the latter nineteenth century. Through telling the story of the nineteenth century AGS and Charles Daly this book provides a critical appraisal of the role of particular actors, institutions and practices involved in the development and promotion of geography in the mid nineteenth century U S that is long overdue.

Muffled Echoes Amy Fried, 1997 Ten years ago the Iran Contra affair swept the headlines as the nation watched an indignant Lt. Col. Oliver North testify before a congressional committee. Although polls showed that most Americans were critical of North's actions and ambivalent toward the man himself, media coverage left the opposite impression with its broadcasts of Ollie for president rallies and stories of congressional aides overwhelmed by a torrent of pro North mail. In this book public opinion is more than the sum of a pollster's tally; instead, Amy Fried defines it as a political tool integral to the political process where vested interests compete to legitimize their interpretation of the public voice. Fried explores the construction, interpretation and uses of public opinion, raising important questions about the media. and the role of special interest groups in determining policy Criminal Defence and Procedure T. Scheffer, K. Hannken-Illjes, A. Kozin, 2010-10-29 Procedure is not just a programme or a nexus of formalities It is something done by legal experts and lay participants in a highly concerted ensemble Procedure frames and advances all law relevant activities This book written by three authors from different disciplinary backgrounds provides an in depth comparison of criminal defence work in different legal cultures Via an ethnographic comparison this book also shows how defence work responds to the challenges of different procedural regimes and how it contributes to their individual outcomes Criminal Defence and Procedure opens up new horizons for legal comparison inviting novel understandings of procedural law as well as possibilities of legal reform Pragmatic Inquiry John R. Bowen, Nicolas Dodier, Jan Willem Duyvendak, Anita Hardon, 2020-10-08 This book examines a range of critical concepts that are central to a shift in the social sciences toward pragmatic inquiry reflecting a twenty first century concern with particular problems and themes rather than grand theory Taking a transnational and transdisciplinary approach the collection demonstrates a shared commitment to using analytical concepts for empirical exploration and a general orientation to research that favors an attention to objects techniques and practices The chapters draw from broad based and far reaching social theory in order to analyze new specific challenges from grasping the everyday workings of markets courtrooms and clinics to inscribing the transformations of practice within research disciplines themselves Each contributor takes a key concept and then explores its genealogies and its circulations across scholarly communities as well as its proven payoffs for the social sciences and often critical reflections on its present and future uses This carefully crafted volume will significantly expand and improve the analytical repertoires or toolkits available to social scientists including scholars in sociology or anthropology and those working in science and technology studies public health and related fields Emotion and Discourse in L2 Narrative Research Matthew T. Prior, 2015-10-22 This book examines the interactional management of emotionality in second language autobiographical interview research Advancing a discursive constructionist approach it offers a timely methodological and reflexive perspective that brings into focus the dynamic and dilemmatic aspects of interviewee and interviewer identities and experiences and it makes visible the often unexpected and unseen consequences for the research project and beyond The author weaves together critical discussion and empirical analysis based on longitudinal narrative based research with adult immigrants from Southeast Asia living in the US and Canada This interdisciplinary book will be compelling reading for students researchers and others interested in emotion narrative discourse identity interaction interviews and qualitative research Adjudication in Action Baudouin Dupret, 2016-03-16 Adjudication in Action describes the moral dimension of judicial activities and the judicial approach to questions of morality observing the contextualized deployment of various practices and the activities of diverse people who in different capacities find themselves involved with institutional judicial space Exploring the manner in which the enactment of the law is morally accomplished and how practical legal cognition mediates and modulates the treatment of cases dealing with sexual morality this book offers a rich praxeological study that engages with living law as it unfolds in action Inspired by Wittgenstein's later thought and engaging with recent developments in ethnomethodology and conversation analysis Adjudication in Action challenges approaches that reduce the law to mere provisions of a legal code presenting instead an understanding of law as a resource that stands in need of contextualization Through the close description of people's orientation to and reification of legal categories within the framework of institutional settings this book constitutes the first comprehensive study of law in context and in action

States of Denial Stanley Cohen, 2013-08-29 Blocking out turning a blind eye shutting off not wanting to know wearing blinkers seeing what we want to see these are all expressions of denial Alcoholics who refuse to recognize their condition people who brush aside suspicions of their partner's infidelity the wife who doesn't notice that her husband is abusing their daughter are supposedly in denial Governments deny their responsibility for atrocities and plan them to achieve maximum deniability Truth Commissions try to overcome the suppression and denial of past horrors Bystander nations deny their responsibility to intervene Do these phenomena have anything in common When we deny are we aware of what we are doing or is this an unconscious defence mechanism to protect us from unwelcome truths Can there be cultures of denial How do organizations like Amnesty and Oxfam try to overcome the public's apparent indifference to distant suffering and cruelty Is denial always so bad or do we need positive illusions to retain our sanity States of Denial is the first comprehensive study of both the personal and political ways in which uncomfortable realities are avoided and evaded It ranges from clinical studies of depression to media images of suffering to explanations of the passive bystander and compassion fatigue The book shows how organized atrocities the Holocaust and other genocides torture and political massacres are denied by perpetrators and by bystanders those who stand by and do nothing Law in Action Max Travers, John F. Manzo, 2016-12-05

Ethnomethodologists and Conversation Analysts have always been interested in the study of law and legal institutions and there is now a large body of empirical studies representing a range of analytic traditions in each field This collection introduces this literature and the research questions pursued by ethnomethodologists and conversation analysts in an accessible form to a general audience in the interdisciplinary field of law and society studies
