

a pleasure resort. I think it would pay far better to have a few active members, professing a genuine interest in political reform, than to have a large number of men who wished to collect to talk and drink, and in reality cared little for the true objects of the association. We might have a large number of names on the list, of people who would take an interest in it as election day drew near; and we might also have a few real men, who ~~it~~ would of necessity have the real work devolve upon them.
