Last Night When I Was Young Geoffrey Littlefield,2021-11-18 Last Night When I Was Young saw me riding thoroughbred racehorses as if I were Doug Smith and Fred Winter In the same vein I played football as Jimmy Greaves did for Chelsea and I was a Test Match batsman emulating the great PBH May I hit the biggest serve as Mike Sangster in the Davis Cup as well as bobbing and weaving in the boxing ring exactly like my favourite Dick Tiger the world middleweight champion I was unstoppable behind the wheel of a racing car as Britain s first world champion Mike Hawthorn but on the speedway track I rode with stylish aplomb interpreting my hero Ronnie Mirac Moore Swinging a mashie niblick as Peter Alliss was no handicap Rugby Union at Twickenham when my body swerve was very sharp Richard Sharp When the Olympics came around I ran the race of my life both over long distances and over one lap hurdles respectively as Gordon Pirie and the great David Hemery With eyes open I loved watching the upright Dorothy Hyman dip and throw herself over the line whilst I fell in love with Mary Rand hitch kicking her way into Olympic history Fantasy is then mixed with fact The jockeys journeys from completing exacting apprenticeships to becoming champions on the Flat and the National Hunt Smith riding two year olds on the edge in the One Thousand Guineas and the Two Thousand Guineas Whereas Winter was jumping off the edge of the world in The Grand National The trials and tribulations with the relative success of the 1960 s Chelsea football team from Drake s ducklings morphing into Docherty s uncut diamonds A fourteen year old boy from New Zealand leaves home to become the first speedway superstar The fight of the week from the USA brings us a Nigerian boxer who confounds convention and fights his way to the top of two weight divisions A classical English batsman an amateur as such who set records as a captain and whose impact on Test cricket is second to none Birdies and bogeys abound yet our golfing hero is a true British legend 152 miles per hour as a world record was a cannonball service that belonged to a British no 1 tennis star that left us far too early The first British world motor racing champion whose play boy antics on and off the track caused his untimely death A brief yet scintillating career as England s fly half sees a jaw dropping piece of rugby played over and over sixty years later The hackles on the neck rise again through an Olympic television commentary that almost matches the magnitude of the performance and the world record that was set All are sporting yesterday s worthy of repeat a young boy s memory listing every feat Pioneers & Icons of Australian Motorsport Bill Pearson,2025-02-21 The author has captured in words and lavish illustrations many of his own that have never been seen before the stories of over one hundred men and women whose personal motor racing journeys paved the way to establish and explode this sport They did so both locally and overseas showing that Aussies were as good as the world's best when it came to not only skill behind the wheel but also in the design and manufacture of the fastest cars and in organising events of the highest level and regard. Most of these names are extremely well known by all Aussie petrol heads; household names admired around any backyard barbecue. Just the mention of their names brings nods of respect. But you will additionally read accounts of some very significant lives and racing achievements you previously knew nothing about and some are quite simply amazing. There's our first woman to race commercially overseas. Just how she got there is incredible. Then you share the exploits of an illegal inter-capital record holder who went to New Zealand to break the land speed record, the farmers whose sons and grandsons became racing dynasties and the home-grown mechanics and car builders whose designs obliterated all competition. Strap yourself in and hang on. It's gonna be a bloody wild ride.

Both Sides of the Fence Reg Fearman, 2014-07-07 Reg Fearman is the man who knows all of speedway's secrets and is prepared to reveal them. He has taken a unique full-throttle white knuckle ride to the top as an international rider, a world-class team manager, a successful promoter and a formidable administrator. He has never ducked a confrontation on or off the speedway track; he knows the glamorous and the murky side of a tough, fabulously exciting and sometimes cruel sport and he spares no one's blushes, not even his own. John Chaplin, speedway's leading historian. From humble origins in London's East End, this is the story of how Reg Fearman became a local hero with West Ham, the cockney giants of speedway, and went on to represent his country first as a rider at the tender age of 17 and then as an international manager. A captivating mixture of sporting achievement, politics and business and social history, it also looks at how speedway was resurrected from the doldrums of the late 1950s and dragged into a new Jet Age golden era, a time which paved the way for the heights that the sport has enjoyed in the twenty-first century as a global phenomenon. Including a plethora of untold truths, revelations and a rich treasure trove of photographs, Reg lays bare for the first time the sensational inside story of the resurrection of speedway.

Warts and all Dr Brian Belton, JP and author Wembley Speedway Norman Jacobs, Lipscombe, 2002-03-15 The Wembley Lions enjoyed early success and then became even stronger after the Second World War, to win seven out of eight league titles between 1946 and 1953. This book tells the story of the pre-war years when the foundations for this success were laid and when tens of thousands of supporters would turn out for meetings.
